JOHNSON IN FOXY MOVE.

Takes Advantage of G.O.P. Split.

Gets Indorsement of One Wing of Republicanism in North Dakota.

State Central Committee Division Gives Californian His Opportunity.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BISMARCK (N. D.) Feb. 27.—Resolutions requesting all prospective candidates for the Presidency to file for the primary election in North Dakota March 1 and indorsing the candidacy of Senator Johnson of California were adopted here today at a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, called by Chairman William Lemke of Fargo.

In adopting the resolutions, the committeemen denounced action taken by a convention of Republicans here February 17 in urging Presidential candidates not to file petitions for the primary. The February 17 meeting was called by six members of the State Central Committee, opposed to the Nonpartisan League, who did not attend today's meeting. The meeting today indorsed a ticket for the March primary, including candidates for National Committeemen, Presidential electors and National Convention delegates. The list was identical with one reported from a meeting of 150 "Progressive Republicans" at Fargo, February 20.

ASK HOOVER BALLOTS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—The Herbert Hoover Club of Minnesota has sent a request to Republican county chairmen throughout the state to provide ballots for the Republican primary election March 16, when Presidential indorsement will be the issue.

State Chairman Gustaf Lindquist, of St. Paul, ruled recently that Hoover's name would not be printed on the official ballot because he had not declared his party affiliation.

U. S. Senator Johnson, a candidate for the Republican nomination, recently referred to the Minnesota primary as a "farce."

Supporters of other candidates have charged that the primary was managed by State leaders who are supporting the candidacy of Gen. Wood.

IRISH BILL'S TEXT IS OUT.

Lloyd George Outline Followed.

The Measure Provides Parliaments for Both North and South Parts.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The government tonight made public the text of its Irish Home Rule Bill, introduced in the House of Commons on Wednesday, and passed through its first reading by title. The measure follows closely the outlines given the House by Premier Lloyd George last December. By its provisions two Parliaments will be set up, one for the North and the other for the South of Ireland, the northern to consist of 52 members and the southern of 128 members. The representation in the imperial Parliament would be 12 for North Ireland and 20 for South Ireland, necessitating the reapportionment of Ireland, which is provided for in the bill.

THE NORTHERN AREA.

The northern area would be composed of the counties of Antrim, Armagh, Down, Fermanagh, Londonderry and Tyrone, and boroughs of Belfast and Londonderry.

A "council for Ireland," composed of forty members, half of whom would be selected by each of the Parliaments, is also provided for in the bill. The legislative powers of the new council would be only those granted it by the two legislatures, but the framers of the bill hope it will form a nucleus around which would be built one Parliament for the whole of Ireland. Almost unlimited executive, legislative and judicial powers are provided for such a united Parliament, but the powers to be conferred on the separate Parliaments would be considerably curtailed. Responsibility for organizing the united Parliament and the power to create it is left entirely with the two legislatures. The bill provides that the united Parliaments, if formed, would control the customs and excise.

COURT OF APPEAL.

At the outset, according to the bill, the Parliament would have full control of education, local government and the land policy, agriculture, roads and bridges, transportation, old-age pensions, insurance, municipal affairs, housing, hospitals and licenses, all the judicial offices would be controlled by the Irish Parliaments, each body controlling the officers in its own district, but there would be a court of appeal for the whole of Ireland, presided over by the Lord Chancellor.

For Four Hours Norris Rages and Fumes Over the Fate of Egyptians.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Senate talked without acting today in its consideration of the peace treaty.

As yesterday, most of the time went to the irreconcilable opponents of ratification, Senator Norris, Republican, one of the irreconcilable group, making a four-hour speech in denunciation of the treaty provisions affecting Egypt and the treatment accorded the Egyptian delegates to Versailles.

Only for a brief period, just before adjournment, was there any discussion of the pending reservation which deals with decision of domestic questions under the league. Adoption of the reservation in its original form was advocated by Senator Smith, Democrat, Georgia. He argued that the substitute presented by Senator Hitchcock, the administration leader, would amount to amendment of the treaty.

SURVEY FOR ARTICLE X.

While the debate was in progress leaders on both sides made canvasses of the attitude of Democratic Senators toward acceptance of the crucial Article X reservation in the form it went through last November, with the result that both sides claimed increased strength. Among Republicans, it was declared that only a few more Democratic votes would be needed to insure ratification, but the administration Senators asserted ratification would fail by a wide margin unless the Republican Article X reservations were modified.

The Democratic leaders also are understood to have felt out sentiment among the irreconcilables, particularly with a view to the probable political consequences, if ratification on the basis of the Republican reservations again were blocked by Democratic votes. Such a result, it generally is conceded, would throw the whole question into the campaign, and some Democratic Senators are said to be anxious to learn how far the irreconcilable Republicans would go in their opposition should the Republican National Convention declare for ratification with reservations.

On this question, it was declared, divided counsels were found among the irreconcilables. Senator Borah, Republican, has said openly that he would carry the fight for rejection to the people after the convention. Others of the group, however, are said to favor accepting the decision of the convention, while even Mr. Borah has been indefinite in suggestions regarding the possible formation of a third party.

Senator Lodge's draft of the domestic questions reservation would reserve to the United States the right to decide what issues, such as immigration, are purely internal, and therefore not subject to the jurisdiction of the League of Nations. Opposing this, the Democrats will attempt to have adopted the Hitchcock substitute, voted down last November, providing that "no member nation" shall be required to submit to the league any question it considers domestic.

BERLIN NOW OBJECTIVE FOR BOLSHEVIK LEADERS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Many foreign Bolshevik leaders have arrived in Berlin during the last few days, according to Exchange Telegraph dispatches. The best known of the leaders is the Hungarian, Alexander Garbai, whose visit, the dispatch says, is believed to be connected with the establishment of an international Bolshevik organization with headquarters in Berlin.

The town of Onega is situated at the mouth of the Onega River and is on Onega Bay, an arm of the White Sea. It is about eighty miles southwest of Archangel.

A Bolshevik communication today records the unchecked progress of the Red forces in the Murmansk region, and announces the occupation of the stations of Kapeselga and Madveishlagora and several villages. The communication says an armored train, eight airplanes and a large quantity of war material have been taken.

TAKE MANY PRISONERS AND SUPPLIES.

On the southwest front, in the region of Tiraspol and Odessa, the communication announces the captures between January 24 and February 17 included 12,700 prisoners, 342 guns, 23 armored trains, 5500 rifles, 15 airplanes and 299 motor cars.

On the Caucasian front, the Bolsheviki claimed the occupation of a number of localities between the sea and Rostov.

In the Alexandrovski region of the Turkestan front, according to the communication, the Reds captured the army staff of Gen. Martynoff. They also took 50,000,000 Don rubles.

LETT-SOVIET CONFERENCE IN WARSAW.

The Lettish Legation announces that a conference between the border states to consider the question of peace with soviet Russia will be held soon at Warsaw.

WARSAW, Thursday, Feb. 27.—Lithuanian troops mutinied in Kovne February 21, according to the Polish government news agency, besieging the Parliament building for twenty-four hours to enforce demands for back pay. The railway station and other parts of the city were subjected to artillery fire day and night.

The besiegers meanwhile fired upon the Parliament and other government buildings with rifles and machine guns. Loyal troops suppressed the mutiny.

Report attributes the mutiny to Bolshevism. It is said the Lithuanian politicians now are more favorable toward reaching an understanding with Poland for resistance to Bolshevism.

ARREST OF LEADERS IN FRANCE NEAR; GENERAL WALKOUT IS THREATENED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Feb. 27.—La Liberte understands the arrest of certain strike leaders is imminent, saying an investigation into the origin of the strike movement bared the existence of a revolutionary organization.

In a statement today the general secretary of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean Railroad Company, says: "News of mobilization of three classes of railroad employees has already produced some effect. Many men returned to work this morning before summons to military duty reached them. Four hundred and thirty men resumed work at Avignon alone."

It is announced that nearly 100 employees have been dismissed for striking after being warned that abandonment of their posts would result in dismissal.

PARIS, Saturday, Feb. 28.—An order was sent out during the night by the Executive Committee of the National Federation of Railway Men for a general strike of all rail men on all roads in France, according to information reaching the Petit Parisien.

The order for a general strike seems to have been the outcome of nocturnal deliberations of the committee in which the Executive Committee of the General Labor Federation had a hand, as well as delegations from the different Paris unions.

The strike situation is somewhat confused. It is understood that the National Federation of Railway Men, which has confined itself to negotiations with Premier Millerand, decided his arbitration suggestion was impracticable and last night again approached the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean Company, in the person of General Manager Sharp, M. Sharp repeated his refusal to reinstate Compagnard, whose discharge by the railroad company for absence from duty to attend a union meeting caused the walkout.

BULLETINS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 27.—Gov. Robertson declared tonight that today's adoption of the House resolution by the Senate completes ratification of the Federal suffrage amendment. It makes no difference he asserted, whether the House emergency clause eliminated by the Senate, which then returned the measure to the House, which provides immediate ratification, is attached. There is no way, he declared, for the ratification proposal to be submitted to a referendum at the August primary, as the Senate resolution provides.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Soviet Russia's proposal to the United States for peace will receive no consideration from the American government, it was said today at the State Department. Officials said the proposal did not differ from previous proposals made by the Bolsheviki to the great powers and that it would not be made public as it was regarded largely as an effort to further soviet propaganda throughout the world. A resolution asking the President to "re-establish full and cordial relationships," with the Russian people through "the government of Russia," was introduced today by Senator France, Republican, Maryland.

ROPER IS NEXT TO QUIT WILSON FORCES.

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE ANNOUNCES INTENTION TO RESIGN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Daniel C. Roper, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has informed governmental officials of his intention to resign shortly. Although his formal resignation had not been received tonight at the White House, the matter of his successor is understood to be under consideration.

Beyond the fact that he plans to return to private life, no information as to the future plans of Mr. Roper was available here tonight. The commissioner was absent from the city. The resignation, however, it was ascertained, will not become effective for several weeks. Mr. Roper having consented to remain at the head of the Revenue Bureau until after income tax returns for the past year have been filed and the collection of such taxes, the first installment of which is due March 15, is well under way.

In returning to private life, Mr. Roper will end a long public career as the administrator of the greatest tax collection agency ever organized, which last year gathered approximately $5,000,000,000 in government revenues. He became Commissioner of Internal Revenue in September, 1917, just as the war emergency caused abnormal increase in all Federal taxes, and necessitated expansion of the bureau from a small, peace-time affair, concerned chiefly with imports on alcohol and tobacco, into a tremendous machine reaching into the pockets of millions of citizens for increased income taxes and into the records of corporations and partnerships.

Mr. Roper's bureau was given the task of enforcing nation-wide prohibition by the Volstead Enforcement Act, and he utilized the personnel and machinery formerly devoted to collection of excise taxes to establish a prohibition enforcement section with branches in every State.

HELGOLAND, ONCE GERMANY'S IMPREGNABLE BARRIER, IS NOW BUT A MERE DISMANTLED HULK.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—Helgoland—two years ago Germany's most impregnable barrier against Allied sea power—today is a dismantled hulk of no military importance. The black, imperious bulk of the island itself, surrounded by tons of masonry and ingeniously-constructed gun emplacements, is all that remains.

Germans concerned in the construction of the fortress declare another seven years' work will be necessary to complete Helgoland's "demobilization." Work has been in progress for over a year. All the guns have been dismantled, but the destruction of the huge works and other fortifications on the island is proceeding.

The island played a negative part in the defense of the German coast, probably because Allied experts agree that it would have been impossible to silence its batteries.

The foundations of the barrier, which is about 800 yards in length and 500 yards wide, consist of huge blocks of concrete. All these have to be destroyed.

The ground on which the barracks stand, to reclaim which from the sea a multitude of Germans worked for years at a cost of $6,000,000, is to be returned to the sea. Everything in the defenses of Helgoland is worked by hydraulic power. The water necessary for the defense and sanitary purposes is drawn by huge pumps from fifty feet below the level. The subterranean galleries, which are electrically lighted, are regarded by military men as "wonder works."

Although the Germans considered that the secret of Helgoland had been kept inviolate, it now is revealed that a British naval officer, posing as an American student, saw all the fortifications in 1913.

POLITICAL CRITICS DO NOT WORRY HOOVER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Though busy preparing a technical engineering speech he will deliver in a day or two, Herbert Hoover has consented to comment on the recent utterances by Senator Penrose and W. J. Bryan, regarding himself.

"We are making decided progress toward the determination of the attitude of the great political parties on the solution of the great business and social issues for the next election," he said.

"For instance, Mr. Penrose has declared that I am not his kind of Republican. Mr. Bryan has declared I am not his kind of Democrat. Mr. Hearst has declared I have not his variety of patriotism. I at once agree with these gentlemen.

"Having now disposed of this momentous matter, let us get on with the issues—our methods of taxation, for instance."

While Democratic politicians have been more outspoken about the Hoover sentiment they have found than have the Republicans, it is a fact, that the leaders of the G.O.P. are experiencing difficulties in covering up the fact that a great many Republicans would like to get an opportunity to vote for Mr. Hoover in the fall.

A poll was recently taken among Republican college presidents of their views as to who should be the Republican candidate for President.

THE WESTERN PACIFIC WILL BUILD TO NILES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Extension of the Western Pacific Railroad from Niles to San Jose has been decided upon by the directors, according to official announcement here today. No definite date has been set for construction to begin but surveys have been completed and terminal and shop facilities in San Jose, are under consideration, it was said.

PENNILESS VETERAN FAILS AS CRIMINAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Ralph Durber, former overseas man, was penniless and hungry last night so he "faced forth with a revolver he had captured from a German officer and attempted to hold up a hotel clerk. He lost his nerve, however, and was captured. Today, he told his story in court, was dismissed and a $10 collection taken up for him in the courtroom. He would not touch the money until he had arranged to have the judge take his revolver with the understanding that the $10 was a loan and the revolver its security.

LATER DISPATCHES

To Assess Stockholders.

MODESTO, Feb. 27.—Henry P. Packard, receiver of the First National Bank at Newman, has informed the depositors of the bank that the stock of the bank would be assessed 100 per cent. He stated that the amount to be realized by the depositors would be affected largely by the amount of rain that falls in the Newman section within the next six weeks. He stated that three or more inches of rain would enable him to collect between $150,000 and $200,000 on notes due the bank that otherwise might not be collected.

Finds Fighting Again.

WARSAW, Thursday, Feb. 26.—While the peace proposals are pending the Bolsheviki, according to a Polish communication issued today, have attacked the northern front in the region of Dvinsk and the Volhynian front in the region of Letyczow. Both attacks were repulsed.

The newspapers announce the Bolsheviki have renewed the fighting on both sides of the River Dniester, but that the Poles are more than holding their own.

Loot of German Navy.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Transfer of the remaining German warships to the Allies has been fixed for June 10. On that day eight battleships, eleven cruisers and fifty destroyers will be formally surrendered.

Dr. Baker Wanted Here?

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Dr. Charles F. Baker, member of a wealthy family and hero of the World War, was arrested here tonight charged with passing worthless checks amounting to more than $10,000 on local merchants. The police declared he was wanted in New York City, Los Angeles and many other cities on similar charges.

He was said by the police to have served part of a term in San Quentin penitentiary for forgery, escaping while at work with a road gang, near Willits, three years ago. He then fled to New York, leaving a trail of worthless checks behind him, the police charge, and enlisted in the army. While in France he was decorated for bravery.

COMMISSION TAKES OVER SAAR REGION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SAARBRUCK, Feb. 27. — The commission to govern the Saar region of Rhenish Prussia, where rich coal deposits are situated, made its official entry into Saarbruck today, headed by Gen. Wiribel, the administrator. The burgomaster welcomed the commission. There was no untoward incident.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Germany has informed Austria that, beginning March 1, a legation, instead of an embassy, will be maintained at Vienna, the State Department was advised today.

FORESEES FEDERAL SUPERVISION IN NEWSPRINT PAPER SHORTAGE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The president of the big Consolidated Paper Company, C. W. Mead, has announced that the situation as regards the rapidly declining stocks of newsprint is now reaching a critical stage. He declares that the shortage has reached a point where newspapers and periodicals of the country may be allotted their supply by the United States government at no distant date.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Senate today passed and sent to the House the Underwood joint resolution creating a commission to treat with Canada for abrogation of restrictions on the export of pulp wood and newsprint paper.

BRITAIN'S PROPOSALS TO SOVIET.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 27.—What purports to be the basis of Great Britain's proposals to the soviet government of Russia which James O'Grady, the British representative at Copenhagen, transmitted to Maxim Litvinoff, representative of the Moscow government, are contained in a dispatch from the correspondent of La Nacion in Rome, as follows:

First—Tacit recognition of the Maximalist political regime.

Second—Noninterference by Great Britain with respect to the internal condition of those countries separated from former Russian rule on the west, namely Finland, Esthonia, Lithuania, Ukrainia and Poland.

Fourth—Demobilization of the Red army.

Seventh—Payment in gold for goods exported or imported between Russia and Great Britain.

The correspondent says the Moscow government is disposed to accept several of these points, but is firm against the fourth and sixth points.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Senator Phelan's bill for the exclusion of Japanese from the United States will be before the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Immigration tomorrow when hearings will begin.

Gov. McCarthy of the Territory of Hawaii, will be the first witness called to testify to the menace of the Japanese to the Pacific Coast and the mid-Pacific islands in the possession of the nation.

Before the hearings are concluded, it is expected that many Los Angeles citizens who have been most active in combating the spread of the Nippon kingdom to the occidental world will be called to the stand to explain their views.

Gov. McCarthy will be followed by members of his party who represent the Legislature of Hawaii. They have been in Washington several weeks in an effort to secure changes in the organic act which would permit the white citizens to protect themselves from the quiet but steady invasion of the orientals. They are insistent that the homestead laws be changed, as the large part of the property in the islands was gradually becoming under the control of the Japanese.

The Phelan bill was drafted last fall as an amendment to the immigration law. Under the terms of the bill it is proposed to exclude the Japanese by extending the so-called "forbidden zone" in order that the Nippon empire would be included.

The subcommittee which will hear the testimony of parties interested in the legislation comprises Senators Phelan, Sterling and Nugent. Senator Phelan hopes to conclude the hearings within a few days so that the bill may be brought to the attention of the Senate.

ALLIES BOW TO WILSON.

Withdraw Decision on Adriatic.

Will Begin All Over Again Along Lines Indicated by the President.

Note is a Veritable Surrender to the Demands of America.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The reply made by Premiers Lloyd George and Millerand to President Wilson's latest communication on the Adriatic question repeats the assurance that they "never had the intention of making a definite settlement without obtaining the views of the United States government." The reply, which is dated February 26, states that the absence of an American representative had proved in practice an almost insurmountable obstacle to the success of the negotiations.

The premiers observe as a fact of the greatest importance that President Wilson expresses a willingness to accept any settlement "mutually agreeable to Italy and Jugo-Slavia regarding their common frontier in the Fiume region, provided such agreement is not made on the basis of compensation elsewhere at the expense of nationals of a third power."

TO START ALL OVER.

This, the premiers agree, would be an ideal way of settling the question and they express willingness to do their utmost to reach a settlement by this road. In order to facilitate this process they are ready to withdraw their proposals of December 8 and January 10, because they believe if the parties principally concerned believe the Allied and associated powers committed to support them in any particular solution it will be more difficult to secure a voluntary agreement.

The premiers therefore, cordially invite the President to join them in a formal proposal to the Italian and Jugo-Slav governments to negotiate an agreement on the basis of withdrawal of all previous proposals.

If, however, this attempt should prove unsuccessful, the French and British premiers agree that the United States, Great Britain and France should at once more consider the question in common, with the view of arriving at concrete proposals.

The Premiers express appreciation of and agreement with President Wilson's views with regard to the future of the Albanian people and say they are willing to urge upon the governments interested that they should bring their desires into line with the American viewpoint.

With regard to the Treaty of London, the premiers state that its "secret character" was due to military exigencies preventing its publication during the war.

The premiers declare they cannot disguise that should no voluntary settlement of the Adriatic problem be attained, the Treaty of London would become the only valid alternative, as far as they are concerned.

Italy has co-operated loyally, they say, in trying to find a substitute for the pact and the Allies hope they will succeed in finding such a substitute.

NO DISCUSSION AT CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The invitation of the British and French premiers to President Wilson to join them in a formal proposal to the Italian and Jugo-Slav governments to negotiate a new Adriatic settlement on the basis of the withdrawal of all previous agreements caused no surprise in official Washington.

The note, which was received today at the State Department, is before the President and his reply is expected to be made soon. Meantime officials are refraining from any discussion of it or of the President's probable course.

It was pointed out, however, that while adhering to the agreement of December 9, the President in his last reply to the premiers had said he "would, of course, made no objection to a settlement mutually agreeable to Italy and Jugo-Slavia . . . provided that such an agreement is not made at the expense of the nationals of a third power."

A NEW AVENUE.

If the premiers' proposal is accepted by the President, Italy and Jugo-Slavia will have their first opportunity to undertake a settlement between themselves. Officials would not voice their opinions as to the probabilities of success of such direct negotiations.

There is such a wide divergence between the territorial aspirations of the two countries, however, that it was regarded as almost certain that such negotiations, to be successful, would consume many months.

In the view of some officials here the time required to reach an agreement would be immaterial as compared with the lasting benefits to be derived from a satisfactory settlement. In fact it is known that some high officials are of the opinion that some delay might be advisable, as they believe the natural operation of economic laws will serve to eliminate the troublesome problem resulting from D'Annunzio's seizure of Fiume.

PUBLICATION POSSIBLE.

What appeared to be at least a semi-official summary of the premiers' note was received in press dispatches from London soon after the official text had reached the State Department and before it had been laid before the President.

The State Department already had taken up with London the question of making the note public here and it was assumed it would be given out after the President had studied it. The other exchanges were made public yesterday, but it developed during the day that the British government was planning to give to the press, along with the notes, some communications the Premiers had had after December 9 with the Italian and Jugo-Slavia governments, which had not been sent to the American government.

It was noted from the summary of the Premier's note, as transmitted in press dispatches, that Great Britain and France had not agreed to the withdrawal of the treaty of London, holding to its terms as a last resort should all efforts at voluntary agreement fail.

President Wilson has made it clear that he cannot accept the treaty of London as a basis for a settlement.

Under the Premiers' proposal, however, no effort would be made to carry out the terms of this treaty until another attempt had been made by the United States, Great Britain and France to arrive at a settlement should the proposed negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia come to naught.

"DRY REVOLT" INQUIRY TO BE FINISHED TODAY

EXPECTED THAT THE CHARGES AGAINST COUNTY ATTORNEY WILL BE DROPPED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

IRON RIVER (Mich.) Feb. 27.—The government investigation of the Iron River prohibition enforcement squabble, began here today by George F. Cummerow, special investigator of the Department of Justice, with the taking of testimony of Martin McDonough, prosecuting attorney of Iron county, officers and citizens of the county and Chicago newspapermen. It will be completed tomorrow, Mr. Cummerow announced tonight.

Iron River citizens were disappointed when Mr. Cummerow rejected requests for an open hearing. There was even no stenographer present.

Mr. Cummerow plans to visit the Scalieuici store at Virgil mine, where the wine involved in the case was found, and later plans to go to Chicago to question Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, prohibition commissioner for the Central States, and Leo J. Grove, Federal prohibition supervisor for the upper peninsula, from whom McDonough was said to have taken the liquor.

J. E. Converse, Assistant Attorney-General of Michigan, arrived today to open the State inquiry, and gave his consent, subject to the approval of Atty.-Gen. Groesbeck, to a public inquiry tomorrow.

Mr. Cummerow refused to make public his conclusions, but it was predicted confidently tonight that his report would recommend that the case against McDonough be dropped, and would divide the blame for the incident between the prosecutor and the prohibition officer.

The credentials carried by Prohibition Supervisor Grove of the upper peninsula when the confiscated liquor was taken by the prosecutor were in proper form, Mr. Cummerow said tonight. The letter of appointment which he presented to McDonough, and which the latter declared insufficient, was all Grove was required to carry, the investigator said.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Bernard M. Baruch told a House War Investigating Committee today that except for government fixing of raw material prices during the war, only the shame of producers would have limited their returns and that the morale of the nation would have broken under a riot of greed. Mr. Baruch gave a first hand account of his services as chairman of the War Industries Board and as a member of the Council of National Defense and the American economic mission at the Peace Conference.

Out of his experience with industrial problems, Mr. Baruch offered the comforting hope that top production soon would come, with a resultant fall in prices.

"When the hoarder and profiteer see great production in sight—and they will be the first to see it—they will get from under," he declared.

FRIENDLY WITH WILSON.

In questions about Mr. Baruch's mission to the Peace Conference, Chairman Graham failed to show any evidence of a rupture between the President and the witness, the latter declaring that if Mr. Wilson found fault with his work "he was kind enough not to say so." He added that the economic policy, as laid down by him, was approved by the President and the "big four." Once he was asked who suggested Herbert Hoover for Food Administrator.

"I could not say any more than I could say who it was that first named him as a Presidential candidate," he replied, and the inquiry quickly turned to other subjects.

Long before the United States got into the war, Mr. Baruch testified, he told President Wilson there was no escape, at the same time urging mobilization of the nation's resources.

Mr. Baruch said price fixing was absolutely necessary to protect the public and to prevent industrial unrest during the war.

Chairman Graham asked Mr. Baruch, if while in Paris as an economic adviser to the American peace delegation, he ever "sat in" at the "big conference."

"Yes, indeed," and my advice on economic questions was frequently asked.

DRAFTED ECONOMIC SECTION.

"Did you draft any sections of the present treaty?"

"I am responsible for the economic sections put in by the Americans."

Mr. Baruch was asked if he had a free hand at Paris as a member of the advisory commission, or if the President ever found fault with him.

"If he did, he was kind enough not to say so. I was not a bull in a Paris china shop running amuck. The economic policy as recommended by me was approved by the President and the 'big four.'"

Mr. Baruch said the question of fixing the price of cotton never was considered by the War Industries Board, but was referred to a special committee to fix it. Price fixing of the product was advisable. Mr. Jeffries also wanted to know if the council had anything to do with "the prohibition wave," and Mr. Baruch laughingly pleaded for mercy.

"That was not my job," he said.

After Mr. Baruch gives further testimony relating to the government's policy of building nitrate plants for war purposes the House War Investigating Committee expects to begin preparation of its report. Mr. Baruch recently told the committee how vast sums were set aside for construction of plants at Muscle Shoals and elsewhere in the hope of making this country independent of Chilean producers.

HUNT'S APPOINTMENT SURPRISE TO ARIZONA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Feb. 27.—Arizona Democrats got a surprise in the appointment of former Gov. Hunt as Minister to Siam.

A few months ago Hunt was considered an active aspirant to the Senatorship now held by Mark Smith. Then came quiet advices that he would seek no political honors. He even declined to accept election by the State Democratic Committee as a delegate to the national convention of the party.

Now it appears that he has kept the diplomatic secret for fully a month, for, on January 27 he received from Secretary of State Lansing a letter in which he was informed that the President desired to appoint him Minister to Siam, with expression of the President's hope that "you will feel inclined to accept the appointment when it is tendered to you." Acceptance was returned immediately.

Mr. Hunt's aspirations were understood to be the Governorship of Porto Rico, an office in which he felt he could be of use to the cause of labor, said to be in very disorganized condition on the island. It is told locally that Senator Smith himself saw the President about the island appointment, but without success.

The appointee expresses gratification over the honor.

"For years I have made a study of the Orient and of oriental problems, having read all I could of the history and traditions of the various peoples," he said.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Official dispatches on the situation at Marash, in the vilaret of Aleppo, Syria, where French troops have been having a severe struggle with Turkish forces, announce that the French succeeded in extricating their contingents after hard fighting. The French evidently withdrew hastily, as they were compelled to leave their wounded, which will be cared for by the American Red Cross.

A message from the same source confirms the reports of massacres of Armenians in the Marash district, but does not substantiate the statement from Armenian quarters that the number slaughtered was several thousand.

LADY ASTOR TO CONCENTRATE ON LIQUOR PROBLEM, BUT SAYS SHE IS NOT A PROHIBITIONIST.

BY JOHN STEELE.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Lady Astor, fresh from her triumph in the House of Commons, said yesterday she intends to concentrate at this session on the liquor problem.

"It's big enough to take all of any woman's time and effort, and I look on it not a purely woman's question, but as a broad human question. There are no woman's questions; all are human."

Lady Astor was greatly gratified by her sympathetic reception in the House and press, which was unanimous that her speech was equal to the finest parliamentary effort on record. Some papers take the view of the rather emotional side, but all agree she was unequal to marshalling the facts and figures, and they welcome introduction of the human element in the rather cold atmosphere of the House.

Lady Astor insisted again she is not a prohibitionist in the sense she wishes to force prohibition of drink against the wishes of the English people. She favors state purchase of the liquor trade and local option as the first step with the hope that in time England will come voluntarily to prohibition, and even then she favors compensation to the trade on a fair basis.

Of fair play in the English people, she said: "Nowhere else in the world is that sense so developed. I have had it in my experience with soldiers in war hospitals where I have known thousands intimately. England will do no unfair thing, and much as I hate drink, I do not hate the traders and I am sure it would be unfair to expropriate or abolish it without compensation. I object to the idea of compulsion, but I believe when the British workingman, who is the best fair-play man in the world, realizes drink is hurting the wives and children, he will agree voluntarily to abolition. My ideas of state purchase and control lines up with the Carlisle experiment where it is not to the interest of the manager of a public house to sell liquor, and if he does, he sells the best beer and the best whisky and not the worst as at present.

"I believe drink is the great lie of the world. It promises everything, gives nothing. I do not want to take the joy out of life, but want more for my money than a drink gives. I am not bigoted. I don't say you must not drink anything if you want to. I have drink in my house, but don't use it myself. I object to compulsion in everything, but rely on reasonable argument and persuasion and believe people must decide for themselves.

"The reason I think this country is unripe as compared with America is because America's educated classes drink too much and England's educated classes don't. The rarest thing in the world is to see a young man in society intoxicated or even drinking. It is purely a working-man's problem and as soon as the workers realize it is an evil traffic they will agree willingly to stop it. I was much tempted saying in the House I knew the evils of drink in my own house, but it would have been a libel on poor Lord Astor, who has never had a drink in his life.

"I am deeply gratified by the reception given me in the House of Commons. I know they were most hostile, because I am a woman. I am an American and I am advocating a radical change in British habits, but I got fair play. That is the highest praise I can give."

OMAHA HAS $400,000 FIRE.

OMAHA, Feb. 27.—Fire of undetermined origin, which started early today at the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Company, did damage estimated at $400,000. It spread to buildings adjoining on the east.

RIVER IS SIX FEET LOWER.

At no Time has Colorado Flood Held Peril for Imperial Valley, Say Engineers.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO, Feb. 27.—The Colorado River, which yesterday made two minor breaches in the levee system that protects the Imperial Valley, dropped today at Rockwood Gate six feet below yesterday's level. The gage on the Solano Lake levee, the last of three sets of levees designed and constructed to protect the valley, registered 40.7 feet this morning, indicating that there were six feet of water against the rock-ribbed embankment. The water at the highest stage came no nearer the top than seven feet and at no time, according to Imperial Irrigation District engineers, has there been any danger to Imperial Valley proper.

Some cultivated land, most of it in cotton, on the Cudahy ranch, located between the second and third levees, was inundated. By working several hundred men, who ordinarily would have been employed on the cotton, temporary dikes were thrown up which prevented the inundation of other fields of cotton. The muddy waters of the Colorado, after the first break of Wednesday evening and later, after the second break early yesterday morning, spread over thousands of acres of uncultivated bottom lands, as during any flood stage of the Colorado. The lands about the lower parts of the river, as it nears sea level, are broad and flat and altogether hundreds of thousands of acres were inundated. Approximately 50,000 acres back of the levees were flooded.

INTEREST IN FLOOD.

There has been a great deal of excitement in Imperial Valley, not because of an impression that the river would break through the Volcano Lake levee and enter the valley, but because of the tremendous height of the Colorado River, which during the peak of the flood was the second greatest in the history of the River. However, as it was only a flash head and not continuous, as in the annual June floods, it was early realized that while the river might cut some capers, the rush of water would disappear in a day or so, leaving the country high and dry.

The first two sets of levees while permanent and strong are nevertheless looked on as fragile compared with the immense Volcano Lake leves, sixteen miles long, thirteen feet high, faced with rock the entire distance and from twenty to fifty feet broad at the top. This is the structure on which the valley pins its faith and it is believed that only a prolonged flood could break it. Hundreds of men work on it the year around, preparing for an emergency, such as the one which arose yesterday.

SMALL FLOW AT BREAK.

The break in the Salz levee early yesterday morning was on high, hard ground, where the levee itself was only three feet high. This accounts for the fact that it did not widen or cut deeper. Some water was still flowing through it today, but the amount was negligible.

At least one rather amusing incident was caused by the break. Tortuso Camp, located near the Paragones Channel, which carried the water in the direction of the Volcano Lake levee, barely was moved back of the Volcano Lake levee before a four-foot head struck it. Some tall scrambling was required to get the camp moved before the water reached the site. The Cerro Prieto Gate withstood the greatest thrusts of the river. Proper precautions were then taken to enforce the gate and protect it.

The aftermath of the flash head remains to be seen. Just what it has done to the channel cannot be determined for several days. There undoubtedly will be much silt along the banks. No report on the conditions at Rockwood Gate was available today.

FOUR G.O.P. NAMES IN OHIO'S PRIMARY.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 27.—Entries in Ohio's Presidential preference primary closed today with four avowed Republican candidates and three Democrats in the race. All filed declarations with the Secretary of State.

The Republican candidates are U. S. Senator Harding, Ohio; Gen. Wood, James R. Garfield, Ohio, and Louis A. Baird of Washington, D. C.

These lists, however, are expected to be narrowed down to two Republicans, Harding and Wood, and one Democrat, Gov. Cox, before time for printing the ballots arrives.

Gov. Cox is assured of Ohio's solid delegation of forty-eight votes at the San Francisco convention.

"Master Mind" in Theft Located?

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Information that Nicholas Arnstein, described by the police as the "master mind" in an attempted $5,000,000 securities theft, is in Toledo, and will be arrested or surrendered within twenty-four hours, was received today by Dist.-Atty. Swann.

REPUBLICANS ASK HOOVER BALLOTS

—Republicans of the Eighth Congressional District, in convention here tonight, elected two delegates to the national convention in Chicago, uninstructed as to Presidential nominations.

Resolutions were adopted opposing the movement to underwrite the financial obligations of "the bankrupt nations of Europe," expressing the belief that the legislative and judicial branches of the government should be kept "free from interference by the executive department," and indorsing the stand of Senator Lodge on the League of Nations covenant.

BRYAN WITHDRAWS.

BISMARCK (N. D.) Feb. 27.—A petition to place the name of William J. Bryan on the ballot as candidate for Presidential indorsement by North Dakota Democrats at the March primary was withdrawn today at the request of Mr. Bryan.

"If you desire to pledge delegates to Bryan democracy, I have no objection, but I must not be entered as a candidate," said Bryan in a telegram to John H. Bloom of Devils Lake, a Democratic leader, who filed the Bryan petition.

WOOD IN ARIZONA.

TUCSON (Ariz.) Feb. 27.—Indorsement by resolution of the candidacy of Gen. Wood for President, but the election of six uninstructed delegates, was agreed on today at a conference of the chairmen of county delegations here for the Republican State convention, which opens Saturday.

TEXT OF IRISH BILL GIVEN OUT.

either body from establishing any particular religious creed or penalizing any one for belonging to or not belonging to any religious denomination.

It is provided in the bill that the Imperial Parliament control the higher judiciary officers until such time as the two Parliaments might be agreed on the method of appointing them. The Imperial Parliament also would control the Royal Irish Constabulary of Dublin and the metropolitan police for three years, if a united Parliament is not organized by that time.

Other powers reserved to the Imperial Parliament embrace the crown, peace, and war, foreign affairs, army and navy, coinage, defense, treason, trade outside Ireland, postoffice, navigation, inclusive merchant shipping, wireless and cables, collection of income and excess profit taxes and customs and excises.

TAXATION PLAN.

The two Parliaments be given the immediate right to collect certain taxes, including death duties, stamp taxes, entertainment taxes, license fees and such others of a similar nature as the legislatures might devise. It is stipulated that Ireland contribute for two years to the support of the empire on the basis of 1919-1920, which figures about £10,000,000 annually. Of this North Ireland will contribute 42 per cent, and South Ireland 58 per cent.

A joint exchequer board would be created to determine the taxable capacity of Ireland in relation to the balance of the United Kingdom and decide what amount Ireland should contribute after the two-year period. The decision of this board will stand for five years, when the case may be reopened. The board shall consist of equal numbers of representatives of the Irish Parliaments and the Imperial Parliament, with an independent chairman. This board would also be charged with devising means of providing guarantees for Ireland's contribution toward the support of the empire, should a united Irish Parliament assume control of the excises and customs.

The amount Ireland would have to contribute is somewhat reduced by a provision in the bill that the United Kingdom shall present £1,000,000 to each of the two Parliaments at the outset to defray their expenses. It is also provided that the Irish shall have land annuities worth about £3,000,000 annually. The bill contains a detailed proposal for immediate completion of a land-purchase scheme.

Civil servants as regards pensions would be protected by the imperial government, according to another provision of the bill. This is one of the reasons why imperial control of the postoffice is to be retained, notwithstanding the home rule bill of 1914 made Ireland's postoffice an Irish institution. The Imperial Parliament would retain this control until such time as the two Parliaments work out a scheme for its direction by the Council of Ireland and request the Imperial Parliament to turn it over.

ACTION ON STATE OIL LAND BILL DEFERRED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The House Judiciary Committee deferred action again on the bill offered by Representative Browne, Republican, Wisconsin, directing Atty.-Gen. Palmer to appeal the dismissal in California Federal courts of the government's suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad and the Standard Oil and other oil companies to cancel patents on 165,000 acres of California oil lands.

Representative Browne contended that Mr. Palmer's statement that the land involved had been acquired before the discovery of oil in California was incorrect. Representatives of the Department of Justice opposing the bill said appeal would be useless as the government was convinced no fraud had been practiced.

HOUSER INQUIRY BEGUN.

PORTLAND, Feb. 27.—A number of witnesses were examined today by L. V. Humphreys, United States Attorney for Oregon, in pursuit of his investigation of charges recently brought by a Federal grand jury of Spokane against M. H. Houser, vice-president of the U. S. Grain Corporation. Houser was accused of having used his office to manipulate prices to his own advantage and the present investigation was instituted at his request.

CENTRALIANS IN PLOT, TRIAL HINT

Defense for I.W.W. Would Prove Conspiracy.

Judge Rules Testimony Cannot be Introduced.

Witnesses Testify They Tried to Avert Trouble.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MONTESANO (Wash.) Feb. 27.—An overt act by Warren O. Grimm, for whose murder ten alleged I.W.W. are on trial here, must first be proved by the defense, or it must be first shown that Grimm was a party to an alleged conspiracy which resulted in a raid on the I.W.W. Hall in Centralia, before evidence of alleged preparation for an alleged contemplated assault or of alleged threats can be introduced.

This ruling, handed down late today in the trial, was intended to suppress definitely endeavors of defense counsel to introduce evidence which the prosecution has contended could not be legally offered at this time. For nearly two hours Attorney George F. Vanderveer for the defense sought to offer testimony which he declared would show that a conspiracy existed in Centralia for the raiding of the I.W.W. Hall. He had declared his clients acted in self-defense.

RAID WAS PLANNED?

All day, with Britt Smith, one of the defendants, and secretary of the Centralia branch of the I.W.W. on the stand, Vandeveer had sought to prove that a conspiracy to raid the hall existed. Every effort to bring this into the court record was contested by the State, Judge Wilson's ruling coming at the end of a long court argument, at which the jury was not present. Vanderveer announced he would have at least one witness present tomorrow to prove his contention that Grimm was shot while attempting a raid on the hall, and not 100 feet distant, while standing at the head of the Centralia contingent of the parade, as the State has contended.

Britt Smith occupied the stand most of the day, only three other witnesses being called, and they for only a brief time. Mrs. Mary McAllister, proprietor of the Roderick Hotel, in which building the Centralia I.W.W. Hall is located, told of her efforts to prevent an alleged threatened raid on the hall. She said she asked the Chief of Police to prevent it if he could. She heard there might be a raid, she testified, when a man named Radcliffe came to her and suggested that she ask the I.W.W. to remove a songbook from a window of the hall. Radcliffe told her, she testified, that the book was distasteful to the American Legion men. She then went to Smith, she said.

TRIED TO AVERT TROUBLE.

Smith told of his efforts to avert trouble, detailing at great length the many conversations held in the I.W.W. Hall relative to plans to avert a raid. He described the shooting, as he saw it, saying he saw the door kicked in, then heard shots from the hall. He did not know who shot. Smith started for his desk for his gun, he testified, but did not use it.

Cross-examination of the defendant was lengthy, much time being devoted to Smith's direct testimony relative to his suggestion that the Arnold Hotel, opposite the hall, would be a good place for the jury. Smith said he did not suggest that any one go to the Arnold for the purpose of shooting, but that the idea of its strategic value occurred to him, and that he mentioned it to Loren Roberts, one of the defendants.

THOUGHT IT GOOD PLACE.

"I thought it would be a good place," answered Smith. The witness offered the statement that the first shot he saw or heard was fired by a man in uniform, in the street before the hall. A statement made by Smith when he was in the Lewis County Jail at Chehalis, in which much of the cross-examination was conducted, was introduced in evidence upon request of the defense. In the statement Smith said: "If some of our boys were in those hotels across the street, soldiers would be in a bad place."

The court's ruling, which preceded by much argument, was as the result of the offer of witness Stand of J. M. Roberts, Centralia, father of one of the men wounded during the shooting. Mason has testified that the shots the marchers was unprovoked. banks, Sr., was asked if his son not told him that the Legion first attacked the hall, but objected by the State was sustained.

MERCHANTS WANTED ACTION.

Eubanks testified that he attended a meeting of business men of the Elks' club in Centralia late on Nov. 20, said to have been called for the purpose of discussing the I.W.W. Virtually every question then pounded by defense counsel to Eubanks made this statement objected to, the jury was dismissed and counsel engaged in lengthy and sharp legal debate.

Vanderveer said he sought to show an alleged conspiracy out of threats were made at this meeting to run the I.W.W. out of town. was then, Vanderveer said, while arguing, that F. B. president of the Centralia Commercial Association, and active League, said:

"It's a damned outrage. were Chief of Police, I'd put them in twenty-four hours."

William Y. White, Tacoma painter, testified that he was found the disputed 31-30 under a sign board near which the State alleges he was the blazing of Grimm. mony of White was contradicted that given by E. J. Lindley, advertising man, owner of the board, who testified as a witness that he found the White said he found that Lindley paid him saying that he knew that resolution was seeking it and would turn it over to C. ham, special prosecutor.

The court's ruling, which was preceded by much argument, came as the result of the calling to the witness stand of J. M. Eubanks of Centralia, father of one of the men wounded during the shooting. Eubanks, Sr., was asked if his son had not told him that the Legion men first attacked the hall, but objection by the State was sustained.

"It's a damned outrage. If I were Chief of Police, I'd get rid of them in twenty-four hours."

William White, Tacoma sign painter, testified that it was he who found the disputed .35-.55 rifle under a sign board near Centralia, which the State alleges was used in the slaying of Grimm. The testimony of White was contradictory to that given by E. J. Lindley, Centralia advertising man, owner of the sign board, who testified as a State's witness that he found the weapon. White said he found the rifle and that Lindley paid him $10 for it, saying that he knew that the prosecution was seeking it and that he would turn it over to C. D. Cushman, special prosecutor.

Try to Get Before Supreme Court in Few Days.

AUGUSTA (Me.) Feb. 27.—A list of twenty-six States that will cooperate in opposing the action of Rhode Island in seeking to have the national prohibition amendment declared unconstitutional was announced today by Gov. Milliken.

Those States are: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming.

In addition, Gov. Milliken said that he had been in touch with many other States which were favorable to contesting the Rhode Island action, but that he had not as been given final authorization by those States.

The Governor left today for a final conference with Charles E. Hughes in New York, regarding the joint action of the individual States. Through Judge Hughes as general counsel, permission will be asked in a few days to intervene in the action now pending in the Federal Supreme Court.

DALRYMPLE WON'T QUIT.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, prohibition director for the Central States, today denied the statement attributed to him, to the effect that he was going to resign his position if not supported by the government for his action in dealing with the Iron River "rum reign."

I. M. Gaylord, assistant prohibition commissioner, who conferred today with Maj. Dalrymple, asserted he had no intention of visiting Iron River before returning to Washington. He said he had not been ordered to make an investigation of the clash between State and Federal officers there.

IRON RIVER (Mich.) Feb. 27.—A peace conference here today to uncover the cause of the late "liquor rebellion" in the upper Michigan peninsula assumed fresh interest when State's Attorney M. S. McDonough, leader of the "revolt," announced he would demand an "open, public settlement." The peace makers were George F. Cummerford, chief special agent of the Department of Justice, Bureau of Investigation, and S. E. Converse, Assistant Attorney-General of Michigan.

McDonough said Iron county and Iron River had been libeled by Federal agents' reports, and he would insist the investigation be open to the public that his county "might be shown in its true light before the country."

YUKON WANTS "BONE DRY."

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

DAWSON (Y. T.) Feb. 27.—Bone dry prohibition was approved by Yukon Territory voters at a plebiscite just concluded, it was announced today. Two proposals favoring liquor were defeated. One would have permitted the continuance of saloons and the other would have authorized government liquor dispensaries.

ITALIAN SEISMOLOGIST TO MEXICO FOR STUDY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Prof. Emelio Oddone, noted seismologist, arrived here from Naples today on the steamer Presidente Wilson, on his way to Mexico, where he has been sent by his government to study the causes and effects of the recent earthquakes.

He brought his new invention, called an inervlameter, for the measurement of energy and motion. On the trip across he used the device for measuring the amplitude, length and duration of ocean waves and their effect on the steamer's motion.

FIR LUMBER PRICES CUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Feb. 27.—Reductions in export prices of fir lumber for export were announced here today by the Douglas Fir Exploitation and Export Company. The reductions were made, it was announced, to encourage cargo buyers to place their orders while the domestic trade is slackened by car shortages. The reductions run about $5 a thousand.

FIGHT JAPS AS HOME OWNERS.

Sacramento Japanese Invades Residential Area.

Los Angeles Corporation has Far Reaching Purpose.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Taking the stand that Japanese aliens cannot buy residential property in California, Atty.-Gen. Webb will commence action against Shimami Okamura, a local Japanese, who purchased a home in an exclusive residence section of the city. Webb has requested Senator Inman of this city, who is acting as attorney for the residents of the district, to send him the full particulars of the case, and promises vigorous prosecution to a final conclusion.

Inman went to San Francisco Wednesday and consulted with the Attorney-General with regard to the matter. According to Inman, he readily consented to commence action as provided by Act 129, Paragraph 5, of the alien land law.

BASIS IN LAW.

This paragraph reads: "Any real property hereafter acquired in fee in violation of the provisions of this act by any alien mentioned in Section 2 of this act, or by any company, association or corporation mentioned in Section 3 of this act, shall escheat to and become and remain the property of the State of California. The Attorney-General shall institute proceedings to have the escheat of such real property adjudged and enforced in the manner provided by Section 474 of the political code, and title 8, part 3, of the code of civil procedure."

Inman said that he had studied the treaty between Japan and the United States carefully, and also perused the law approved May 19, 1913, and is convinced that no alien ineligible to citizenship has a right to own residence property.

This judgment he based upon Article I of the treaty, which reads as follows:

TREATY TEXT.

"The citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have liberty to own, travel and reside in the other, to carry on trade, wholesale and retail, to own and lease or occupy house, manufactories, warehouse and shops, to employ agents of their choice, to lease land for residential and commercial purposes."

Attorney Inman said further that nowhere in the treaty is there a provision for "owning" land for any purpose. It does provide that they may own "houses." It specifically provides that they may lease land for residential and commercial purposes.

COMMERCIAL INVASION?

That the Japanese in California are planning on branching out in various industrial and business lines is evident from the articles of incorporation of the National Commercial Company of Los Angeles, a $500,000 Japanese corporation, filed yesterday with Secretary of State Jordan. The articles of the company state that its purpose is to engage in about every line of business from farming to canning fish. The company is to deal in the manufacture and sale of goods, wares and merchandise, acquire real estate, engage in farming, including the raising of fruits and vegetables, stock raising and breeding, dairy products, and in canning and dealing in fish sea products, and also in maintaining oil wells and in producing and refining petroleum products.

ONE AMERICAN.

The directors of the company are K. Mitsuse, M. Yomada, J. Okamoto, Leonard M. Comegya and Clare W. Woolwine.

Articles of incorporation of the Japanese Business Men's Association of Stockton and the Peerless Farming Company of Sacramento also were filed today with Jordan. The object of the association is to promote the social, intellectual and business welfare of its members, and to buy, lease and acquire property. It has twenty-five directors.

The Peerless Farming Company is capitalized at $20,000, and is a Japanese land-owning corporation. Its directors are P. Shilau, Y. Murakami and K. Ikeda.

TAFT HOPES TEACHERS GET SALARY INCREASE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 27. — Chicago school-teachers who have been asking for an increase in pay that would bring them within speaking distance of the haughty janitors and scrub women, found a lusty champion in former President Taft, who arrived in the city yesterday to address the B'nai B'rith, which is giving a banquet to Adolf Kraus, its head.

"I hope none of the teachers, who have so much virtue in their cause, will find it necessary to employ duress in securing their salary increase," said Mr. Taft. This is a gentle slam at the labor agitators who are urging teachers to strike and upset things generally, but are not making much headway.

"To leave their positions under duress," continued Mr. Taft, "would do them grave injury, for the whole country is aroused over this national educational problem. It is better that this increase should come from an aroused public than from duress which would lose the support of the public."

Mr. Taft said the outlook for ratification of the peace treaty, according to his information, was dark, but he was still hopeful it would be adopted and at an early date.

He dodged political questions, but when asked about the appointment of C. R. Crane, said: "I hope Mr. Crane's mission to China will be successful."

It was during Mr. Taft's administration that Mr. Crane was appointed to the China post and recalled while on the sea, en route to Peking.

DENIKINE'S FORCES NO MATCH FOR RED ARMY.

VOLUNTEERS OF SOUTH RUSSIA UNABLE TO STAND THE POUNDING AT OREL.

NOVOROSSICK, Feb. 17 (via Paris, Feb. 26.)—The character of the enemy which has driven back the armd forces of South Russia to their starting point and are now fighting are of an entirely different character from the enemy which opposed them when they began their offensive last June.

Germany occupied the Ukraine until last January and when its troops moved out the local Bolsheviki took over the power. It was these which the volunteers pushed aside, but beyond Kharkov the going was harder, because they were getting into territory held by the Moscow Bolsheviks, and at Orel they were stopped by strong forces determined to hold the city.

The hammer of the volunteers' center was much worn by the four months of pounding, for 150 miles from Rostov north, its communications and supplies were not the best, and it was not in first-class condition when it hit the fresh force waiting at Orel. Fighting and skirmishing continued for a week, and the Bolsheviki started their offensive.

It took the volunteers nearly five months to get Rostov, but it took the Bolsheviks only two complete months to drive the volunteers steadily to the rear with an army better organized, with better morale, and generaled also by officers of the old Russian army. These were forced to take commands, and the Bolsheviki saw to it that they did their work well. The volunteer army went to pieces. Distintegration was unbelievably rapid, the troops disappearing like dew before the morning sun. Most of the Don Cossacks returned to their stanitzas. Less than 20,000 volunteers were loyal to the last, including the Kornilloff division, and several thousand Dons, including the Don government, came down into the Kuban.

Gen. Momontoff was quite frank in expressing the opinion of the reason of the retreat.

"Those men surrounding Gen. Denikine were so interested they didn't know what was going on at the front. They were fighting bravely with a paper army."

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA GOES OVER TO UNION.

BOSTON, Feb. 27.—Unless the Boston Symphony Orchestra players are recognized as a union by the trustees, they will form an orchestra themselves under union affiliations, according to a statement made by a committee of the players today. Ninety per cent. of the members have joined the union and financial backing for the proposed new orchestra has been offered, it is said.

Frederic Fradkin, concertmaster of the orchestra, joined the union yesterday, and Pierre Monteux, conductor of the orchestra, is represented by the players' committee as being in sympathy with unionization.

YUMA LEVEE THROWS FLOOD WATERS BACK.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

YUMA (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—The levee above Yuma, protecting the city from flood encroachment, stood firmly against the waters of the Gila, though they rose to a point where alarm was felt for the safety of business and lower-lying sections.

In some sections there was a general packing up of effects, to be in readiness for hurried departure, happily not needed.

Most of the water came from Salt River, with its big Verde tributary, though the upper Gila added considerably, supplemented by the Agua Fria and Hassayampa.

The Colorado rose five feet at Blythe on Sunday, but its high water was part when the peak of the Gila flood came along.

GOVERNOR MAKES CITY OF NOGALES, MEXICO.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

NOGALES (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—By State proclamation of Gov. Adolfo de la Huerta, Nogales, Son., just across the international line, has been "elevated into the category of cities." This is in accordance with a law passed by the congress of "the free and sovereign State of Sonora" at a session in Hermosillo on December 27, last.

The elevation was made the occasion of civic rejoicing and the proclamation was read after the march of a procession in which were included State, military and civic officials and employees, various societies and the school children.

ROAD AID OF $100,000 FOR 4 YEARS SOUGHT.

Party Platform Ready for Convention Saturday.

Gov. Campbell Makes First of Keynote Addresses.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Feb. 26.—All is in readiness for the Saturday meeting of the State Republican convention. Much attention is being paid to details of entertainment and housing for the delegates. A committee on resolutions, headed by James R. Dunseath, already is understood to have a party platform ready for submission.

Albert M. Sames, chairman of the State committee, will call the convention to order at the Tucson armory at 10 o'clock in the morning. Gov. Campbell will make the first address of the keynote series, and is to be followed by Senator Frailey of Iowa. The delegates, in person or by proxy, will number 250. Nearly a third will be from Maricopa county, which, though rated Democratic, cast a big majority vote both two and four years ago for Gov. Campbell.

AGREE ON FIVE DELEGATES.

There is general agreement on the selection of five of the six delegates to Chicago. They are to be: Albert M. Sames of Douglas, a former Roosevelt supporter, representing Cochise and Yuma counties; S. F. Noon of Nogales, representing Santa Cruz and Pima counties; Frank Pool, a Winkelman merchant, representing Gila, Graham and Greenlee counties; George Elias, a Phoenix broker, representing Maricopa county; Judge Ed W. Wells, a Prescott pioneer and capitalist, representing Yavapai and Pinal counties. Thus far there is serenity, for all are for Gen. Wood, for whom also are lined up the State Central Committee and National Committeeman Jaynes.

But there has been no agreement from the north, where the counties of Mohave, Coconino, Navajo and Apache are so divided that the decision may have to be taken upon the floor of the convention. Fred S. Breen, editor of the Flagstaff Sun, has been indorsed by his county, the largest of the four. He has been prominent in regular Republican politics in Arizona for years and, ordinarily, might have an easy race. But this time he is said to be in favor of nominating Gov. Lowden of Breen's home State. Without doubt, the delegates sent will have to bind themselves to the unit rule, yet even this may not serve to get Breen the coveted position. Opposing him, R. C. Smith of Holbrook comes with the indorsement of Apache and Navajo counties, and with the added strength of adhesion to the Wood forces.

WOOD TO CAUSE TROUBLE.

It is possible there may be a bit of trouble in putting through the programme of sending only Wood supporters, and yet leaving the delegation uninstructed, bound only by the unit rule. There is more than suggestion that enthusiasts will break over and will try to put through a resolution of instruction for Wood.

Already there is conversation among the partisans over the use to which Arizona's alphabetical lead in the convention may be put. With only a politically-riven Alabama ahead of her on the roll call, Arizona is expected to cut a wide swath in Chicago, despite her small numerical strength. One suggestion, made by a local partisan leader, was "at least we can get the ball a-rolling by yielding our place to one of the big States that can be depended upon to do the right thing."

SACRAMENTO SELECT HAVE JAP INTRUDER.

ORIENTAL BUYS HOME IN FASHIONABLE DISTRICT; GOV. STEPHENS SCORED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—Gov. Stephens's inaction relative to calling a special session of the Legislature to consider enactment of anti-Japanese laws was severely criticised at a mass meeting last night of citizens residing in a fashionable part of the city. The meeting was called to protest against the purchase of a home in the district by a Japanese.

"It is regretable," said Martin Welsh, local attorney, "that the Governor has not called a session of the Legislature to bring about remedies for situations like the one which now confronts us. The Japanese are becoming more brazen all the time. If similar meetings to this were held elsewhere, the Governor would be made to recognize the opinion of the people."

"If we had the right man as Governor," said R. F. Reed, building contractor, "the danger would never have gone so far. Inasmuch as there is no law by which the Japanese may be kept out of a district like this, we will have to form a Vigilance Committee, which shall make it uncomfortable for them."

Real estate dealers who sell land and residence property to Japanese also were bitterly censured. The citizens at the meeting voted unanimously to raise a fund to employ an attorney to fight the Japanese in court.

ORIGINAL SALAD: Wash and crisp a head of lettuce. When ready to serve, separate and mix well with slices of juicy apple. One good-sized apple to a large head of lettuce will serve four people. For a dressing, use one cup stiff mayonnaise, three tablespoons Olive Mince, two tablespoons tomato catsup, half teaspoon paprika, one level tablespoon sugar, and, if liked, a tablespoon chopped parsley. Simply dot the apple and lettuce with prepared dressing. It is delicious.

OLIVE MINCE is made from the meat of California olives, blended with a sauce of our own origin, spiced sufficiently to give zest to the flavor. No filler used.

MAJOR BREAKS FLIGHT RECORD.

Schroeder Climbs 36,020 Feet and is Blinded.

Falls Five Miles While in an Unconscious Condition.

DAYTON (O.) Feb. 27.—Maj. Rudolph Schroeder broke the one-man record for altitude held by Roland Rohlf, when his Le Perre plane climbed 36,020 feet over Dayton today. In the flight Schroeder's oxygen tank gave out, and his ship fell five miles before righting itself. The gas tank burst, making a smoke fan behind the falling machine, which was taken here for a comet. The temperature of this height was 55 deg. below zero. He fell within 2000 feet of the ground before regaining consciousness sufficiently to right his machine. Maj. Schroeder was temporarily blinded and is now in a local hospital. His condition is not serious.

[The Le Perre Mylane in which Maj. Schroeder attained a height of 36,020 feet yesterday is an all-American product designed and built at McCook Field, Dayton. It has a 400-horse-power Liberty motor, equipped with a supercharging device, by means of which the engine develops its maximum power at high altitudes. It had been predicted by engineers that an altitude of 40,000 feet would eventually be reached, and by previous attempts, on which Maj. Schroeder had always been drowsy, two-man altitude record, and also all records for two-man altitude record, and also all records for two-man altitude record, and also all records for speed at high altitudes, having made 137 miles an hour at 20,000 feet. On some of his attempts the pilot fainted or reached the maximum altitude of which the machine is capable, every one of his many ascents having been brought to an end by the breaking of either oil or gas lines or the oxygen system, as was the case today.]

MAJ. SMITH SAFE.

SEATTLE, Feb. 27.—Word telephoned from Camp Lewis, Tacoma, today said Maj. A. D. Smith, army flier, arrived at the camp eighteen minutes after he left Seattle yesterday. Earlier today fears had been expressed for Smith's safety as nothing had been heard from him from the time he left here.

Reports from Camp Lewis last night said Maj. Smith had not arrived. It was explained that Smith did not report to the camp headquarters until today. Last night the headquarters' officers, knowing nothing of his arrival, said they thought he had lost his way or had gone on to Portland.

SAHARA FLIERS SAFE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Thursday, Feb. 26.—Maj. Vuillemin, pilot, and Lieut. Chalus, observer, who were lost for more than a week in their flight across the Sahara Desert, are reported by the French aviation department today to have landed safely at Mentaka, a village east of Timbuctoo, on the Niger River. Details are lacking.

LONDON, Thursday, Feb. 26.—Three British airplanes, which left Chester for Dublin on Saturday, where they should have arrived within three hours, are missing, according to a report issued at the Air Ministry. A machine, which is presumed to be one of the three, was seen to fall in the sea off the Scilly Islands, but efforts to rescue the crew were unsuccessful, because of a rough sea.

PACKER DIVORCE DECREE IS FILED

Supreme Court Ends Control of Unrelated Industries.

Palmer Considers it Victory for Ultimate Consumers.

Big Five Lawyer Says it is Intended as Stabilizer.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The agreed decree under which the "big five" packers are forever enjoined from engaging in any line of business other than that of handling meat and produce was filed today in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

The decree, which must be carried out within two years, affects twenty-seven corporations and forty-nine individuals, of which Swift & Co., Armour & Co., Morris & Co., Wilson & Co. and the Cudahy Packing Company are the major members.

It was submitted by Atty.-Gen. Palmer, who said it "removes the menace of control of unrelated industries by the big five, and confines their activities in future to the business of distributing meat and its by-products."

Counsel for the packers, in a statement to the court, said the decree had been agreed to by the defendants "not because of guilt, for they have not violated any law; but that the American people may be assured that there is not the remotest possibility of a food monopoly by the packers."

After hearing statements by counsel for the government and the packers, Chief Justice McCoy signed the injunction making effective the agreement.

PALMER'S STATEMENT.

Atty.-Gen. Palmer in a statement commenting on the effect of the decree, said:

"The decree which the Department of Justice brought about by urgent insistence, is designed to restore freedom of competition and increase the opportunities for individual initiative in business, which must in time bear good fruit for the public welfare.

"These great aggregations of capital which have come to be known as the 'big five' have been able to dominate so many lines of trade that their continued and unrestrained growth constituted a real menace, not only to American business, but to the American consuming public as well.

"Under the decree entered today the chief packing companies, their subsidiaries and principal stockholders are compelled to sell promptly to the public everything of the following:

"All their holdings in public stockyards;

"All their interest in stockyard railroads and their terminals;

"All their interest in market newspapers;

"All their interest in public cold storage warehouses, except that which is necessary for their own meat products.

"They are barred forever from dealing in 'unrelated lines,' which include wholesale groceries, fresh, canned, salted or dry fish, dried or canned vegetables; fresh, crushed, dried, evaporated or canned fruits; confections, spices, cocoa and chocolate, coffee, tea, flavoring extracts, jellies and preserves, sauces, pickles, etc. (Fresh fish is barred with certain limited exception with respect to canals.) bread, wafers, crackers, biscuits, spaghetti, vermicelli, macaroni, cigars, clothing, furniture and so forth, also.

ABANDON BRANCH HOUSES.

"They are required to abandon forever the use of their branch houses, milk cars and auto trucks in connection therewith, and from dealing in any other lines than their own meats and dairy products.

"They are required to submit periodically to the court's injunction forbidding all the defendants from directly or indirectly maintaining any combination or conspiracy with themselves or any other person or persons, or corporation, in attempting to monopolize any food products in the United States or Canada in any unfair or unlawful practice.

"Moreover, the decree provides that jurisdiction is perpetually retained by the court for the purpose of taking such further action or relief as may be necessary in the circumstances to carry out or enforce the decree.

"In brief, the decree removes the menace of control of unrelated industries by the big five and confines their activities in future to the business of distributing meat and its by-products under an injunction which restrains them from unfair and unlawful practices.

"The decree is sweeping in its scope and I am sure will be highly beneficial to the public in its effects."

The decree, which involves reorganization of a great industry with assets of more than $1,000,000,000 and which affects the corporations and forty-nine individuals, came from an agreement between the larger meat packers and the Department of Justice announced last December 18. This agreement was reached after the department, at the direction of President Wilson, has instituted anti-trust proceedings against the packers in Chicago.

ESTABLISHES PRINCIPLE.

Agreement for the filing of the decree, Mr. Palmer said in announcing it last December, would have the effect of establishing "the principle that no group of men, no matter how powerful, can ever attempt to control the food table of the American people or any one of the necessities or component parts of it."

The attitude of the packers was summed up at that time by M. W. Borders, general counsel for Morris & Co., as illustrating the "spirit of true Americanism" of the packing industry. Henry Veeder, counsel for Swift & Co., asserted his company had met the request of the government because it was felt that "the same spirit which caused the business men of the country to submit to personal sacrifices during the war is just as essential during the period of reconstruction."

Mr. Borders made the following statement in behalf of counsel for all of the defendants:

DEFENDANTS' ATTITUDE.

"These defendants have consented to this decree and to give up certain businesses, not because of guilt, for they have not violated any law; but that the American people may be assured that there is not the remotest possibility of a food monopoly by the packers; that the constant criticism and agitation levelled at this vital industry, which is seriously injuring, not only it, but the people generally, may cease; that a better understanding and feeling between this industry and the public may be reestablished; and that conditions in this uncertain and dangerous period of reconstruction may be stabilized and the efficiency and benefits of this great industry—dealing as it does in a prime necessity of life, a highly perishable product—may be preserved.

"In dealing with this great question as intimately connected with the welfare of all the people, it must be borne in mind that the packer occupies a most delicate and difficult position, to which there is nothing analogous in American business. He is between millions of producers on one side, demanding a high price for the live meat animal, and 100,000,000 consumers on the other side, demanding cheap meat; and there cannot be cheap meat on the table of the consumer when the packer pays a high price for the live animal to the producer.

TARGET FOR ABUSE.

"He is thus the constant target of criticism and abuse and his business between these two great conflicting forces is, naturally, the most hazardous in the world to criticism and agitation, the baneful effects of which are necessarily felt in the final analysis by both the producer and the consumer. If the packer as a slaughterer and distributor of meats and meat food products does his work efficiently and at a reasonable profit, then he is performing a most vital work for the people. That the packing industry is efficient and is conducted on the smallest margin of profit of any large basic industry in the country, the defendants stand ready and willing to demonstrate at all times.

"If this statement is true as to profits, which we most solemnly assert, then it is in the interest of every man, woman and child in this nation that this essential and complex industry—with its many problems and difficulties—be given just, fair and equitable treatment. For these reasons and in the sincere belief that these things will be thoroughly demonstrated through—out whatever subsequent proceedings take place in this case, we have consented to this decree."

LANE'S STATEMENT ON OIL LAND LEASING LAW

SECRETARY ENDS HOPES OF OVERNIGHT FORTUNES BY MERELY SIGNING PAPERS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Secretary of the Interior Lane yesterday set at rest rumors regarding the effect of the enactment of the oil-leasing legislation. He definitely put an end to the unfounded reports that riches could be made overnight by merely attaching signatures to applications. Secretary Lane's statement is of such vital importance to California, as this State is most affected by the new oil-leasing law, it follows, in full:

"Inquiries received in the department show that there is much misinformation abroad relative to the scope and effect of the mineral leasing bill which was approved by the President. For instance, many have gained the impression that leases on groups of lands of great value are to be had by the mere filing of an application ahead of anybody else.

"In the first place, it should be understood that the proven oil lands of the government are largely embraced by withdrawals of lands that have been in existence for some years and which claims must be submitted for adjustment before any leases can be issued and then only to the extent to which such claims are actually located.

"In the next place, under the act, when the government grants a lease for either oil or coal lands, except under the relief sections or as the result of a permit, it will be a competitive bidding, of which sample notice will be given to the public.

"The only part of the act which is self-operative and with regard to which a person can take any steps looking to the acquirement of any right before the regulations of the department are issued or before the department has taken the necessary preliminary steps to offer the lands for lease, is that portion of section 13 of the act which provides for securing preference right for an oil prospecting permit in posting a notice on the ground. This is the only right to lands not in the geologic structure of producing oil fields. These regulations are in the hands of the printer and will be issued immediately after they are of the press. Copies may be had on request from the Commissioner of the General Land Office. There can be no doubt as to the very great importance of this legislation; it will open a wide domain of public lands to development and the large resources that have been virtually locked up as a result of a mistaken idea of conservation have and will offer a means of acting legislation that has been pending for years, with fairness to the litigants and the public interests."

HUMBOLDT COUNTY TO VOTE $500,000 IN BONDS TO AID IN SAVING THE WOODS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Humboldt county will vote a $500,000 bond issue for the "save the redwoods" movement, F. A. Cutler of Eureka declared today at a conference of the Save the Redwoods League here. Other speakers brought assurances that other counties would be active supporters of the movement, and Stephen T. Mather, superintendent of the national park service, sent a telegram declaring that the government was in full accord with the plan.

A hitherto unpublished letter written by John Muir in a California redwood grove in 1870, telling of the beauties of the giant Sequoias, was read at tonight's session of the conference by William Frederick Bade, president of the Sierra Club.

Cutler said that in spite of the fact that the people of Humboldt, Mendocino and Del Norte counties depended for their livelihood on the redwood lumber industry, they were heartily in favor of the move to save strips of redwood forest along the public highways as public parks.

The league has for its object the securing of a belt of the finest redwood timber bordering the State highway in counties in Northwestern California, in the hope that this may become a State park, and the obtaining of the most typical primitive redwood forest known for the purposes of a national redwood park.

Paul C. Redington, district forest supervisor, pledged the aid of the forest service. The necessity of keeping the redwoods to protect streams and game was urged by Dr. B. W. Evermann, director of the California Academy of Sciences, while Prof. W. L. Jepson of the University of California pointed out their value to scientists.

Among other speakers were H. R. Basford of San Francisco, representing the California State Automobile Association, Dr. John C. Merriam of the University of California and William Kent of Marin county, donor of Muir woods to the State of California.

NO STOCK TRANSFERS OF CANADIAN PACIFIC.

BROKERS REFUSE BECAUSE OF EMBARGO ON SALE OF FOREIGN-OWNED SECURITIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—The embargo on the sale of foreign-owned securities has resulted in refusal of Canadian brokers to make transfers of Canadian Pacific Railroad stock, it was stadied today. The transfer office for stock of the road was moved to New York during the war for the benefit of European and American interests who constitute a majority of the shareholders.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Officials in the transfer here of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company declared today that if no Canadian Pacific stock is being transferred in the Dominion it must be because of adverse exchange rates. It could not be by reasons of restrictions placed on dealing on the shares or of lack of transfer facilities, as the transfer offices in Montreal and London still are open, it was said.

FREIGHT CAR EMBARGO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—An embargo on the sending of Canadian freight cars to the United States was announced here today by the Railway Association of Canada. On account of a shortage in the United States, American railroads are not returning Canadian cars, according to the association, and the embargo is necessary to relieve a lumber famine on the Canadian prairies.

CANADIAN LAND TAKEN BY 15,023 SERVICE MEN

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—Soldier settlement of land in Canada is progressing rapidly, especially in the three western provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, according to reports received at headquarters of the soldier settlement board here.

A total of 15,023 services men so far have taken advantage of the movement. Under favorable conditions it is estimated the annual production should average at least $3000 for each man.

URGE CONGRESS TO SAVE WATER.

Formation of State Body is Under Consideration.

Request for Special Session of Legislature Passes.

Sacramento Valley Conservation is Outlined.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Recommendation that a permanent California water congress be established was made to the water conference in session at the Capitol here by the committee on permanent organization, today, and was under consideration of the main body this afternoon.

A resolution that would have placed the conference on record as urging that the "paramount use of water should be for irrigation purposes" was defeated through opposition of delegates seeking equal recognition of hydroelectric development.

URGE EXTRA SESSION.

The resolution seeking a special session of the Legislature shuttled back and forth between committee and the floor and for a time its defeat seemed imminent with the report that Gov. Stephens already had set in motion machinery for a comprehensive survey of California's water potentialities.

At the Governor's office tonight there was no comment on this resolution, which as adopted urged special legislative action on the following suggestions:

(1.) State participation in financing and constructing water storage reservoirs.

(2.) Creation by the Legislature where desirable of State conservation and flood control districts embracing proper watershed areas with power of assessment and with power to work out for such areas in cooperation with the appropriate State and Federal agencies unified plans of water conservation, development and regulation.

(3.) State control of reservoirs and reservoir construction in the interest of safety and to the end that the waters conserved may be apportioned by the State for uses in such manner as may best serve the interests of the people of the State.

WOULD EXTEND POWER.

Another resolution up for action today requested legislation that would extend the powers of the State Reclamation Board to include irrigation matters.

F. Adams, irrigation expert of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, submitted a definite plan of action for water conservation in the Sacramento Valley. His proposals were under debate today. They included:

(1.) Make a complete engineering study of the entire tributary watershed to determine the total controllable water supply.

(2.) Make a thorough survey, including soundings for foundations of all reservoir sites with an economic study of their availability for storage.

(3.) Make a thorough hydroelectric study of the Sacramento River system in its relation to irrigation.

DISCUSS TEACHERS' PAY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, Feb. 27.—Pomona pedagogues are at least to have opportunity to present their side of the question of a rise in salaries. They are also to be given a chance to hear the Board of Education's side of the matter. At the suggestion of Guy V. Whaley, superintendent of schools, the latter was authorized to inform his teaching staff that they might appoint committees, representing the high school faculty, the intermediate and the elementary schools, to meet with the Board of Education during the time when the board convenes to make up the budget for the coming year.

The teachers must have it made clear to them, it was said by Mr. Whaley, that what some districts can do in the way of salaries is no criterion of what Pomona can pay. This city is paying much less than surrounding communities, which are continually outbidding this city for the services of the best teachers. This has become such a serious matter, declared Mr. Whaley, that in justice to the school children, he has been forced to make it clear that no more releases will be granted teachers this year, with the exception of one who through the shift due to graduations is left with little to do.

The budget must be prepared before August 15, said Mr. Whaley. It first goes to the County Superintendent of Schools for his approval, after which it goes to the supervisors the first Monday in September. Local teachers held a mass meeting last night at which a rise in property valuation was urged as a remedy for providing funds adequate to what is deemed sufficient salary.

VENICE, Feb. 27.—"Hair tonic was manufactured to hasten a growth on the outside of the head, not to create a disordered state on the inside," said Sergeant Jean Randal of the Santa Monica police this morning as he informed W. J. Cortwill and J. M. McCarthy, Civil War veterans who got gloriously drunk last night on a bottle of Place hair remedy, that had a 62 per cent. kick in it, that they were released on a suspended sentence.

About two ounces of liquid was left in the bottle, that only contained six ounces when it was full. When Cortwill and McCarthy were found in the Palisades, they could not walk, but talked at length of the things they were "seein'."

JOHN IMAN LOSES PLACE AS UNDERSHERIFF OF ORANGE COUNTY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Feb. 27.—Climaxing, it is said, differences of some two years' standing, John H. Iman, undersheriff here for the last five years, was today dismissed by the Sheriff, C. E. Jackson.

When Jackson served a thirty-day notice on Iman this morning he immediately turned in his credentials and severed his connection with the office. The immediate cause of the dismissal, it is said, was testimony Iman gave yesterday when called as a witness in the case of A. Snell Grove of Ramona Acres, charged with a felony involving a young Santa Ana girl.

Iman's testimony was that on the day after the arrest the girl told him the offense was committed in Los Angeles county, and on the strength of this testimony, it was said, the jury failed to agree, standing six to six at the time of its discharge at midnight.

The Sheriff claims Iman withheld what the girl told him until he was called upon to testify, but Iman claims he had told both Jackson and the District Attorney the nature of his conversation with the girl. Previous to coming to Santa Ana Iman was on the Anaheim police force for three years, and previous to that was for fifteen years a member of San Pedro police before that town was annexed to Los Angeles.

SOCIETY LEADERS TO FETE ADMIRAL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 27.—Admiral Hugh Rodman, aboard his flagship New Mexico, accompanied by the Mississippi, Texas and Idaho, dropped anchor in front of the Ambassador Hotel this afternoon. The admiral comes on a purely social visit, having notified Hobard C. Chatfield-Taylor, Montecito and Chicago multi-millionaire and author, of his intended visit early in the week.

A committee composed of Mr. Taylor, John Percival Jefferson, Harry K. Elston and J. Allen Haines, all of Montecito, have arranged the social festivities, among the fashionable set for the admiral and his officers. Tonight the naval officers will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mapes; Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pitcher will entertain Capt. Moffet of the Mississippi and his officers; Saturday afternoon a luncheon for the officers will be given at the Country Club at which the prettiest society buds of Montecito promise to participate and Sunday afternoon Admiral Rodman and his staff are to be entertained at the Temple of Music, on the William T. Carrington estate, Montecito, by Mr. Haines. A public reception to which 750 persons have been invited, will be given by the admiral aboard his flagship Saturday afternoon.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Feb. 27.—Fullerton has nothing on this section in the way of ghosts.

The spirits are hard at work at the home of Michael Radke, father of Leonard Radke of this city. The Radke home is at Highgrove between Redlands and Riverside. Every night between 8 and 10 o'clock a hand appears at the Radke home, pulls covers off the bed, lifts the mattress and shakes the springs.

Some of the more adventurous spirits of Redlands have gone to look into the matter and they profess to be amazed at what they saw. One of them attempted to hold down the bed springs, but the hand, which can be seen in the dim light, lifted them easily.

City to Adopt Ordinance Providing Vocational Tax.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 27.—Harvey Searl, aged 15, and Henry Ege, aged 14, two pupils of the Stockton grammar school, attacked Principal E. M. Chickering of the school this morning and attempted to beat him up. The boys had been ordered to do some work when they displayed the fit of temper in the manual training room of the school. One of the boys threw a chisel at the head of the teacher. Chickering grappled with them and held them until the police arrived.

The Stockton school is for delinquent students and the two boys are charged with causing considerable trouble recently through breaking windows and taking articles from the school.

The boys said at the police station, they had it in for the teacher and would "get" him yet. They were turned over to the probation officers.

LICENSE ORDINANCE.

A license tax for all engaged in occupations and professions, including preachers, has been decided on by the City Council Conference Committee. The matter will be brought before the Council again Monday and the ordinance enacted to make it a law.

Councilmen Don Stewart and Virgil Bruschi each stated today that the Council has decided to tax everybody taxable: that is, a license fee is to be put on those who it is deemed proper by the Councilmen should be licensed. These Councilmen said ministers or other religious workers who perform marriages or officiate at funerals for fees are to be licensed along with physicians, dentists or other professional men.

RUSH IMPROVEMENT.

Work on San Dimas Dam to Start Early in April.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN DIMAS, Feb. 27.—Work on the great San Dimas dam is to begin early in April, it was announced yesterday by J. W. Reagan, county flood control engineer, when he paid a final visit of inspection to the site. He made a careful examination of the eight tunnels driven in the west bank of the mouth of the canyon, in order to establish the location of the bed rock, which has finally been ascertained definitely. The plans and specifications will now be rushed to completion, and placed in the hands of contractors for bids.

The new dam, according to Mr. Gillman, will be approximately 400 feet long from one side of the canyon to the other. It will contain 27,000 acre feet of water, and will deliver, according to estimates, 250 miners' inches of irrigation in six months. Figuring about four acres to be irigated to each miners' inch, the big artificial lake will deliver enough water to supply 1000 acres, or two-thirds of the San Dimas territory. The balance will be supplied from the wells of the San Dimas Mutual Water Company.

ADMIRAL TO CALL AT SANTA BARBARA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 27.—Admiral Rodman, with his flagship New Mexico and superdreadnaughts Mississippi, Idaho and Texas, will drop anchor off the Ambassador Hotel, Friday afternoon, to remain until Monday. The coming of the fleet is a return of an official welcome given Admiral Rodman last July by Mayor H. T. Nielson and the people of the city. Society teas are to be given for the admiral and his officers by the Montecito set. The admiral will entertain the Mayor and representative citizens on the flagship, Saturday night.

WAR GUILTY CONSENT TO TRIAL IN GERMANY.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—Prominent generals and admirals accused by the Allies of war crimes today issued a declaration which, while reiterating their refusal to appear before a foreign court, expresses the willingness of the men to go to trial before a German judge.

The signers of the declaration are Gen. Erich Ludendorff, former first quartermaster-general; Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz, former Minister of the Navy; Gen. Erich von Falkenhayn, former Chief of Staff; Field Marschal Von Kluck, Admiral Von Schroeder and numerous other generals and admirals.

A German judge, the declaration asserts, will proceed according to German law.

RAIL BILL HELD AS A VALID ACT.

Department of Justice Sends it to White House.

Belief General that Wilson will Approve Measure.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—While there has been no intimation as to President Wilson's views on the railroad bill, administration officials generally expect he will approve it.

The measure was returned to the White House today from the Department of Justice, which ruled that there was no constitutional objection to its admission to the statute books. It later was referred to Director-General Hines for his opinion.

Mr. Hines has said he regarded it as about the best legislation obtainable under the circumstances.

Railroad Administration officials have begun preparations for complete contraction of the great wartime organization into the body which will act as the liquidating agency. Several hundred employees will find themselves out of jobs tomorrow night.

EXIT REGIONAL STAFFS.

All regional staffs tomorrow night will turn over their work to the proper corporation officials in the respective regions. Orders recently were issued covering the methods by which changes in accounting and transfer of funds will be made.

Mr. Hines, however, still will have numerous important questions to deal with after he ceases to direct operation of the lines. A score of labor organizations have unsettled wage demands before the Federal wage board. Decision on many of these was retroactive, when finally decided, and for that reason the wage boards will be continued for a time.

The divisions of law, accounting and the Director-General's immediate staff largely will remain. G. H. Parker, who has served throughout Mr. Hines's administration as financial assistant to the Director-General, will become comptroller of the contracted organization.

EXECUTIVES APPROVE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Approval of the railroad bill now awaiting action by the President was expressed at a meeting here today of executives representing approximately 90 per cent. of the country's railways, who discussed the provisions of the bill in connection with resumption of private ownership March 1. In a statement the executives predicted that the proposed legislation would be successful if "the credit of the carriers is made sufficient to enable them to perform their public duties."

According to the executives, the railways are far behind in operating equipment, and sufficient credit must be established before the carriers could begin the task of overcoming that deficit. It was estimated that the roads are three years behind in passenger cars, two years behind in locomotives, one year behind in freight cars and two years behind in Pullman cars.

ON TRIAL.

With resumption of private control and under the provisions of the bill every agency connected with the operation of railways is upon trial, the statement said.

It continued:

"The legislation marks a new departure on the part of Congress, its policies with respect to regulating the instrumentalities of interstate commerce. Whatever differences of opinion may exist as to the adequacy, desirability or validity of some of the provisions, there must be universal recognition of the high and patriotic purpose of those in Congress chiefly responsible for the legislation.

"The government policy of the future will, no doubt, depend on the success of the experiment now made.

CREDIT BIG FACTOR.

"The act itself is about to enter upon its 'test period.' If, under the system which it establishes, the credit of the carriers is made sufficient to enable them to perform their public duties, the legislation will, by universal concession, be a success. If, on the other hand, such credit is not established the legislation will be a failure.

"In addition to the act the Interstate Commerce Commission, the several State commissions, the labor unions and the carriers themselves are all on trial.

"The Interstate Commerce Commission is on trial because the powers conferred upon that body by this bill are so enormous and so far reaching that it will become largely responsible for the success or failure of the system of regulation.

NEED HARMONY.

"The State commissions are on trial, because, if they hold back and refuse to co-operate with the Interstate Commerce Commission in establishing a harmonious system of rates to supply to both State and interstate commerce of the same carrier, they will interpose an obstacle in the way of the success of the system for which public opinion will hold them responsible.

"The labor unions are on trial because the government itself has created an official agency for the fair and equitable adjustment of all grievances and all controversies as to wages and living conditions and if, in defiance of the conclusions thus officially reached, the labor organizations unjustly and contrary to public opinion, interrupt the orderly and continuous movement of interstate commerce, upon which the welfare of the whole public depends they cannot expect to be sustained by the people to whose will at last, all must bow.

"The carriers are on trial because an effort has been made to extend to them help of a substantial character in the performances of their public duties, and public opinion will hold them to a strict accountability for the fidelity and efficiency with which these duties are performed."

UNION LABOR REFUSES TO INDORSE JOHNSON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 26. — Indorsement of Hiram W. Johnson, either as a Presidential aspirant or as a friend of union labor, while Governor of California, has been refused by the Federated Trades Council. The resolution, presented by Delegate D. D. Sullivan of the Printing Pressmen's Union, was rejected almost without a discussion by a vote of 20 to 14.

The resolution was reported back from the law and legislative committee with a recommendation that it be passed. Delegate Sullivan called attention to the many things which he alleged Johnson had done for the labor cause and said it was labor's duty to remember him.

When Delegate Marine stated that the intent of the resolution was not clear and asked if it was meant as an approval of Johnson's record in the Senate and of his Presidential aspirations, Sullivan hesitated.

"Oh, I had in mind indorsing his record in California," he replied.

"Does that include indorsement of the master sleeper now in the Governor's chair?"

"It is time that union labor woke up," asserted Marine. 'I'm not willing to indorse a good many things Johnson did. There's too many politicians in union labor anyhow."

The resolution was then voted down.

MAY LOCATE HOME FOR AGED IN LOS ANGELES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 26.—The Neighbors of Woodcraft special board for the location of a home for aged members, has been in session several days in this city. It has been decided to locate the home in California and to leave the choice of several locations in that State to the Grand Guardian, Mrs. C. C. Vonorsdale, of Portland. The locating board is composed of sixteen women from all parts of the Pacific Coast.

Los Angeles, San Jose, San Diego, and Riverside are mentioned as possible locations, although the board had thirty-one offers before it.

The intention is to invest about $80,000 now, with the expectation of increasing the investment to $250,000 or $300,000. There will be a farm in connection, and it is hoped to make it self-sustaining.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

United States manufacturers are getting no encouragement from abroad in attempts to reduce the and he continued the boosting procof raw materials which they are compelled to bring from other parts of the world keep on advancing without the slightest reference to the cessation of hostilities.

The Egyptian cotton grower, for example, who had seen his export prices of raw cotton increase nearly 100 per cent. during the war period, could not be persuaded that he ought to reduce his price merely because the guns had ceased to roar, and he continued the boosting process which had characterized the war period with the result that the American importers of Egyptian cotton are now paying nearly 50 per cent. more for that necessity of manufacture than at the close of the war.

The jute growers of India are also demanding and receiving today an advance of more than 50 per cent. on their prices at the close of the war. Producers of goat skins in Latin America, China, India, North Africa and Southern Europe, not content with an increase of 100 per cent. during the war period, insisted on a still further advance in celebration of universal peace, and were in November, 1919, demanding and getting 50 per cent. more than at the termination of hostilities in 1918, and the quantity brought into the United States goes on increasing irrespective of the advance in price.

Raw silk producers on the other side of the globe, far distant from the scene of hostilities, were not satisfied with an increase of 100 per cent. up to the termination of the war, but calmly added 50 per cent more to the already high prices in the period between November, 1918, and November, 1919.

The live-stock producers of South America, Australia, South Africa and India, who have developed the "habit" of pushing up the prices of hides, whether of cattle, sheep, pigs, goats, horses or kangaroos, have continued the advance which characterized the entire war period, and the average price which American importers must now pay in the country of production is 50 per cent. higher than on the day on which the whole world was celebrating the return to peace.

Downward Cost Trend.

From an unsuspected source comes the first news of definite food price breaks. Chicago reports that eggs, butter, potatoes, meat and flour are declining, and that bakers are considering the restoration of the 10-cent loaf. The Chicago average for these items is considerably above that of Los Angeles, but many dealers think that this city will soon be included in the downward trend. Two of the items, flour and eggs, are already lower, and potatoes are wobbling. The meat situation here is affected more by range conditions than by receipts as is the case in the East, and any marked decline will probably be deferred until later in the season.

Los Angeles Stock Market.

The Los Angeles market held steady, with light volume but firm undertone. There was a fair number of buying orders and no tendency toward drastic liquidation. The trading was ruffled by few features, and the fractional changes, while mainly dulines from Thursday's high points, were of little significance. The short interests appear to have temporarily ceased their efforts to depress the market, and selling orders were composed mostly of the regular investment turnover, and, in a few cases, of profit taking from the low marks of the last few days.

Oils were unusually quiet, and trading was mostly confined to Associated and Union, with a few scattered transactions in the smaller-priced issues at prices showing a little change. Industrials were in strong demand, a considerable amount of Goodyear changing hands at par, while Southern California Edison moved up to a close of $87.50, which represents a three-quarter-point gain for the week. Mines were steady, trading light and demand good.

Liberty Bonds developed very slight changes from Thursday's low marks. The public appears to be waiting upon a definite determination of the railroad question, and there is a growing realisation that the times are critical in this regard, and that an equable adjustment goes directly to financial conditions at large.

Dividend Notice.

California Packing declares a dividend of $1.50 a share on common stock, payable March 15 to stockholders of record today. Hecla Mining Company will pay a quarterly dividend of 15 cents per share on March 28; books close March 1. Amalgamated pays $1.50 a share April 15; books close March 26. West Coast Oil pays $1.50 a share April 15; books close March 26. California Delta will make a liquidating disbursement of $5 per share on March 4; books closed yesterday.

Debenture Bonds.

Subscriptions were opened yesterday by E. H. Rollins & Sons on a $2,751,700 issue of Detroit Edison Company ten-year 7 per cent cumulative debenture bonds. The bonds have maturities running from March 1, 1930, to March 1, 1932, and are convertible into common stock of the corporation between March 1, 1922, and September 1, 1929. The conversion will be made at par. For the year 1919 the gross earnings of the company amounted to $16,495,391, giving net earnings after taxes, depreciation and operating expenses of $4,214,318. Interest charges on the bonded indebtedness of the company amount to $1,533,250, leaving a surplus of $2,745,068, or 3½ times the interest charges on the outstanding debenture bonds, including this issue. The company pays 8 per cent on the outstanding stock. The bonds of this issue will be sold at 101 and interest.

Half a Tire Per Head.

The United States will consume at least one-half of an automobile tire per capita in 1920, according to the Akron Chamber of Commerce which estimates the output at 57,000,000 tires, an increase over 1919 of 12,000,000 tires. In Akron alone 90,000 tires are being produced daily compared with a pre-war output of 20,000 tires. The Los Angeles Goodyear plant will provide slight relief but it is already evident that this new producing center and others to be established will have to be considerably enlarged to meet the constantly growing market.

Silk Shirts at $25.

Raw silk has advanced from $6.50 per pound to $13.50 and silk shirts will soon be selling at from $20 to $25, according to local dealers, who say that a fair part of this demand for this class of merchandise comes from the workman, while the man of wealth, who formerly wore them refuses to pay the price and contents himself with better wearing and cheaper weaves.

Furniture Prices.

Furniture dealers hold out little hope for relief from the present high price peak. There has been an advance in two years of about 100 per cent. Business has thrived, even at the increased prices, and the installment houses, especially appear to have enjoyed greatly-stimulated business by the demand for costly furnishings.

The Copper Market.

Copper buying is beginning to reassert itself, and there are indications of renewed activity both at the mines and in the market. Unless the bottom should still further go out of the exchange situation, some substantial foreign purchasing is expected.

Food Storage.

The Los Angeles warehouse storage report for the week shows 723 cases of eggs on hand; 32,793 pounds of butter as compared with 21,227 pounds for the corresponding week last year; 736,731 pounds of cheese

No Hope for Milk Price Cut for Thirty Days; Dairymen Pay High for Feed.

Milk prices will not be reduced for at least thirty days according to T. H. Brice, secretary of the California Milk Producers' Association, who says there can be no change in the price of milk until feed is cheaper. The recent rains in Southern California have been beneficial to the farmers, but most of the dairymen depend upon the San Joaquin Valley and Nevada for their feed supply, which is now costing association members $37 per ton f.o.b. Los Angeles. Dairymen who are not members of the association, said Secretary Brice, are paying as high as $42 per ton for feed at the present time.

Mr. Brice also declared that there is a real shortage of milk in Los Angeles at the present time; that milk dealers can get only enough to fill their regular demands. The shortage is attributed to the fact that many farmers have sold their milch cows for beef on account of the scarcity of farm labor. One local packing-house slaughtered 300 milch cows last month. More rain in the San Joaquin Valley will bring the price of feed down, and with it, the price of milk.

ACTIVITY IN GRAIN MARKET SLOWS UP.

PROFIT TAKING BY LONGS; LACK OF AGGRESSIVE BUYING CAUSES BREAK.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Action of the grain markets was largely reversed today highest prices being made at the start or soon after and the lowest at the close. The ginger so marked in operations the three previous days was lacking and profits were more acceptable. At the last, net losses were 1 6-4 to 2c on corn, March landing, 1 4-4@2c on oats, with May in the lead, 1 5@2 1-4c on rye and 1-8c on barley. Southwestern markets were not as weak as Chicago on corn and northwestern markets were stronger on oats.

Sentiment underwent considerable change in corn. An overbought condition was displayed early, and, with a lack of aggressive buying, longs were disposed to take profits. Local traders bought at the start, putting May up to $1.38, or a new high on the present movement. When pressure increased support was poor and a sharp break follow[ed] [with] no close being about the bottom. There [was] some selling of May and buying of July at a [wi]de difference to close spreads.

While the general run of news was bullish, the cash market failed to show the snap which has characterised it of late.

The May-July oats spread narrowed 3c as the result of free buying of the deferred delivery by a strong commission house. Bulk of the trade was of a local character, and, while cash grain was strong, the break in corn more than offset this, and the finish was about the bottom with May.

The range:

Corn—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
February	1.47⅞	1.47⅞	1.45⅝	1.45⅝

PRICES FOR ORANGES TAKE BIG JUMP OF $1 PER BOX; ONIONS ADVANCE.

Due to an active demand from retailers and peddlers, the trend of prices was upward for most commodities during yesterday's session on the local produce market. Moderate receipts from the country and by rail further contributed to a good firm market, and farmers were able to move their better grade offerings at good prices. Sales of poorer stock were made at prices considerably below the ruling quotations, however, weakening the tone of the general list.

An outstanding feature of the market was the sharp advance of oranges, which jumped 75 cents to $1 per box. A stronger demand in the eastern and middle western markets for oranges, together with higher prices, is having the effect of influencing shipments to the local market, with the result that prices for the fancy grade, which are in steady demand, ranged from $3.75 to $4.75 per box yesterday, as compared with Thursday's quotations of $2.75 to $3.25 per packed box. Other citrus fruits were firm and unchanged.

INTERNATIONAL PETROLEUM COMPANY, LIMITED
To the Shareholders of International Petroleum Company, Limited:
NOTICE is hereby given that the Board of Directors of the Company have resolved to issue 1,253,140 Shares of £1 each (par value $5.00) of the Common Capital Stock of the Company, at the price of $5.00 (Five Dollars) per share payable in New York funds at par.
The above issue of new stock will be made on the basis of shares for shares of the Preference and Common Capital Stock issued and full paid up as at the close of business on the 5th day of March, 1920, and each Shareholder is entitled to subscribe and pay for one new Common Share in respect of each share held by him.
Holders of Bearer Share Warrants who present their Warrants at the office of the Company, at 86 Church Street, Toronto, Canada, or at The Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, 16-22 William Street, New York City, U. S. A., on or before the 15th day of March, 1920, are entitled to subscribe and pay for new shares on the terms mentioned above.
All Bearer Share Warrants presented as aforesaid must be accompanied by certified check (that is, check duly certified or accepted by a Bank) or Bank draft made out to the order of The Farmers' Loan and Trust Company for account of International Petroleum Company, Limited, and payable at par at a Bank in New York City, U. S. A., for the full amount due of $5.00 per share on each new share subscribed for. The Bearer Share Warrants presented as aforesaid will be stamped "Ex Rights 1920" and returned to the parties presenting them, together with the share warrants for the new shares subscribed and paid for.
Failure to exercise the rights to subscribe for new shares within the time limit and in the manner aforesaid will subject those rights to forfeiture.
The Books of the Company will be closed from the 6th day of March, 1920, to the 20th day of March, 1920, inclusive, and no Bearer Share Warrants will be "split" during that period.
No Warrants for "rights" will be issued and shareholders who desire to split warrants in order to sell part of their holding to enable them to pay for the new shares must do so on or before the 5th of March, 1920.
Holders of Bearer Share Warrants are recommended to send their warrants, together with their remittance, by Registered Mail, insured, as the Company is not responsible for Share Warrants lost in transit, and duplicate Share Warrants cannot be issued.
By Order of the Board,
J. R. Clarke,
Secretary.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Trading on the stock exchange today was marked by extreme irregularity, strength prevailing at the outset, with pronounced weakness at midday and a vigorous rally in the final dealings.

Independent steels were under constant pressure, as were also motors, oils and equipments. Typical of the movement was the wide swing of General Motors, which more than cancelled its early gain of 10 points, only to come forward again at the end.

Rails were again the sustaining features of strength on further extensive accumulation of low-priced shares. Rock Island led the movement at a gain of nearly 5 points, and issues of other secondary roads traversing western and southwestern agricultural centers gained 1 to 3 points.

Representative, or dividend-paying rails, lagged for the most part, but gathered strength when Pacifics and coalers began to rise. Equipments also threw off their heaviness, sharing variably with the more speculative issues of that division. Sales amounted to 1,050,000 shares. There was little in the money market or foreign exchange to offer especial encouragement. Call loans renewed at 10 per cent, advancing to 12 per cent just before the close, and active bidding for time funds was without results. Exchange on London was uncertain most of the time, but improved later.

Further heavy trading in Liberty and Victory issues at lower prices featured the active bond market, but rails and industrials rallied with the stock market. Sales (par value) aggregated $18,850,000. Old United States bonds were unaltered on call.

MID-CONTINENT CRUDE PRICE 25 CENTS MORE.

ADVANCE BY SINCLAIR AND GULF COMPANIES AND ALSO BY PITTSBURGH AGENCY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

DALLAS (Texas) Feb. 27.—An increase of 25 cents a barrel in mid-continent crude oil was announced today by the Sinclair Oil and Refining Company and the Gulf Refining Company, while a similar increase in North Texas crude was announced by several other companies including the Texas Company and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company.

TULSA (Okla.) Feb. 27.—A 25-cent increase in the price of mid-continent crude oil, the fourth advance within the last four months, was announced by the Prairie Oil and Gas Company here today. The price went to $3.25.

SHREVEPORT (La.) Feb. 27.—Caddo "gravity crude oil today advanced 25 cents, the price being raised to $1.75 per barrel. The advance was announced by the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana.

WICHITA FALLS (Tex.) Feb. 27.—The Prairie Oil and Gas Company posted a price of $3.25 a barrel for Burkburnett crude oil today, an advance of 25 cents a barrel. The Gulf Pipe Line Company announced a like advance.

PENNSYLVANIA ADVANCES.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—The Oil Purchasing Agency today announced an advance in Pennsylvania grades of oil 15 cents a barrel, bringing the price to $5.80.

It is the first posted advance since the purchasing agencies announced they would not provide independent refiners with oil after March 15, but was not expected by oil authorities to bring additional supplies to the market.

Later it was announced that the price of Somerset oil had been advanced 25 cents to $3.50 a barrel.

CONSERVATIVE BUYING IS BUSINESS FEATURE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"A rather more pronounced tendency to conservatism with a somewhat quieter tone characterizes the general business situation. There appears to be a disposition on the part of buyers to go more slowly in making purchases and to look for conditions with greater care. Thus we find indications that to a growing degree buyers confine themselves to meeting immediate requirements, still lacking confidence to anticipate even moderately their consumptive needs for the future to a portion of their anticipated needs. Some of the trade reports tell of transferring buying in excess of those for the same time last year while showing a falling off from recent weeks. The complaint of scarcity of merchandise cannot be widespread. Manufacturing continues active, concerns in most sections being reported as working to capacity, but production still lags behind demand in spite of the stimulus of high prices.

"A feature of the general situation is the marked activity in building, though the speculative side of the movement are limited by the scarcity and high price of materials and by enhanced labor costs.

"Weekly bank clearings, $7,000,957,000."

MILO AND BARLEY 50 TO 75 CENTS LOWER.

A Scotch sentiment developed on the local grain exchange yesterday; the market was unsupported by any buying interest, and general declines in barley and milo followed. Reports of rain in the San Joaquin Valley districts had the effect of bringing barley prices, particularly the future months, to a lower level. Near-by deliveries of milo were unchanged to 50 cents per ton lower. In the future months, February was unchanged, with other months making a decline of 50 cents per ton. Barley, for prompt loading, and future delivery was from 50 to 75 cents per ton weaker, with all July delivery moving at $2.02½. A car of eastern high barley in bulk, 37 to 38 pounds, sold at $2.07½.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO "TIMES" Classified Advertisers.

5 p.m. is the closing hour for the receipt of classified advertisements for both Daily and Sunday Times.

Classified Liners.

CLASSIFIED RATES
Effective January 1st, 1920.

Minimum space, 2 lines, or 12 words. Minimum charge, 20 cents daily, or 40 cents Sunday.

14 cents a line each daily insertion.
7 cents a line each Sunday insertion.
15 cents daily, 10 cents Sunday.
15 to 29 consecutive times.
$3.00 per line for one month (30 days).

Strictly "Situation Wanted" advertisements, 12c a line daily and Sunday. Minimum charge, 24c. 11c a line 3 or more consecutive times. Situation Wanted advertising, not to be charged for at the general classified rates of 14c a line daily and 7c a line Sunday, for a small display line. Display advertisements under the headings of "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Lodges," "Bonds," "Liberty Bonds," "Improvement Bonds," "Money to Loan—Salary and Chattels," "Money to Loan—Diamonds and Jewelry," "Money to Loan—Automobiles," "Physicians," "Medical," "Sanatoriums" and "Baths and Massages." Minimum charge, 75c daily, $1.00 Sunday or $5.10 a line per month (30 days). Minimum charge applies to each single advertisement. Any classification may be divided into words for the first line, and seven average words for each additional line in advertisements not to exceed three lines per insertion.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time. The inadvertent omission of advertising will be rectified only by the cancellation of the charge made for the service rendered. Adjustment of errors will be made in accordance with published rules and regulations. No adjustment for errors will be allowed for advertisements not verified by an error or errors which may occur in other forms in the same publication. The Times will not be responsible for errors of any kind in telephone advertisements. The right is reserved to classify advertisements under appropriate headings, and to reject objectionable advertising.

"WANT AD" SUPREMACY.

The Times regularly prints practically all of the "Want Ads" published in all of the other Los Angeles newspapers, in addition to thousands of exclusive ads not printed in any other newspaper.

Take all classifications—Help Wanted, Situations Wanted, To Let, Automobiles, Real Estate, Business Opportunities—TIMES LEADERSHIP UNQUESTIONED.

By using THE TIMES ALONE, classified advertisers can cover Los Angeles and Southern California at one low cost.

To Give Sunday Lecture.

The churches of Christ, Scientist, of Los Angeles, announce a free lecture on Christian Science, by Charles I. Ohrenstein, C.S.B., of Syracuse, N. Y., member of the board of lectureship of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, to be delivered Sunday, at 3 p.m., in Temple Auditorium, Fifth and Olive streets.

On Christian Science.

There are eleven Christian Science churches and two Christian Science societies in Los Angeles, which hold regular services at 11 a.m., Sunday. The subject of the lesson-sermon in each of them for Sunday is "Christ Jesus." Sunday evening services are held at 8 o'clock in First, Second, Third, Fifth and Sixth churches, and each Wednesday evening a meeting is held which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing.

OPERA.

"BOHEME" APPEALS.

ATTRACTIVE PERFORMANCE OF PUCCINI WORK.

By Jeanne Redman.

"La Boheme" was presented by the San Carlo Opera Company last evening to another packed house at the Mason. One of the principals, Agostini, sang the same role of Rudolfo in Los Angeles twenty-two years ago. Last night he was in excellent form, his fine voice and his convincing and finished acting bringing him immense applause. His rendition of the "Che Gelida Manina" was very effectively and beautifully done, as was also the duet with Mimi, Sono Audati."

There is always something appealing in this opera. It takes us back to some of the glamour and aspirations of our youth, when, in all the world, there were no responsibilities. In the first scene, laid in the cold and bare attic where one has to rub one's hands to keep the blood in circulation, there is, in spite of the obvious hardship and renunciation, an atmosphere of youth and ambition which makes such struggles the most secondary of considerations.

The four comrades, Rudolfo, Marcel, Colline and Shaunard, sung by Agostini, Mario Valle, Pietro De Biasi and Paolo Galazzi, amply portrayed this atmosphere. Their acting throughout was uniformly good. De Biasi, the cheerful Colline, offset the melancholy Rudolfo admirably and with just the right amount of gravity in his playfulness.

Galazzi as Shaunard, the eccentric musician, created great amusement by his facial antics. His voice, while not great of volume, has a rich and smooth character.

Valle, as Marcel, the optimistic artist, has a fine presence and his depiction of his jealousy at seeing his former sweetheart in the company of the rich Benoit, sung by Natale Cervi, was well done. Cervi made an enormous impression, as he has in former work, by his clownish, but not overdone interpretations, in his two-fold activities.

Queena Mario as Mimi was exceptionally good. Her sweet and plaintive voice has a silvery bell-like quality, and is handled skillfully. She was particularly enjoyable because her appearance so accurately corresponded with the pathetic personality of Mimi. She has a lovely presence, and felt keenly the essentials of her role. Her death scene was tragically simple and affecting. Rosina Zotti as Musetta was successful after the first apparent nervousness had left her. Her voice is large in volume and resonant, but she is disposed at times to an inaccurate pitch.

The first and third scenes were attractively set. One cannot but feel that the acting of the entire cast of the San Carlo company is much above the average, and this, in my estimation, is a very large asset for any organization of singers.

"Faust" and "Trovatore."

The only performance of "Faust" by the San Carlo company, with Marcella Craft as Marguerite, Romeo Boscacci as Faust, Vincente Ballester as Valentine, and De Biasi as Mephistopheles will be given this afternoon at the Mason.

Tonight the opera will be "Il Trovatore."

Tomorrow afternoon a special matinee performance of "La Forza del Destino" is to be presented with Alice Gentle, Paggi, Cervi, Boscacci and Ballester, an all-star cast. This famous old Italian opera has enjoyed a revival at the Metropolitan this past winter.

The scene is laid in Spain and Italy, the middle of the eighteenth century, and has the advantage of an excellent libretto by Piave, with typical music by Verdi.

The role of Donna Leonora will be one of splendid possibilities for Gentle, it is believed.

CHARGE PERJURY IN BISBEE TRIAL

War Loyalty of Two Jurors is Questioned.

Twenty-four in Box; Attempt to Unseat Three.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TOMBSTONE (Ariz.) Feb. 27.—Bruce Stephenson, an attorney for the defense in the Bisbee deportation cases, was accused of perjury in connection with testimony given during the examination of jurors today for the trial of Harry E Wootton, first of 210 defendants to be placed on trial, in information issued by the County Attorney's office late today.

A warrant for Stephenson's arrest was issued. The complaint was signed by W. A. Beaton, whose testimony was in direct contradiction to Stephenson's.

Stephenson was placed on the witness stand by Frank E. Curley, assistant chief attorney for the defense, in an effort to disqualify Charles F. Mannus, a juror passed by the State, but, to whom the defense objected.

WOMAN TESTIFIES.

Mannus was examined as a juror and passed by the State yesterday. After examining Mannus, Attorney Curley asked for a subpoena for Mrs. W. A. Beaton. Mrs. Beaton appeared in court but was not called by the defense and Assistant County Attorney George Roark called her to the stand.

Mrs. Beaton said Mannus's sympathies were with the United States.

Curley asked if Stephenson during the past few days had not called at her home and that she had told him of an alleged statement by Mannus criticising the deportations. She said:

"No, sir, Mr. Stephenson was never in my house and I never talked to the man. I don't know him if I see him."

Curley called Stephenson, who previously had testified during efforts of the defense to disqualify P. C. Haney, another juror. Stephenson said he was acquainted with Mrs. Beaton and conversed with her at her home in the presence of her husband. Asked what she had told him, Stepenson said:

SAID DEPORTATIONS WRONG.

"In substance that Mr. Mannus had, sometime in the fall of 1917, after the deportation, said to her that it was wrong and that it ought not to be allowed; that was the substance of it, I cannot give you the exact words." Beaton was then called to the stand.

"Do you know Bruce Stephenson?" asked Roark.

"Well I used to know him about five or six years ago, about the last time I saw him."

"Was he at your house one evening recently?"

"I haven't seen him; this is the first time I have seen him in five years that I know of."

The defense did not cross-examinate Mr. Beaton and he left the witness chair after making the statement flatly contradicting Stephenson's statement that he had visited the Beaton home.

WAR RECORD ATTACKED.

Loyalty during the war of two tentative jurymen was under attack by the defense when court adjourned tonight until Monday afternoon. The State was attempting to unseat a third.

Harry Richards, a health seeker, today became the twenty-fourth juror accepted.

Richards's selection made the full quota of jurors necessary before peremptory challenges begin, but with his selection the State recalled J. A. Finney, a retired business man of Bisbee, for further examination in an attempt to disqualify him. The defense also indicated it would attempt to unseat one or more jurors without resorting to peremptory challenges and it was considered probable at least two more jurors would be necessary before the trial could actually begin.

LIE IS PASSED.

Occasion is Consideration of Old Subject of Pipe Specifications.

The old, old story of specifications for cement and sewer pipe will be continued in the City Council chamber next Monday. Most of yesterday's session was taken up with the consideration of majority and minority reports on proposed specifications, and from start to time of adjournment, there were stormy scenes. At one time the lie was directly passed. This was when Councilman Criswell declared that Councilman Wheeler was intentionally misrepresenting his statements.

The majority report was signed by Councilman Wheeler, Langdon, Fleming and Conaway, and Councilman Criswell filed a minority report. The present effort is to secure specifications that will invite pipe makers to offer bids on work.

CITY'S READY TO SELL.

An ordinance declaring the intention of the city to sell the lot at the southwest corner of Fifth and Olive streets, owned by the water department, was adopted by the City Council yesterday, and the minimum price was fixed at $275,000, in accordance with similar action taken by the Board of Public Service Commissioners at its last meeting. Later an ordinance will be adopted calling for bids. Several tentative offers for this property have already been made to the board.

Powder Always Shows On a Rough Skin

DO you realize that your skin would look twice as nice if you used a finishing cream every time before you put on face powder?

Try this simple formula—"A little CREME ELCAYA rubbed gently into the skin; then if you need color, a very little rouge spread carefully over the cheeks before the cream is quite dry; and after that the film of Elcaya face powder over all."

CRÊME ELCAYA

Your dealer has ELCAYA and has sold it for years. Ask him.

UNION BLOW AT BUILDERS HERE.

Bricklayers' Union Creating Shortage of Workmen.

Large Construction Jobs Hit to Back Wage Demands.

Contractors for Exclusive Use of Concrete Now.

Activity of the Bricklayers' Union here and elsewhere on the Pacific Coast is creating an artificial shortage of labor that is threatening to tie up several big construction jobs, in order to bolster up wage demands which the union has just made upon local building contractors. Knowledge of the union's tactics became general in building circles yesterday.

The bricklayers have served notice on their employers that after April 1 they will not work for less than $1.25 an hour for an eight-hour day. There are but few non-union bricklayers on the Coast and there is a big demand for such workers in nearly every city.

There is at least one job in this city which could use 150 additional bricklayers for the next month or two. According to members of the Master Builders' Association, more than a job in this city which could employ eighty-five bricklayers has only been at work.

More than a dozen big buildings are to be erected here during the next twelve months, and it seems likely that work on them will be seriously delayed unless the shortage of labor is relieved soon. Several contractors are said to be advising prospective builders to use reinforced concrete instead of brick, in order to solve the problem.

In recent days local contractors have been scouring the country in an effort to secure union bricklayers to complete jobs now under way, owing to the scarcity of skilled help. They have been able to bring here only a few dozen recruits from Seattle, San Francisco and San Diego.

In the meantime, the Bricklayers' Union is flooding the country, say the contractors, with statements that jobs here cost $1 a night and up meals 75 cents and up, that accommodations for families are not to be had at any price, and that local contractors want additional help for only two or three weeks at the most.

The contractors say, is an insult to the entire community, as perhaps 500 union bricklayers could be used here at once and could then be given employment throughout the year. Unless relief is secured soon, the builders assert, other workers will suffer, because they cannot be given finishing jobs unless bricklayers can be had.

TO BUY SITE OF BALLOON SCHOOL.

Would Put Bond Issue on Ballot and Give it to the Government.

A resolution to be prepared by County Counsel Hill will authorize placing on the Presidential ballot a provision for a bond issue to cover the cost of purchasing the Arcadia Balloon School site for the purpose of donating it to the government. The Chamber of Commerce in a letter to the Supervisors yesterday suggested submitting this proposal for a bond issue to the people at the Presidential primary election, naming a sum sufficient to purchase the property.

INFLUENZA SITUATION IS IMPROVING RAPIDLY

BUT PHYSICIANS WARN NOT TO RELAX PRECAUTIONS AGAINST DISEASE.

New cases of influenza reported to the city health department yesterday numbered 112. There were seven deaths from influenza. New cases of pneumonia were fourteen, deaths five.

According to a statement issued by Dr. L. M. Powers, the influenza situation is rapidly improving. For the week ending February 14 there were 2701 cases of influenza and pneumonia, and eighty-eight deaths in the city. The week ending February 21 saw the number of cases reduced to 1791, and the deaths to seventy-four. For the six days ending last night, here were only 798 cases of influenza and pneumonia, and fifty-five deaths reported.

County Health Officer Pomeroy voices the warning that this is no time to relax precautions, simply because the disease is decreasing. The week ending January 31 showed 127 cases in the county. For the week ending February 7 there were 407 cases. For the week ending February 14 there were 501 cases, and for the week ending February 21, only 489 cases. Dr. Pomeroy says that to entirely stamp out the disease the public must continue to exercise precautionary measures for weeks and even months, carefully observing all the laws of health.

WANTED IN LIQUOR CASE.

R. G. Nevius, a worker at the harbor shipyards, was taken into custody yesterday by operators of the Department of Justice, charged with being a fugitive from justice from Denver, Colo. It is stated that Nevius was a member of the Colorado State constabulary, who made a number of arrests in connection with violation of the national prohibition law, and that he failed to obey a summons issued from the Denver court, to give testimony in the cases.

DENIES GUILT IN TRIPS TO WOODS

Miss Cruzen to Take Stand in Van Camp Trial.

Will Admit Eating Lunch in Eucalyptus Grove.

Wife Says Anguish not Due to Plucked Eyebrows.

Miss Ruth Cruzen, stenographer for Frank Van Camp, head of the Van Camp Sea Foods Company, it is said, will admit when she takes the stand in the trial of Mrs. Euphrasia Van Camp's divorce suit against the wealthy business man, that she accompanied Mr. Van Camp to the eucalyptus grove where they ate a light lunch and along the bluffs in San Pedro. These trips, her attorneys say, were taken in daylight and nothing unseemly occurred between the young stenographer and the elderly business man.

Mrs. Van Camp finished her direct evidence yesterday and was closely cross-examined by Attorney R. W. Kemp for Mr. Van Camp, and Attorney Joseph Scott for Miss Cruzen. She had told in her deposition and during direct examination by Attorney John D. Fredericks what she had said to Mr. Van Camp when, accompanied by two detectives, she trailed him to the grove in the company of Miss Cruzen. Mr. Scott asked her to repeat it. She did so while Mr. Scott read her deposition, and at the conclusion of her biting words to both her husband and Miss Cruzen, he seemed convinced that she had not deviated from her story.

Mrs. Van Camp testified that business came first apparently in her husband's life and that is why he is successful. She said his caresses were "matter of habit kisses." She never saw Mr. Van Camp caress Miss Cruzen, but she declared she had seen him shake hands with her once. This she did not think was necessary. Mrs. Van Camp said a Mr. Nelson saw Mr. Van Camp kiss Miss Cruzen, but Mr. Nelson, she admitted, she never saw after he got out of the car the day she trailed her husband.

Mrs. Van Camp described the alleged change in the attitude of her husband toward her.

"He would push me away when I asked him if he loved me," she said. "He came out flat one day and told me he was tired of me. His attitude was indifferent after he took Miss Cruzen out in March, 1918," she said.

Attorney Kemp tried to show that her alleged mental suffering was due to Mr. Van Camp's attention to business and that her sleeplessness was caused by pain following the treatment of her eye-brows by a beauty doctor. But Mrs. Van Camp while admitting a beauty doctor had plucked hairs from her eye-brows, declared her story of sleepless nights due to that cause was "camouflage," designed to conceal the real cause of her suffering. Judge Crail continued the case until Tuesday.

GRAFTON PARENTAL SCHOOL DESTROYED.

INCENDIARY FIRE TRACED TO CAN OF INFLAMMABLE OIL FOUND IN RUINS.

Fire the police say was of incendiary origin destroyed the Grafton Parental School building at 1811 Grafton street, last night.

The school building, a one-story frame structure, caught fire late yesterday evening. No one was in the school at the time. The building was burned to the ground. The damage was estimated by fire department officials at $3000 to the building and $1000 to the contents.

A large can that had contained highly inflammable oil was found in the ruins by firemen. Detectives Bean and Smith were detailed to make an investigation.

QUITS ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

Lyndol L. Young, who has been an attache of the office of U. S. Atty. O'Connor, in connection with the work of the Federal Fair Price Committee, resigned his post yesterday, and the work will be continued, when necessity arises, by Mr. O'Connor. Mr. Young has been connected with the office of the U. S. Attorney ever since he resigned as assistant some months ago, having had charge of the appeal in the Hulett C. Merritt case, which was followed later by his work with the Fair Price Committee.

PREDICT HIGHER CLOTHING PRICES

Retailers in Convention Point to Wholesale Quotations.

Blame Apparel's High Cost on Extravagant Wearers.

Relief for All is Sought Through Co-operation.

Drawing their conclusions from prices which are now being quoted upon fall deliveries, officers and directors of the Retail Clothiers' Association of California, in session here yesterday, predicted that clothing prices will be higher next fall and winter.

H. W. Frank of this city, in discussing the present price of clothing, said that the consumers are largely to blame, because they have, in large degree, developed extravagant tastes. He quoted Morris Rothschild of Chicago as saying: "If the government wants to reduce prices it will have to educate the people to not buy the higher-priced goods. At the request of the government I recently had suits marked at $28.50 which cost $35, and gave them very expensive advertising, and there was no demand for those suits. It was not the fault of the retail man, nor the tailor. It was because the people demanded the high-priced goods."

The association directors met yesterday for the first time since their organization was completed several months ago. In session with them was C. P. Bishon of Salem, Or., president of the retail clothiers of that State. Mr. Frank presided.

Most of the afternoon was devoted to a discussion of labor problems together with co-operation in the hope of being able to reduce the cost of clothing. This subject will be still further discussed today. Officers of the association went on record as being favorable to having all members co-operate with fair price committees.

ALEXANDRIA WAITERS QUIT STRIKE RANKS.

THEIR RETURN TO JOB TODAY MARKS TOTAL FAILURE OF THE WALKOUT HERE.

With the decision yesterday of the Alexandria Hotel waiters to return to work today at the old scale of pay, the actual wind-up of the already broken local waiters' strike began. The employers yielded every point for which they walked out almost two weeks ago.

Following a conference yesterday afternoon between the hotel's officials and a committee from the employees, the employers agreed to take back the men as individuals and to leave a wage settlement to a later date. No one employed during the strike to give service to patrons will be affected by the reemployment, as all will be kept at work.

The men met with officials of the company Thursday and made their demands. At that time they demanded that they be taken back in a body, and that all former employees be given their old places. John J. Hernan, manager of the house, refused to do this, but told them that he would give work to as many as he could. An agreement was finally reached and Mr. Hernan discussed the matter with his associates. Yesterday's settlement resulted.

The hotel will hire all the men who are capable. No one will be barred through prejudice or because of the strike trouble, it was announced. The waiters are to receive $2 a day, as before, and they will appoint a committee to meet with the hotel managers to discuss a wage increase.

By the return, the waiters lose every point for which they struck. The union has not been recognized and no pay increase has been given or promised. The men have lost two weeks' pay and tips ranging from $6 to $15 a day. The hotel lost business during the strike, but Mr. Hernan said last night that the outcome will prevent all future trouble with the waiters.

Y.W.C.A. GOES OVER TOP.

The Y.W.C.A. has made its campaign goal of $100,000, and topped this sum by $229.

This announcement, which followed an enthusiastic gathering of team workers at the association building last night for final reports, was hailed with an outburst of cheers and applause.

Of this amount $96,967 was garnered in subscriptions, and when it was announced that the campaign figures had mounted within $3032 of the big goal, the team captains and workers rallied to the call of Mrs. W. A. Moses, chairman of the campaign Executive Committee, and in less than fifteen minutes the deficit was oversubscribed by a score of team leaders who underwrote the necessary sum to insure the complete success of the campaign.

One of the important factors in the campaign this year has been a special division made up of business and professional women. Under the direction of Miss Nina Maud Richardson and Miss Laura J. Emery these young women, soliciting exclusively from business and professional women, turned in a total of $16,072, or more than 15 per cent. of the entire campaign fund. Of this sum $5102 was reported at last night's meeting.

The general teams at last night's meeting reported a total of $5572, this sum augmenting a subscription of $7814, reported at the regular mid-day gathering, making an aggregate of $13,386 as representing their day's work.

With the close of the campaign last night the high team was that led by Mrs. E. F. Bogardus, accredited with a total subscription of $5319. Mrs. J. G. Warren's team, also in division No. 1, held second place with $4699, while team No. 16, led by Miss Josephine Haldeman, with $4377, stood in third place and led division No. 2. Team No. 15, led by Miss Alice Gastren, achieved fourth place with $4234.

Other teams finished as follows: Team No. 3, Mrs. E. C. Leighton, $4022; team No. 17, Miss Alberta Newton, $2842; team No. 9, Mrs. Edward Merrill, $2397; team No. 19, Mrs. C. H. Richmond, $1931; team No. 7, Mrs. R. A. Green, $1911; team No. 14, Miss Ellen Andrews, $1564; team No. 1, Mrs. George H. Clark, $1750; team No. 4, Mrs. Charles Hare, $1618; team No. 12, Mrs. Harry Culver, $1572; team No. 21, Mrs. May Burdick, $950; team No. 10, Mrs. C. E. Milliken, $894; team No. 18, Mrs. E. T. Bishop, $490; team No. 2, Mrs. C. H. Dick, $166; Mrs. C. S. Crail, $20.

Principals in Strange Heart Tangle Bequeated by the War.

Miss Madeleine Babin and Lee Shippey.

"LOVE ISN'T WRONG," SAYS BABIN GIRL.

Principal in International "Triangle" Sings While She Sews for Expected Baby; Will Follow Little Parisienne, if She Is Deported to France, Writes Former Y.M.C.A. Man Whose Wife Refuses Divorce.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—In a little apartment in this city Madeleine Babin, the tiny French girl who suddenly has sprung into prominence as a principal in an international romance similar yet strongly in contrast to the Spiker case, sings as she sews together baby garments, alternating gay French songs with comforting French hymns. Her mother, Mme. Georges Babin, and her sister, Mlle. Georgette, join with her in the songs. Though they are far from home and in a strange land, and the power of the United States government has been invoked against them, they are confident and happy.

"We have done nothing wrong," says Madeleine. "It is not wrong to love. Every Sunday we go to church and promise God we will do nothing wrong. We try to do only what is right, and so we know He will help us, and we shall be victorious."

The man in the case, Lee Shippey, writer and ex-Y.M.C.A. war worker, now in Los Angeles, has confessed to his wife that he loves Madeleine and has asked the wife to divorce him, so that he can give a name to the expected child. Instead, Mrs. Shippey has appealed to the government, asking that Madeleine be deported.

The case is now in the hands of the Federal authorities. But Madeleine is not dismayed. She puts her faith in the fact that though perhaps her love was wrong in the first place, she has since done all that she could to make it a holy thing.

"I have just come from church," she wrote to Mr. Shippey Friday, "and I feel so happy and comforted. I promised Our Lady we would consecrate our little one to her, and I feel sure all will be for the best. You must not worry, husband of my heart."

WILL GO WITH HER.

If Madeleine should be deported, however, Mr. Shippey wrote her he either will bring her back, as soon as he can legally do so, or he will go to France to her.

"Surely if they banish my flesh and blood from America," he wrote, "they will not deny me the right to go to France to see my child."

Madeleine's 22 years have been full of trouble, yet her heart is full of happiness because of the faith that is in her. A few years ago all she knew of the world was what she learned inside a convent's walls and on carefully chaperoned visits to the seashore every summer. Her parents treated her and her sister always as children.

Then the war came and her father had to leave his prosperous Paris shop to serve as a private for five years. He had to sacrifice the shop, and his pay as a soldier was only 5 cents a day.

Still, they kept brave and cheerful. They were deeply religious, and believed everything was in God's hands.

"You will see," they told each other. "Soon it will pass, and everything will be for the best."

PLAN TO EMIGRATE.

When their father died in service they began to plan to come to America. Americans for whom they had worked told them they could prosper in this country, and their gratitude to the American soldiers for coming in France's hour of need had inspired in them a romantic love for this country.

Chief among those American friends was Lee Shippey, the Kansas City man now living in Los Angeles, who was in Y.M.C.A. work in France and with whom Madeleine is now linked in the triangle.

Mr. Shippey helped both girls get positions as interpreters for the Y.M.C.A., where all their American associates admired and respected them.

AVOID RISQUE PARIS

Every Sunday and holiday and many a long summer evening they visited historic or beautiful places in or near Paris. The Babins knew nothing of the risque side of Paris.

When Mr. Shippey had to return to America, Madeleine was philosophical.

"It is only an ocean between us," she said, "and what is that to love like ours. Something will happen—you will see."

SHE CROSSES OCEAN.

Something did happen, almost immediately. In less than a month, Madeleine had an offer of a place as a French teacher in Oregon and was on the way to America.

Madeleine arrived in America very ill and knew for the first time that she was to become a mother. Then some of her money was stolen, leaving her without enough to go to Oregon. She came to Kansas City, riding all the way in a chair car. There the French Consul told her it would be all right for her to stay as long as she obeyed the laws. She advertised for pupils and, sick though she was, in two days was earning her living. She wrote her mother and sister that she was there, ill, and they were allowed to come to America on her account.

TO AID MERCHANT MARINE.

At a banquet given in honor of Southern California shipbuilders by Stephenson Taylor, president of the American Bureau of Shipping, last night, John Craig, Sr., of Long Beach, one of the pioneer shipbuilders of the Pacific Coast, voiced the opinion that the country's merchant marine could lead the world if the country would give it the support an infant institution needs and deserves.

He expressed the belief that England will shortly be building a good share of her boats in this country because of cheaper materials and better industrial conditions, and drew attention to the fact that England has already contracted for the building of fifteen great oil tankers in the United States this year.

He says letting any other country run the shipping to which we are entitled is as Lincoln thought about sending to England for a pair of $10 pants. He said it was a legitimate transaction and would give him the pants and England the $10, but that if he bought the pants here he'd have the $10 as well as the pants.

J. A. McAllister, a vice-president of the bureau, said that seventeen nationalities are now represented in the crews of our ships and that 52 per cent. of the men aboard our boats owe their allegiance to other flags. He declared it is time for us to plan, build, insure and operate the boats of this country under some such classification society as the American Bureau of Shipping, which is characterized as the Lloyd's of America.

FUNERAL NOTICE BURGLARS' CUE.

Thieves Ransack Home While Family Attends Service.

Silver, Jewelry, Clothes are Carted Away in Auto.

And now the funeral notice burglar!

After learning by telephone that the family would be absent for several hours while attending a funeral, burglars ransacked the home of Williams C. Martin, 1818 North New Hampshire avenue, and took jewelry and silverware valued at more than $1500. The theft was discovered late yesterday afternoon.

According to Police Detectives McMahan and Dryden, who investigated, Mrs. Martin was called to the telephone yesterday morning and asked by a man, who refused to give his name, if she was going to attend a funeral. Mrs. Martin, thinking that the person telephoning must be some friend, told him the body of her mother, Mrs. John G. Webster, would be moved from the house at 10 a.m.

Just after the funeral party left the Martin residence, neighbors told the police, two men rang the front door bell there. After standing on the porch some time, the men went to the rear of the house. The police found that the burglars cut their way through a rear door and ransacked the house from top to bottom. They are believed to have taken away their loot in an automobile.

Although the police were unable to secure a full list of the articles stolen, they know that a large amount of solid silverware, some jewelry and a quantity of clothing were taken.

No description of the burglars could be secured.

UPHOLDS ZONE LAW.

Ordinance on Undertaking Areas Found Constitutional.

The State Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the constitutionality of the city ordinance establishing zones for the location of the undertaking business. The law was attacked by W. A. Brown, who built just outside the original zone comprising approximately sixty city blocks. Later on other zones were erected, but in one instance consisted only of the lot on which the Brown establishment was located. Mr. Brown claimed that the city, in the exercise of its police power, did not have the right to restrict the business, and that the making of one-lot zones was discriminatory.

The Supreme Court finds the city has the right to keep the business in one district, and that Mr. Brown failed to show the one-lot zone system is discriminatory.

PASTORS' MEETING ENDS.

Inter-Church Movement Aims Made Clear by Organization Speakers.

The three-day pastors' conference on the Inter-Church World Movement of North America closed yesterday afternoon with a general session at the First United Presbyterian Church. Meetings by denominations were held yesterday morning at various downtown churches. These meetings were also attended by the Woman's Training Conference, a branch of the world movement, which has been in session at the First English Lutheran Church.

The aims and scope of the movement and the task that faces the Protestant churches in carrying on missionary activities have been told in detail by a team of forceful speakers representing the organization. More than 1000 church pastors, representing eleven counties and virtually all the evangelical denominations, have heard the speakers and are prepared to transmit the forceful messages of the conference to their congregations.

Crowded auditoriums, concentrated effort and keen interest marked all the sessions of the conference which was, in many respects, the most remarkable religious gathering in the history of Los Angeles. The responsibility of the church in missionary and benevolent work, the successes that have been achieved and the failure of church members to realize or meet their obligations as Christians was told by speakers who know their subjects thoroughly and who presented them eloquently and convincingly.

The speakers undertook to present the whole great subject in full and in detail and succeeded, by rapid fire and skilfully condensed oratory in making every hour do the work of several. A marked awakening in the churches of Southern California is confidently predicted as a direct outcome of the conference.

TO DISCUSS HICKSON.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

"What shall we do when we are sick? Shall we call a doctor, a so-called healer—or shall we pray?" These are among the questions to be asked and answered by Dr. Charles Edward Locke in his evening sermon tomorrow at the First Methodist Church, Trinity Auditorium. Dr. Locke also announces that he will discuss the questions of whether or not God sends disease and whether Mr. Hickson's visit to Los Angeles resulted in good or harm. He will also talk on "Some Victims of Christian Science." A brief address on "How to Stop the Divorce Evil" will be made by Judge Charles H. Crail, who presides over the divorce department of the Superior Court. In the morning Dr. Locke will preach on the subject, "One Shall Become a Thousand."

"OUIJA BOARD OR GOD."

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

"Shall We Consult the Ouija Board or God?" This is the question to be discussed at the Temple Baptist Church tomorrow evening by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher and B. M. Cunning, a noted magician. Both Dr. Brougher and Mr. Cunning have promised to give demonstrations of spiritualistic and occult fakes and to show how "the spirits" talk. At the morning service Dr. Brougher will discuss the question, "Are Those Who See Visions and Hear Voices Crazy or Inspired?" Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, who has taken an active part in the Inter-Church World Movement Conference in Los Angeles, will make a brief address. Music for the services tomorrow will be furnished by Miss Margaret McKee, Miss Nell Lockwood, Emory Foster and the vested choir.

ON PROFITEERING.

WESTLAKE METHODIST.

According to Rev. Thomas G. Grieves, pastor of the Westlake Methodist Episcopal Church, many of the "lower downs" are as guilty of the sin of profiteering as are a few of the "higher ups," and in his sermon tomorrow evening on "Profiteering and Solomon's Advice Concerning It," Mr. Grieves will direct his remarks to "the man in the street," as well as to the "frenzied financiers." In the morning Mr. Grieves will preach on "I.M.N. and I.M.S." Next Monday evening the Sunday-school board will give a dinner at the church and on Tuesday evening the church quarterly conference will be held. At the conference meeting Rev. Byron D. Wilson, D.D., will preside.

"IS BROTHERHOOD A DREAM?"

CHURCH OF THE PEOPLE.

"Is Human Brotherhood an Irridescent Dream?" This will be the question to be discussed by Reynold E. Blight before the Church of the People tomorrow morning. In a prelude Mr. Blight will discuss the question, "Will Mental Healing Make the Medical Profession Obsolete?" Next Wednesday evening Dr. Frederick Finch Strong will give a free lecture on "Our Sleeping Selves" in Blanchard Hall. Another address, free to the public, will be that given by B. P. Wadia in Blanchard Hall next Friday evening, the subject of the lecture being "Zoroaster and His Religion."

"CAPITAL AND LABOR."

IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN.

Ex-Senator George W. Cartwright will speak at Immanuel Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening. Mr. Cartwright will speak on "The Commercial Federation of California," an organization formed for the purpose of bringing about a better understanding between employees and employers. The service will be featured by a special musical service under direction of William James Chick. At the morning hour Dr. Herbert Botoh Smith will preach on "Resources and Responsibilities," in preparation for the annual every member canvass.

BISHOP CRANSTON.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH.

Bishop Earl Cranston, the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, one of the most picturesque figures in the ecclesiastical field of America, will supply the pulpit at the Trinity Methodist Church tomorrow morning. Bishop Cranston, who was good-naturedly dubbed "the Pope of Washington" by William Howard Taft, is expected to have something to say on the subject of the unification of the two branches of Methodism, he being a conspicuous leader in the movement for organic unity. Tomorrow evening Dr. C. C. Selecman will preach on "The Passion for Souls," and will outline Trinity's campaign to win 700 members by Easter Sunday. Musical programmes will be rendered at the morning and evening services by the quartette consisting of Miss May A. Trude, Mrs. Alma K. Moss and Messrs. G. Haydn Jones and J. Ben Wheatley.

"DO NOT MARRY!"

WESTLAKE PRESBYTERIAN.

"Do not buy, sell, build or marry; the Lord may come at any moment." This is the subject to be discussed by Dr. G. A. Briegleb in a sermon at the Westlake Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening. In his discourse, Dr. Briegleb will undertake to answer the following questions: "Were the early disciples deceived in looking for an immediate return of Christ? Will Christ's return to earth be a literal, physical one? Is the world growing better or worse? Does the doctrine concerning the kingdom of God relate to the present, or is it still future? Ought not ardent believers in Christ's personal return, who hold the premillennial position, in all fairness, relinquish temporal business and property interests, and, following the logic of their position, cease accumulating the things of the earth, such as interest, dividends, larger salaries, etc.? When carried to its conclusion, does not belief in the doctrine of Christ's personal return at any moment stultify Christian endeavor and service?" In the morning Dr. Briegleb will preach on "How Saints May Help Hte Devil," a sermon of life investments.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Music lovers of Los Angeles will have an opportunity to hear some of the best compositions of local musicians at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, when the organist and the new quartette will demonstrate the fact that this city is the home of many brilliant composers, whose work has already been recognized in Europe as well as in America. Dr. Hugh K. Walker will preach a brief sermon on "A New Appreciation of Life in Los Angeles," in which he will invoice some of the hidden and unsuspected resources on which this city may hope to realize in the near future. In the morning Dr. Walker will preach a Lenten sermon on "The Real Apostolic Succession."

IN CHURCHES TOMORROW.

g a speaking tour in the interests f the Layman's League, a recent ganization among the men of the ptist churches. Ex-President ilson is one of the prime movers as ll as a prominent official of the ional organization. Mr. and Mrs. dgin will go by the southern route, opping in New Orleans and Washton city. After two weeks in New rk and other cities, Dr. Hodgin ll fill appointments in Minneapis, Sioux City, Iowa City, Des oines, Omaha, Lincoln, Topeka d Wichita, arriving home about e middle of April. During Dr. dgin's absence the pulpit of the rst Unitarian Church will be supied by Rev. O. J. Fairchild of ng Beach, Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin and Dr. R. E. Ramsey of Los geles and Rev. H. B. Bard of San go.

MRS. MONTGOMERY TO SPEAK.
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

In connection with the interchurch conference held here this week Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery will remain in Los Angeles over Sunday in order to address a mass meeting of members of all the local Baptist churches at 2:45 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Baptist Church. Dr. James A. Francis will be in charge of both regular services at the church tomorrow, preaching in the morning on "What Can We Do In a World of Fixed Laws?" and in the evening on "Present World Conditions and the Kingdom of God." In the auditorium Bible class tomorrow morning Walter Scott will continue the series of studies in Ephesians, the subject for tomorrow's lesson being "The Great Prayer."

PRE-EASTER SERMONS.
UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

Dr. C. Ellwood Nash, pastor of the Universalist Church, will preach a series of pre-Easter sermons on the general subject, "The Christ-Dream Realized on Earth." The topics of the discourses and the dates on which they are to be given are as follows: February 29, "A World Grappling With Life and Joy;" March 7, "A World Tense with Energy and Power;" March 14, "A World of Failures and Efficients;" March 21, "A World of Comrades and Servers;" March 28, "A World of Vision and Thrill;" April 4, "A World of Advance and Ascent."

TO START HEALING CLASS.
FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Without committing themselves to any special method of healing, members of the First Christian Church have announced their intention of inaugurating a "Christian Health and Healing Class" at the church next Wednesday evening. That both the members and the pastor, Rev. Edgar Fay Daugherty, are greatly interested in the subject of healing, as related to Christian service, is evident from the fact that Mr. Daugherty will preach tomorrow morning on the topic, "Divine Healings." In the evening Mr. Daugherty will discuss the subject, "Practical Religion." The Christian ministers of Southern California will meet at the First Christian Church at 10:30 o'clock next Monday morning. The missionary women of the church will hold an all-day meeting next Tuesday.

PASTORS EXCHANGE PULPITS.
WILSHIRE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Prominent pastors of the Wilshire district will exchange pulpits tomorrow morning, this being a part of the programme of preparation for the union evangelistic campaign which will start March 7 at the Wilshire Methodist Church. Those to exchange pulpits are Revs. B. V. Black, John Albert Eby, M. Howard Fagan and J. Hall. The pastors have agreed to use the same subject, "The First Gift," and to discuss the same general theme. The feature of the programme is that no Wilshire congregation will know who is to be the preacher for tomorrow until he enters the pulpit. Tomorrow evening Rev. M. Howard Fagan will preach at the Wilshire-Boulevard Christian Church on "The Great Judgment Day."

"STREET CALLED STRAIGHT."
ST. PAUL'S PRO-CATHEDRAL.

Shakespeare said, "There are sermons in stones," but better sermons are to be found in moving pictures, according to Rev. William MacCormack, who yesterday announced his intention to preach at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral tomorrow evening on "The Street Called Straight," a photo-drama founded on Basil King's popular novel. In his discourse Dr. MacCormack will answer the following questions: "Ought a man always to obey his conscience? Is honesty the best policy? Does the devil take care of his own?" In the morning Dr. MacCormack will continue his series of sermons on "Great Men of the Bible," preaching tomorrow on "Lot, the Middle-of-the-Road Man."

"MESSAGES FROM BEYOND."
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

Rev. Holland F. Burr, at the invitation of Dr. Carl S. Patton, will supply the pulpit of the First Congregational Church tomorrow morning, preaching on the subject, "The Family as a Means of Grace." In the evening Dr. Patton will conclude his sermon series on psychic subjects by discussing Oliver Lodge's "Raymond." Next Thursday at 3 o'clock the women of the neighborhood circles will meet with the following hostesses: Mrs. Hicks, 138 East Avenue 55; Mrs. Stearns, 915 Bonnie Brae; Mrs. Chase, 426 South Burlington; Mrs. Norris, social hall of the church; Mrs. Laird, 1539 West Eighth street; Mrs. Buchanan, 2416 West Ninth street; Mrs. Tiel, 1542 Fourth avenue; Mrs. Miller, 203 West Vernon avenue; Mrs. McQuaid, 2443 Fifth avenue; Mrs. Railsback, 504 South Oxford.

RETIRE SERVICE FLAG.
WILSHIRE PRESBYTERIAN.

An interesting programme has been planned for tomorrow evening at the Wilshire Presbyterian Church, when the service flag of the church will be retired with appropriate services. The meeting will be in charge of the church brotherhood, Lieut. B. R. Fitts will preside and Dr. H. N. Wieman of Occidental College will speak on "The Investment of a Life." In the morning Dr. John Albert Eby will join with other pastors of the Wilshire district in a general exchange of pulpits.

SCENES FROM PALESTINE.
PLYMOUTH CONGREGATIONAL.

Dr. George A. Andrews, pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, who is preaching a series of descriptive sermons suggested by scenes from the life of Christ, will take for his topic tomorrow evening, "Jesus at the River Jordan." Dr. Andrews will give a description of the Jordan, of John the Baptist, of the method of baptism and of other scenes and people of the days of long ago. In the morning Dr. Andrews will preach on "Under Compulsion." Music for both services tomorrow will be furnished by the Plymouth Chorus, the church quartette and by Charles Schweitzer and Mrs. Warren Rogers.

FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF.
BIBLE INSTITUTE.

A mass meeting of the Near East Relief Association will be held at the Bible Institute at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when the principal speakers will be Dr. J. H. T. Main, president of Grinnell College, Iowa, and M. B. Irvine of Los Angeles. At the morning service in the Church of the Open Door, Dr. R. A. Torrey will preach on "The Real Christ" and in the evening Dr. Ralph Atkinson will take for his theme, "Is a Young Man Safe in Los Angeles?" Music for all services tomorrow will be furnished by the chorus choir, the Men's Glee Club and the Bible Institute Male Quartette.

"WORDS FROM THE CROSS."
KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

That the nonritualistic churches do not ordinarily pay sufficient attention to the Lenten season is the opinion voiced yesterday by Rev. Leslie Logue Boyd, pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church. The second of a series of sermons on "Christ's Words from the Cross" will be preached by Mr. Boyd tomorrow evening, the special topic being "Christ's Word to the Repentant Thief." At the morning service Mr. Boyd will preach on "The Church and the Children."

CHURCH NOTES.

Following are the announcements of subjects to be discussed in sermons by Los Angeles ministers tomorrow:

"Spiritualism—Do the Dead Speak to the Living?" is the topic of a sermon by Rev. W. F. Richardson at the Hollywood Christian Church tomorrow evening. "This discourse will be the first of a series on religious fads and heresies," said Mr. Richardson yesterday. At the morning service Mr. Richardson will preach on "What Shall I Make of Myself?"

"The Constituents of God" and "Why Men Go Wrong" are the sermon subjects for tomorrow morning and evening, respectively, by Rev. J. M. Richards at Temple Auditorium, headquarters of the Pico Heights Congregational Church.

"Loyalty to the Church," is the subject to be treated in a sermon by Rev. Herbert E. Hays at the West Hollywood Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning. In the evening Henry M. Shafer, general superintendent of city schools, will speak on "Americanization."

Dr. Willis Hott Hott, will preach at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood tomorrow morning on the theme, "Making Christ Master of All Realms." The subject for evening will be "Shallows or Depths?"

"Paul Unto Sin, but Unto God" is the sermon subject of Dr. John Snape, at the Hollywood Baptist Church tomorrow morning. In the evening Rev. W. F. Harper will preach on "A New Chapter in the New Acts of the Apostles."

Rev. W. F. Manly will speak on "Echoes from the Pastors' Conference" at Berean Congregational Church, tomorrow morning. The sermon topic for evening will be "Why I Believe in Revivals."

Vocation day services will be conducted at the Union Congregational Church tomorrow evening when brief addresses will be made by Prof. Calvin Williams, Dr. S. S. Bickford and Rev. E. Sinclair Smith. In the morning Mr. Smith will preach on "The Churches Awakened by Better Times." Members of the church are congratulating Miss Abbie N. Smith, author of numerous popular stories for children, on her winning of the prize offered by the Bethlehem League in the short story contest.

Mrs. Margaret C. Lindquist, pastor of the First Emerson New Thought Church, will give a lecture on "After Death—What?" in the assembly room of the Hotel Alexandria, tomorrow morning.

"The Next Hundred Thousand" is the subject of sermons by Rev. Marcus P. McClure, of the First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, tomorrow morning. In the evening, a special service for the installation of young people's officers will be held and an address on "The New Crusade" will be delivered by Sanford Kellogg.

"The Great God" and "Ring Ought" are the sermon topics for tomorrow morning and evening, respectively, by Rev. W. E. Tilson, D.D., at the Lake Avenue Methodist Church of Pasadena.

The Broadway Christian Church revival services, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Arthur W. Hicks, and the Organ Evangelistic Company of Des Moines, Ia., will close tomorrow night. During the series of services, seventeen new members have been added to the church.

HOMES

On Monthly Terms

Amounting to No More Than You'd Pay in Rent for the Same Living Advantages—

IT IS HARD TO BELIEVE that anyone would worry along with exorbitant rents, when there are homes like these at Walnut Park so reasonably priced and offered on such easy terms of payment. Walnut Park offers so much more of the real joy of living than can be found in the shut-in city districts. Thousands of fragrant flowers, miles of green lawns, hundreds of big shade trees (full-bearing walnut trees on every lot), wide boulevards with green parkways and ornamental electrolliers, cosy homes on every side—everything that the most exacting home buyer could require.

Free Auto Excursion

Bus leaves 507 South Olive Street tomorrow, 11 a.m. Free luncheon specially prepared by the Russian Tea Room. No lecture. Other excursions Tuesday and Thursday.

Prices are based on the cost of materials purchased six months ago—not on present costs. Large home-sites for as little as $775. See the new homes of "modernized adobe" construction—the only homes of this type in America. Go as our guests, if you are interested, or if you prefer take Huntington Park car on Main street going south (5-cent fare) and get off at Walnut Park—or drive south to Slauson avenue, east to Long Beach boulevard, then south a few blocks to tract office. The new Model Home is now open to the public.

CONTRACTOR IS INDICTED.

Two indictments were returned yesterday by the county grand jury before Presiding Judge Waller.

One is against W. H. Holder, a former contractor and builder of Long Beach, who, in two counts, is accused of embezzlement. The indictment charges that Holder contracted to build a house for Soren Norgaard and one for H. E. Scholl; that he received $2100 cash and $1000 in Liberty Bonds from Mr. Norgaard, to pay bills, but paid out only $500, and that he received $2000 from Mr. Scholl and paid out only $600.

Holder is now under arrest at Colorado Spring, Colo. A county detective will be sent there to bring him here for trial.

John Imber, alias John Jones sentenced May 24, 1917, to six years in Folsom prison for burglary, was indicted for injuring a jail, a felony. The charge is based on Imber's escape from the County Jail May 28, 1917. He was recently arrested at New Orleans, the last to be caught of four prisoners who escaped at the same time.

The grand jury will convene again Monday.

THOMPSON BAR BAN IS LIFTED.

Lawyer in Mail Fraud Case may Again Practice.

Learned Thief's Secret, Only to Rifle Money Cache.

Action Means Job for Once Well-Known Attorney.

The ban of disbarment has been lifted from Fred H. Thompson, the attorney involved in the Altorre postal theft case, by Department No. 1, District Court of Appeal, after many failures on the part of Thompson and his friends to secure such action, the order being entered upon the records of the court, yesterday.

The conviction of Thompson on the charge of concealing certain funds that had been stolen from the Los Angeles postoffice was a local cause celebre ten years ago. He, with his wife, Etta M. Thompson, was indicted by the Federal grand jury, July, 1910, for hiding and appropriating to themselves $15,000 in money, that had been stolen from the Los Angeles postoffice by Orlando T. Altorre, better known as Orator W. Smith, a colored clerk in the employ of the office. The money was in transit from one of the local banks to a correspondent in Bisbee, Ariz.

Thompson was sentenced to eight years in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island, four years on each of the two counts, and to pay a fine of $1000 on each count. His wife was never tried. After Thompson had served a portion of his time, his sentence was commuted by President Wilson to five years. He was sentenced by Judge Wellborn, January 3, 1912.

While in prison, Thompson had one of his legs amputated, and after his release he drifted to Seattle, with his family, where he has since been connected with a legal firm, who agreed to keep him in their employ if he was allowed to practice.

The testimony showed that after Altorre had retained Thompson to defend him on the charge of embezzlement, he told his attorney where the money was hidden in an out-house on the rear of the lot occupied by the old mother of Altorre on the west side, and that Thompson went to the cache and took every dollar of the stolen money. It was asserted that Thompson's wife accompanied him on this trip, but this was never proved.

With plenty of money, Thompson bought a high-powered automobile, spent a roll of his "gains" at the Johnson-Jeffries fight in Reno and made a general tour of the country, it seems.

SAYS SPOUSE BEAT HER.

Alleging that her husband, Samuel E. Porter, beat her and called her names, Mrs. Lenora Porter, in a suit for separate maintenance yesterday, asks for an allowance of $200 a month for the support of herself and four children. Mr. Porter, a salesman for a musical instrument house, is said to earn $400 a month.

DRIVERS PRIMED FOR THE START.

Eighteen of the World's Best Motor-Car Pilots at the Wheels of Speediest Machines Set for the Los Angeles Speedway Race.

At a late hour last night the speedway management announced that the 250-mile event scheduled for today would positively be held unless a terrific downpour of rain should occur to flood the infield. The fast board saucer itself will be in condition regardless of weather and only a near-cloudburst will be regarded as cause for another postponement.

Eighteen spluttering speed demons will start promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the 250-mile scramble for $25,000 on the board speedway at Beverly Hills. Every one of the eighteen has sizzled around the mile and a quarter track at better than 100 miles an hour, Jimmy Murphy in his Duesenberg leading the procession with a lap around the lumber loop in just a trifle over 39 seconds, or at the rate of 115 miles an hour.

VERY FASTEST.

The practice and the time trials on the big tureen have demonstrated that the Beverly course is absolutely the fastest thing of its kind in the country, while the class of the eighteen drivers who have survived the elimination trials is a guarantee that the competition will be warm enough to bring perspiration to the brow of an undertaker. The course is terribly fast and the cars are even faster, while there is enough rivalry between the various drivers to make the thing interesting if they were wheeling baby carriages instead of sitting at the helm of a two-mile-a-minute thunderbolt.

The final trials on Thursday brought out a lot of speed that had been overlooked in the previous tests. The Duesenberg pilots seemed to have a slight edge on the field, but it was so slight that you could hardly shove a razor blade between the cars. Ralph de Palma's beautiful Ballot showed a wonderful lot of speed, and the Frontenacs, Chevrolets and other contestants were so close on the tail of the leaders that there is only some four seconds difference between the first car and the eighteenth.

FULL OF THRILLS.

When it comes to thrills, the big wooden merry-go-round has a race riot skinned to death, as the cars are so close and traveling so fast that it scarcely seems possible to the uninitiated that eighteen cars can make even one trip around the big bowl without becoming hopelessly scrambled. The course is just barely wide enough for four cars abreast, and with eighteen determined gents battling for the lead at one and the same time, the course should be a trifle congested, to say the least.

No better drivers than will be competing today have ever been herded into a single event. A dozen demon pilots, with records which run back a number of years, will face the starter prepared to try anything to win. Smiling Ralph Mulford was a champion fifteen years ago and seems to be every bit as good right now as in the old days, when at the wheel of a Lozier he won at Savannah and on other eastern courses.

WHO WILL WIN?

Who will be the winner? Will it be the veteran, Ralph de Palma, in his cream-colored beauty, the Ballot Special? Or will it be the debonair Tommy Milton, or his Duesenberg partner, Jimmy Murphy, who broke Milton's track record in Thursday's eliminations? Ralph Mulford, driving the Duesenberg-motored Meteor Special, is another star among stars. All four of the Frontenac cars are fast, Joe Thomas, who is independent of the Frontenac team, having hung up the fastest time of the four.

The others, Joe Boyer, Roscoe Sarles and Ken Goodson, have all made good averages, and barring breakdowns, should stack up well in the money.

REEVES DUTTON.

Then there is Reeves Dutton, the Stutz pilot, who is one of the most consistent performers of them all. Eddie Hearne and "Cliff" Durant, Chevrolet team-mates, are also steady workers, and will depend upon consistent rate of speed throughout the race, rather than upon sprints and spurts.

Bert Klein, Peugeot pilot, is expected to furnish quite a few of the thrills of the day. His car is one of the swiftest of the bunch, and has a rakish way of skidding at times. He is a heady driver, and has a way of always pulling out of tight places and thus averting many possible smashups.

MANY OF 'EM.

Then there is Ira Vail in the Philbrin Special. Vail will be remembered as one of the drivers who smashed up with Dutton in the last Ascot. Bennett Hill, pilotting the White Special, another Duesenberg-motored speed wagon, is looked upon by many as the dark horse of the race. He is expected to pull up into the lead or close to it before the race is half over.

Never has there been such a fast field's famous Golden Submarine, all fore. No wonder all roads lead to Beverly Hills and the new speedway today.

EXPERT MECHANICS TO SIT AT SIDE OF DEMON DRIVERS TODAY.

Little is said of the men who sit beside the famous pilots during a great race such as today's on the new Beverly Hills Speedway, and few people realize just how important it is that these expert mechanics keep alert and cool headed throughout the long grind to the finish. Failure of a "mech" properly to adjust the mechanisms of a high-powered car before a contest, poor judgment in his wodk during the race itself, or nervousness during a close call, have often spelled failure or a crash for both pilot and mechanic.

Just as the present race has attracted the cream of the driving talent, so has it drawn to the new Los Angeles course the best mechanics in the country. Several of the "mechs" have records of which they can be proud, as pilots. Among these are Joe Thomas's mechanic, Bennett Hill, who is expected to pilot one of John White's cars today. If he does Thomas will have to hunt up a substitute "mech" right away.

SPECIAL CAR.

Ernie Amsterberg, Joe Boyer's "accompanist," is making his farewell appearance as a "mech" today. Louis Chevrolet is building up a special car for him, and he will start out as a full-fledged pilot shortly after the present race.

Another pilot-mechanic of note is Harry Hartz, national junior champion, who will work with Eddie Hearne in the big event. Hartz won fame in light-car racing as a pilot and is one of the most efficient big-car mechanics in the game.

ONE OF VETS.

Freddie Comer, "Cliff" Durant's mechanic, is one of the veterans at the gasoline game. He has ridden on every track, dirt or board, in the country, and has made the cross-country run for a number of years.

Eddie Pullen has changed "horses," but plans to keep C. V. Pickup as his mechanic. Pickup, formerly an army aviator, is now chief pilot at the Durant flying establishment at Oakland, and this will be his first auto race. Pickup has had a romantic life, having enlisted in the famous Fourth United States Cavalry at 17, and the speedway life will be just another brand of excitement for him. There is a slight possibility, however, of W. W. Brown, entrant of the Richards Special that Pullen is to drive, riding the race out as Pullen's seat-mate.

SEAT WITH SARLES.

John Breshnahan, Gaston Chevrolet's old racing partner, will be in the seat with Roscoe Sarles of the Frontenac team. He is another of the real vets of the game.

Peter de Paola, like his pilot—Ralph de Palma—hails from Italy, but like De Palma has spent most of his time in this country, and has grown up in the racing game. He has been with De Palma in a number of races.

Carl Kieft, who will "mech" for John de Palma, has had experience with John's brother, Ralph, with the late Bob Burman and with "Papa Louis" Chevrolet.

"MECH" FOR TOMMY.

Eddie Miller, who campaigned with Dave Lewis last year, will sit alongside of Ralph Mulford. George Crummey will "mech" for Tommy Milton, and Jimmy Murphy will be accompanied by his partner of last year, Lyall Jolls—which disposes of three of the fastest "carloads" entered.

John H. Nicholas will ride with Waldo Stein in the Oldfield Special; Reeves Dutton's Stutz-mate will be Jimmy Crosby; Art Klein has annexed the services of S. A. Elmore; Norman Etges will "mech" Goodson's Frontenac; Ernie Olsen is to be Ira Vail's mechanic in the Philbrin Special; Arthur Austria has been named as Toledo Nicholson's "mech," and Eddie Hefferman, who formerly rode with Nicholson, will again ride in a Hudson Special, but this time with Eddie O'Donell as pilot.

SCORING AND TIMING OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

SPEEDWAY RACE TO HAVE ADVANTAGE OF INDIANAPOLIS DEVICE.

Few spectators at a great race, such as that which will mark the opening of the new Beverly Hills Speedway today realize what a complicated system is necessary for the accurate recording of the results of an event of this kind.

Nothing is of greater importance to the success of a big race than its accurate scoring and timing. The Indianapolis timing device, one of the only three in existence has been brought to Los Angeles for use in the race, which will mark the opening of the new speedway here. T. E. Myers, general manager of the Indianapolis Speedway; Chester S. Ricker, A.A.A. representative for Indiana, and Otis Porter, his principal assistant, together with a crew of timers and scorers have come all the way from Indianapolis to insure exact accuracy in the matter of timing and scoring the great event.

Starting is also a much more important proposition than just waving a flag. The starter is responsible for the smooth running of the entire race. Frank Lowry, official starter for next Saturday's speedway event, has been connected with the racing game ever since 1904, a record he shares with Ralph de Palma, Red Lime and Fred Wagner. He has officiated at the Vanderbilt cup and Grand Prix races at Long Island, at the Vanderbilt cup and Grand Prix events at Savannah, Ga., and the Santa Monica and Elgin road races, and at every other speedway or dirt track, regardless of size, in the United States, Canada and Cuba, as well as at such famous beach courses as Daytona-Ormond in Florida, Galveston, Tex., and Orchard Beach, Me.

Each flag used by the starter has a different meaning, their explanation being as follows:

Yellow, blocked course; stop.
Green, you are entering last lap.
White, stop at pits for consultation.
Black and white checkered, you are finished.

NEAT SUMS FOR THE WINNERS.

Twenty-five thousand dollars—the biggest purse ever offered in a Western racing event of any kind—will be divided between the drivers who finish from first to tenth in the great 250-mile race today, which is to mark the opening of the new Beverly Hills Speedway.

First prize	$10,000
Second prize	6,000
Third prize	3,000
Fourth prize	2,000
Fifth prize	1,000
Sixth prize	800
Seventh prize	700
Eighth prize	600
Ninth prize	500
Tenth prize	400

FEDERAL JURY INDICTS JACKS.

Heavyweight Champ Charged with Draft Dodging.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—William Harrison (Jack) Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns, were indicted by the Federal grand jury here today on a charge that they conspired to have Dempsey evade the selective draft. A second indictment was returned against Dempsey charging actual evasion of the draft.

Warrants were sworn out for their arrest and their bonds fixed at $1000 each. The conspiracy charge provides for a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment and $2000 fine and the evasion charge one year in prison.

AGAINST WISH.

The indictment followed weeks of investigation by E. M. Blanford, chief of the Department of Justice bureau of investigation, and Col. C. W. Thomas, assistant United States District Attorney here. The investigation followed charges by Maxine Dempsey, divorced wife of the pugilist, that she had been compelled against her wish to attest to Dempsey's claims for exemption.

Subsequently Mrs. Dempsey presented an affidavit to Col. Thomas in which she retracted the charges, saying that they had been caused by pique against Dempsey. Mrs. Dempsey, Frank Spellman, a representative of a company in which Dempsey is interested, a number of sporting characters and executives of the draft board, which exempted Dempsey, appeared before the jury.

Federal officials said they were advised that Dempsey and Kearns would arrive here tomorrow and surrender themselves.

SWEARS FALSELY.

Dempsey was charged with having falsely sworn that his father, mother, widowed sister, and her two children were dependent on him, that he had contributed $20 a month each to their support during the year 1917, and that they were receiving support from no other source.

Dempsey's statement to the draft board that his wife had lived with him for eighteen months previous Athletes Ready for Relay Carnival Today.

TO RUN MEET RAIN OR SHINE.

Dopesters Concede One-Mile Race to U.S.C. Lads.

The annual A.A.U. relay carnival will be held on the Occidental track this afternoon as scheduled, irrespective of rain last night or this morning. If it is raining after 12, noon, today, and gives promise of continuing, the meet will be postponed.

Graduate Manager Harold Dryden of Occidental made the announcement last night after making a survey of the sky and observing the deadened complexion of the clouds. "Cloudy weather won't force a postponement," he said. "Even rain this morning won't sog the track so bad it can't be run on.

TRACK IS FAST.

"The track is fast," he went on to say, "and nothing but a deluge will slow it up. If the runners are in any kind of shape there are possibilities that records will be crushed."

The dopesters have been busy the past few days figuring the chances of the respective college relay runners. They have it all chalked up that U.S.C. will take the eight-man one-mile relay, Redlands the four-man two-mile relay, and it's a toss-up who will snatch the four-man one-mile affair.

Occidental hasn't been figured in any of the races, but there are those who have a sneaking hunch that the Orange and Black runners may be there in the last-named test.

Charlie Borgstrom, the vaulting phenom who a few years back wore the colors of U.S.C., will be out to do his little turn and show the boys he isn't in the has-been class—yet.

MARANVILLE FAITHFUL TO BOSTON BRAVES.

Rabbit Maranville has signed a 1920 contract. It was a Boston instrument and it looks as if the nearest the rabbit will come to appearing in a Giant uniform this year will be in the reveries of the fans.

McBRIDE UNDECIDED.

George McBride is undecided whether to return to the Washington club or devote his time to the haberdashery business in Milwaukee. He says he is perfectly satisfied with the contract sent him by Griffith.

IS HOD BETTER THAN JOHNSON?

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Is Hod Eller twice as good as Walter Johnson? Hod is said to have demanded $20,000 a year from the Reds. Walter Johnson is signed to a Washington contract at probably half that salary.

How many baseball managers would prefer Eller to Johnson for his 1920 team? Not many. Clark Griffith, magnate and manager, would not.

"Eller certainly isn't worth as much money as he demands," said Clark. "I'd rather have Walter Johnson. Walter didn't demand that much salary, and he could not have had it if he had.

HAD GOOD YEAR.

"Eller had a good year last season, but without the shine ball he may not do so well in 1920. Walter has been tried and has proven himself."

Griff admits that ball players should have raises—but reasonable ones.

"I live in Washington and I know something about living conditions," he said. "I know that when a ball player comes to me and says it will cost him $500 or $600 more to live during a playing season now that he speaks the truth.

RAISE IS JUST.

"Well, right there is a justifiable raise of $500 or $600 a player. But most of the players in the majors have demanded much more than they are justified to.

"I believe many of the demands are made through jealousy of others' success. Ball players sometimes boast of their salaries to each other and declare they are making a thousand or two more than they really receive. This sets the other fellow to thinking about what he ought to get."

CHICAGO CUBS READY FOR PASADENA TRIP.

MANAGER MITCHELL AND PLAYERS ARE TO TRAVEL IN SPECIAL CAR.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Members of the Chicago National League Club will get away from Chicago tomorrow night in special sleeping quarters for their training camp at Pasadena, Cal. Manager Fred Mitchell arrived today and declared himself satisfied with conditions. The only known holdout is Turner Barber, outfielder.

Secretary John Seys will be in charge of the party and will chaperon more than a thirty-five people. Among arrivals today were Charles Hollocher, shortstop; Joe Lettis, outfielder; Walter Pierce, infielder; Max Flack, outfielder; Fred Markle, King Lear and Charles Herzog, infielders; Tom Daly, catcher, and Nick Carter, pitcher.

Pitchers Alexander, Tyler, Vaughn and Catcher Killefer, who have been training at Hot Springs, will join the party Sunday morning at Kansas City, and Claude Hendrix, pitcher, also will board the train there.

FEDERAL JURY INDICTS JACKS.

to his appearance before the board, and that his parents and widowed sister had made their home with him for four years were false, according to the indictment.

"Say, dear, if I ask you, would you, if I wanted you to, swear to an affidavit that I was supporting you, (See?)" Dempsey wrote his wife, Maxine Dempsey, in August, 1917, the indictment asserted.

When Jack Dempsey got home from work last night he was greeted by an inquisitive sporting editor, jangling the telephone and clamoring to know what the heavyweight champion had on his mind now that the Federal grand jury had decided to have him pinched.

HADN'T HEARD.

"You're talking live news to me," said Dempsey. "I haven't heard a word about it."

After listening to the report of the indictments filed by the Federal grand jury in San Francisco, Dempsey appeared slightly flustered and announced that Jack Kearns was the man to see.

"This is the first I've heard of the jury's decision," said Jack, "but at that I'm mighty glad they've got the thing to a head and are going to settle it one way or the other. Personally, I have nothing to fear or hide and this action of the grand jury is certain to wind up all these arguments and do it quick."

It was reported that Dempsey and Kearns would leave last night for San Francisco to be there when the warrants were sworn out for their arrest, but this was emphatically denied by Dempsey last night.

"If there are any plans about my going north, I don't know anything about 'em," laughed the champion. "I'm perfectly willing to go up there, but they've got to come and get me first. I guess if they want me bad enough they'll come around and let me know about it."

QUAINT DECISION IS BOOED AT DOYLE'S.

REFEREE AWARDS QUESTIONABLE VERDICT TO BRENTON OVER HERMAN.

Boxing fans were up in arms again last night at Jack Doyle's pavilion when Referee Harry Lee gave the decision to Jimmy Brenton over Babe Herman. The house booed itself hoarse, and it was the general opinion that the worst Herman could have gotten was a draw. The bout was by far the best of the evening.

Brenton clipped his man on the jaw and sent him to the canvas in the first round for almost the big count. Babe rallied, however, and weathered the second and third round. In the middle of the fourth, however, Herman jolted Jimmy with a right to the jaw and repeated it several times. Just before the gong sounded, Brenton hanging onto Babe, was actually out on his feet and was ready to drop to the floor. He was a thoroughly beaten lad—hence the riotous demonstration of the crowd at the decision.

In the main event of the night, Cliff Jordan and Walter Caldwell boxed to a draw. The men fought evenly throughout and there was plenty of action.

The results of the other bouts were as follows: Benny McCoy beat Jimmy Roach every round; George Marks and Felix Villamore milled to a draw, as did also Jack Oliver and Jack Rauts, and Ralph Pena got the verdict over Mark Gay.

SIGN PITCHER ADAMS.

SNAKE RIVER BEE BUGABOO.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ST. LAKE (Utah) Feb. 27.—President William Lane and Secretory John Cook of the Salt Lake ball club are faced with a brand new bugaboo. It is none other than the Yellowstone-Snake River Baseball League, an outlaw organization including a series of agricultural towns of northern Idaho.

The popular pastime for Bee holdouts is to threaten to make a hop into that circuit if their pay check is not increased and none other than Bill Rumler, leading swatter of the Coast League last season and the backbone of the Salt Lake machine, was the latest to attempt to use this whip.

"TUB" GETS SLICE.

When "Tub" Spencer jumped to Rexburg of that bush circuit, Salt Lake lost a perfectly good pitcher in Reiger from Seattle and about $2000 in cash, it is reported. "Tub" is not even to manage Rexburg, either, Bart Woolums, former Western leaguer, being the big stick of that club, however. Spencer will be given a slice in a real estate business of the sugar-growing metropolis and take turns doing the catching.

Woolums says that Spencer wrote him he was through with baseball, so far as organized leagues were concerned, and wouldn't go up to Seattle on a bet. He declared he wanted to spend his last days in peaceful retirement among the bushes where hunting was good and he could get into a business that would assure him the gray wolf would never visit his door. His prayer was answered.

KALE FOR "CHICK."

St. Anthony business men, according to reports, raised several thousand dollars in a few hours to get "Chick" Gandil of the White Sox to manage its team. Ed Smoot, a real estate man, left his office open and told the business men subscriptions would be received. They came in and tossed the coin in a box and soon the box was filled and the floor covered. Gandil, whose 1920 salary has been cut $500 by "Kid" Gleason, will receive in the neighborhood of $10,000 and an interest in a real estate and insurance business.

Reports such as these being wafted into Pacific Coast baseball circles have been turning the heads of some of Ernie Johnson's proteges, Prexy Lane avers, but he is not worrying, for these prize packages are not forthcoming for everybody.

AGUA PRIETA (Son. Mex.) Feb. 27.—Private advices were received here today that Jack Johnson, former negro heavyweight champion, and fugitive from the United States where he is wanted to serve a prison sentence for violation of the Mann act, has filed a petition with the courts of Mexico City, applying for citizenship.

CLEVELAND FANS LIKE PITCHING STAFF.

Cleveland fans figure that Tris Speaker has a better pitching staff now than Lee Fohl had when the players went to the training camp last season. They contend the addition of Caldwell and Niehaus makes a big difference.

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—Ben Wallis, former Yale crew man and rowing coach at the University of Pennsylvania for the past three years, yesterday was ill with pneumonia.

SCANDAL IN BASEBALL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Baseball is due for a big sensation within the next few days, according to reports from the East which hinted at scandal involving three well-known players. The affair is said to be an echo of the gambling scandal of 1919. The report says Heinie Zimmerman and Hal Chase, regular infielders of the New York Giants, have played their last big league games and will be waived out of the majors by mutual consent of the club owners.

Lee Magee, former utility man of the Cubs, recently was made a free agent after all the magnates passed up his services.

REFUSE TO SAY.

President Veeck and Manager Mitchell of the Cubs refused to stipulate any reason for giving Magee his unconditional release although the player is still physically fit to play up to major league standards.

The New York writer, who discussed with Magee the latter's release during the baseball meeting here early in February, quotes Magee as saying:

"If they are going to pull such a trick on me, I guarantee you that I won't be the goat alone; at least one other player will go along with me."

But the writer adds that Magee did not specify who the other player was.

How the President Has "Come Back"

President Wilson "knows that he is now quite up to his fighting weight. As to his mental vigor, it is simply prodigious. He is giving splendid attention to the affairs of State, and we have every assurance that he will become progressively more active in these matters with the advent of spring and sunshine," according to one of the President's physicians. Disturbing, however, are the words of Dr. Arthur Dean Bevan, former President of the American Medical Association, who says that "the disease of the arteries," from which the President is suffering, "is permanent and not a temporary condition." Whatever the President's mental and physical condition, in the opinion of the medical men, he has emphasized his return to public life by receiving a delegation of railroad labor leaders, by sending to the Allied Supreme Council a virtual ultimatum on the Fiume controversy, and by dropping his Secretary of State. The latter action startled the public and aroused a storm of criticism, much of it unfavorable to the Chief Executive.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for February 28th, there is an illuminating article, illustrated with striking cartoons, upon the return of President Wilson to his official duties. It presents the editorial opinion of American newspapers upon the President's recent activities and gives various reasons why Secretary Lansing was asked to resign.

ESPEE OFFICERS GIVEN OLD JOB.

All but Four Chiefs to Fill Their Pre-War Berths.

Dyer is to Remain General Manager; Scott to Go.

Names of the officers who will have jurisdiction over the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific on and after March 1, when the railroads will be returned by the government to private control, were announced at San Francisco last night by William Sproule, president of the company. The general officers are:

William F. Herrin, vice-president and chief counsel.

Paul Shoup, vice-president and assistant to the president.

E. O. McCormick, vice-president in charge of promotion and development.

J. H. Dyer, general manager in charge of operation and maintenance.

T. O. Edwards, auditor.

G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager.

Charles S. Free, passenger traffic manager.

F. W. Taylor, purchasing agent in charge of purchases and stores.

W. F. Ingram, assistant treasurer.

G. L. King, assistant secretary.

THREE CHANGES.

With three exceptions, these appointments mean a return of the officials named above to the positions they held prior to Federal control. The exceptions are Mr. Shoup, who became vice-president and assistant to the president of the company during government operation; Mr. McCormick, who is again a vice-president with a new field, and Mr. Dyer, formerly assistant general manager under private control and general manager under Federal control, who becomes general manager in full charge of operation and maintenance.

W. R. Scott, formerly vice-president in charge of operation under private control and Federal manager on behalf of the Railroad Administration, has accepted other service of great responsibility, it was announced.

OPERATING STAFF.

P. E. Du Brutz, assistant general manager, Northern District.

T. H. Williams, assistant general manager, Southern District.

R. McIntyre, assistant to the general manager in charge of wage schedules.

R. J. Clancy, assistant to the general manager in charge of safety and other duties.

G. F. Richardson, superintendent of transportation.

R. L. Ruby, assistant superintendent of transportation.

W. M. Dabbs, assistant engineer of maintenance of way and structures.

S. M. Rathbone, manager dining cars, hotels, restaurants and railway clubs.

E. L. King, superintendent of telegraph.

A. H. Babcock, electrical engineer.

A. L. Hayden, contract agent.

D. O'Connell, chief special agent.

L. R. Smith, supervisor of transportation.

A. J. Hancock, chief clerk to general manager.

H. C. Hallmark, general freight agent, Los Angeles.

G. J. Blech, assistant general freight agent, Los Angeles.

F. S. McGinnis, general passenger agent, Los Angeles.

H. P. Monahan, district passenger agent, Los Angeles.

G. W. Wetherby, freight and passenger agent, traffic department, Pasadena.

G. W. Runge, freight and passenger agent, traffic department, Long Beach.

APPEAL BY SPROULE

In a signed statement, which will appear Monday morning on every bulletin board on the Pacific system, President Sproule will call upon officials and employees to "make our service comfortable for the passenger and useful for the shipper."

Continuing, the statement says: "The traveling and shipping public are our customers, who expect pleasant, thoughtful and prompt attention.

"It is our common interest to see to it that they receive such consideration, because the good will of the public, which is the foundation of the public opinion, is determined by the kind of service and attention we give."

In a public notice to be posted at all its stations, the Southern Pacific Company will announce to its patrons Monday:

"Your patronage is asked on the ground of our giving you in return the best service at our command, and in which we all, officers and employees, hope to earn your commendations.

"Your consideration is asked because with the passage of the new railroad bill by Congress, determining the public control of the railroads, we only now have in sight the end of a long period of great uncertainty in which it was impossible to determine plans for the future. In the period of readjustment following March 1, we rely upon your patience. Your co-operation is asked in letting us have the benefit of your suggestions and counsel in connection with our service."

WORKERS ENTERTAIN.

Series of Frolics for Employees is Ushered In.

Practically every one of the 300 employees of the Hawthorne Furniture Company attended a social given last night at Lincoln Hall, Walker's Auditorium building. The affair was arranged by the employees, as the first of a series of such entertainments to be given monthly in connection with the industrial democracy plan recently adopted by the company. Dancing followed a programme, including songs by Miss Lenore Trunette, V. C. Gentry, Miss May Edna Enos, Marquis Ellis and J. Rogers.

CONCEALS IDENTITY; IS GIVEN LONG TERM.

Frank Dorsey will go to San Quentin with his real identity and his purpose in stealing a suit case, valued at $40 from a physician, unknown to the police. Taken before Judge Willis yesterday he declined to answer questions about himself. He had previously refused the service of the Public Defender. He waived time and was sentenced to San Quentin for one to ten years.

EX-WIFE TO AID ACCUSING MAID.

Mrs. Rich Would be Witness for Violet Gibbons.

Wealthy Defendant Claims no Gift, no Delivery.

Mrs. Ethel M. Rich, whose marriage to Robert B. Rich, a wealthy man whose home is at 2248 South Harvard boulevard, was annulled because it took place before her decree of divorce from Leon Samuels became final, declared yesterday she will seek to be a witness for Miss Violet Gibbons, who was maid in Mr. Rich's home after the annulment and who had him arrested on a statutory charge the 3rd inst. Mr. Rich is out on bail pending a preliminary hearing before Justice Hanby on March 3.

"I have talked with Miss Gibbons," she said, "and I feel very sorry for her."

Miss Gibbons slipped into Judge Valentine's court yesterday during the trial of Mrs. Rich's suit against Mr. Rich to recover possession of securities valued at $65,000, which she claims he deeded to her. She sat in a rear seat, and left the courtroom quietly.

NO GIFT, HE SAYS.

Mr. Rich claims he retained the right to revoke the deed to Mrs. Rich. After the securities came into his possession, he transferred them to his mother, Mrs. Emma C. Rich. He claims the transaction was not a gift to his wife and that there was no delivery. Each had access to the safety deposit box where the securities were kept.

After the separation of the couple, they went to the bank, accompanied by their attorneys, and Mrs. Rich declares that Mr. Rich tore up the deed and took the securities. Her attorney later obtained an order enjoining him from disposing of the securities, pending the termination of the suit for their recovery.

Miss Gibbons charges that Mr. Rich locked her in a room in his house, held her a prisoner for five hours, menacing her with two revolvers, and attacked her. She finally escaped, with almost no clothing, she told the juvenile authorities to whom she appealed for protection. She told the officers that Mr. Rich told her he would not marry her, but would leave her $100,000 in his will if she would do as he wished.

CHARGES CONSPIRACY.

Mrs. Rich was formerly the wife of Leon Samuels, a San Francisco attorney who is representing her in her present action against Mr. Rich. Last year she sued Mr. Rich for divorce, naming a Mrs. Wilson, a widow, as co-respondent. He filed a cross-complaint charging that Mrs. Rich misconducted herself with one John Reed, or Clark. He further claims that she conspired with Reed to get possession of his valuables and that in furtherance of the plot she secretly admitted Reed to the house and that he (Mr. Rich) was beaten with a club as he lay in bed. For this job he said Reed was to have received $3000.

Mrs. Rich says Mr. Rich has an income of $1000 a month.

HIS :: LORDSHIP :: A-FISHING.

Glenconner Family Playing at Catalina.

Lord, Lady and Hon. Stephen Glenconner.

LORD GLENCONNER, brother-in-law of former Premier Asquith of Great Britain, is living the simple life of Santa Catalina Island for a few weeks. He arrived at Avalon with his family and retinue yesterday from Santa Barbara, via this city.

During their visit to the island Lord Glenconner, Lady Glenconner and their two sons, Right Honorable David and Stephen Tennant Glenconner, intend to devote their time to fishing in the channel, to hiking over the Catalina hills and to golfing. Lady Glenconner, who is the author of many books, will probably give much of her time to writing.

Lord Glenconner is the first baron of that name. His family name is Edward Priaulx Tennant. As a Liberal he sat in the House of Commons as a member from Salisbury from 1906 to 1910. The following year he was made baron, with the appointment as lord high commissioner of the general assembly of the Church of Scotland. He held this office for four years.

Lady Glenconner is the author of "The White Wallet" and other books. Her eldest son, the Right Honorable Edward Windham Tennant Glenconner, was one of the first young English noblemen to meet his death on the battlefield. One of Lord and Lady Glenconner's daughters is the wife of Lionel Tennyson, son of the late poet laureate of England.

This is not the first visit of the Glenconner family to America. They have traveled extensively through this country, and through Africa and India. The family home is at Peebleshire, Scotland.

MARKET BUREAU IN PERIL.

Fear Cut by Congress in Fund May Strip Coast Cities of Service.

Official word was received here yesterday from Washington, D. C., that the House Appropriations Committee has cut the appropriation for the Federal bureau of markets for the ensuing year by about $350,000. If this action is final, and the Senate concurs, it may mean the abolition of all bureau of markets offices on the Pacific Coast. The Secretary of Agriculture specifically asked Congress for an appropriation large enough to restore the leased wire service to the Pacific Coast, which was discontinued some time ago on account of reduced appropriations, but this item was not granted by the House committee.

As a result of the small appropriations allowed to the bureau of markets, the live stock and meat division offices will be closed on March 1, and on March 15 the fruit and vegetable offices will go out of existence in Portland. The only remaining offices will be in San Francisco and Los Angeles, and officials say that it cannot be stated definitely at the present time whether these offices will remain in operation after the first of July.

The House bill shows a reduction of almost $100,000 for the group of news service activities on fruits and vegetables in which the shippers and growers of the Pacific Coast are vitally interested. If the action of the House is confirmed by the Senate, there is no question, it is said, but that radical curtailment of expenditures and operations must be put into effect against the Pacific Coast, and in favor of the East. The measure now goes to the Senate, and many shippers and growers of Southern California are sending telegrams to the Senators from California urging that passage of the bill be held up, and the appropriations for carrying on this work be increased.

MUSICAL.

PROGRAMME SKETCHES TONAL DEVELOPMENT.

By Edwin Schallert.

Virtually a historic sketch of the development of music from the eighteenth century down to the present time was limned before the public in transcendental tone by Director Henry Rothwell at the ninth concert of the Philharmonic Orchestra yesterday afternoon at Trinity Auditorium. The programme was the first wholly devoted to orchestra music since the opening of the season. No soloist broke the onward progress of instrumental tone weaving in patterns varying from the splendid silken fabric of a Haydn symphony to the airy lacework of modern Debussy. His varicolored impressions, "Nuages" and "Fetes," were exhibited locally for the first time.

A programme like Mr. Rothwell presented yesterday in conjunction with the operatic season makes one wish that some angel of the almighty dollar would see fit to establish an operatic organization on the Coast and afford the director of the Philharmonic a chance to display that talent for reading lyric-dramatic scores which he manifested in so marked a degree in the overture to the "Flying Dutchman," by Wagner. I would say that the Prelude and Love Death brought the same idea to the fore were it not that Mr. Rothwell did not interpret this selection operatically, and with freedom. I missed the bigness that you feel when all the fires of flaming melody amid glowing harmonies are allowed to burn freely in the nerve thrilling music. Rothwell's interpretation was well-nigh classic in its fine repose, and has a value from a concert standpoint.

The novelty of the programme was the Florent Schmitt "Pupazzi" suite, which objectively and skillfully depicts the mimicry of Scaramouche, Clymene, Cassandre and the rest of the puppet characters, who might be described as the clown, the sibyl and the vamp of that imagined realm. Schmitt has not invoked the suggestion of symbolism, as did Verlaine and Debussy in their treatment of the same themes, but carves his tonal miniatures on exactly the same lines as the original. Pretty stuff of the lighter order, more suitable for a popular than a symphonic programme.

Mendelssohn's "Fingal's Cave" thrilled in its splendid tonal effects. It was about the best-played composition on the programme.

The real meat and drink of the concert was in the Haydn "Military" symphony, which had a freshness, vigor and primal vitality under Rothwell's leadership that made it a commanding work in the appeal to the intelligence.

Regarding the Debussy numbers—"Clouds" is descriptive, whereas the "Fetes" reminds us of the composer's mood in such songs as "Fantoches."

The rendition of the "Tristan and Isolde" numbers were marred at times by bad intonations in the brass section. The strings displayed a fine breadth of tonal force when the compositions demanded. They were manifestly excellent in this respect yesterday.

The programme, which is comprehensive and interesting, will be repeated tonight.

COLLEEN MOORE IN "CHIC" SALE PICTURE.

Colleen Moore will start Friday as leading woman for Charles (Chic) Sale in his first motion picture venture. The production, which is to be made at the Christie studio under the direction of Al Christie, will be a five-reel screen adaptation of Irvin S. Cobb's Saturday Evening Post story, "The Smart Aleck."

Miss Moore recently finished as Sessue Hayakawa's leading woman in "The Bleeder," and is enjoying a short rest. She appears on the screen at two Los Angeles theaters this week. She has the featured role in "Her Bridal Nightmare," a comedy, at the California, and is leading woman for Tom Mix in "The Cyclone," at the Symphony.

CUNNING INVITES QUESTIONS.

Cunning, the magician, who is exposing the tricks of mediums and fortune tellers at Clune's Auditorium, does not hesitate to challenge anyone who questions his findings and answers any and all questions that fortune-telling devotees and ouija-board fans may fire at him. Cunning gives a demonstration of the usual mediumistic products, reads minds, does a little crystal gazing, and otherwise mystifies his audiences, and then proceeds to reveal the trickery, or, as he terms it, "bunk" by which the feats are performed.

TELL SECRET MARRIAGE.

Pre-Graduate Union, Five Months Ago, Disclosed.

A pretty secret of a pre-graduation wedding five months ago was told last evening at a reception given at the home of Mrs. William H. Alford, 749 East Kensington road. The happy two are Mrs. Alford's youngest daughter, Hilda Elizabeth, and Albert Holman.

Miss Alford was a student at the Los Angeles High School at the time of her marriage, September 26, 1919, to Mr. Holman, and the wedding was kept secret until the young woman graduated from that school. Mr. Holman is a young business man of this city.

COUNCIL PLEADS FOR NAVY BASE

Pledges Continued Effort of City to Meet Terms.

Five Millions Asked for Work at San Pedro Harbor.

The City Council put itself on record yesterday as being determined to do all within its power to aid in securing the proposed submarine naval base for the Los Angeles Harbor. In resolutions introduced by Councilman Fleming, chairman of the Harbor Committee, and unanimously adopted, it is declared that the city "will continue activities until it shall be enabled to comply with the terms and conditions" required by the government. The resolution sets forth:

Whereas, under the date of February 25, 1920, there appears in the Associated Press dispatches from Washington among other things, the following: "Development of Pacific Coast shore facilities, including navy yards and bases for the new Pacific Fleet, was considered by the House Naval Committee, which had before it Rear-Admiral Parks, chief of yards and docks;" and

Whereas, Rear-Admiral Parks recommended to the committee as follows: "$1,500,000 for the establishment of a submarine base at San Pedro or land to be given the department by the city of Los Angeles;" and

Whereas, the city has taken such action as is within its power and will continue activities until it shall be enabled to comply with the terms and conditions laid down by the Secretary of the Navy, the Honorable Josephus Daniels; and

Whereas, the citizens of Los Angeles are very desirous of having established at Los Angeles Harbor a submarine base upon such a scale as will unite the army's and the navy's activities in development and believe it to be one of the deserved improvements to be made by the government;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that this Council hereby requests Congressman H. Z. Osborne to secure the passage of a bill by Congress, locating the submarine base upon the land recommended by Secretary Daniels and the authorization of the expenditure of $5,000,000 $1,500,000 to be made available for immediate development, improvement to continue until the government shall have developed an adequate submarine base at the harbor, the appropriation to be conditioned upon the city fulfilling the terms and conditions as recommended by Secretary Daniels, as shown on page 170 of his report for the fiscal year of 1919; and,

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be telegraphed in a night letter to Congressman Osborne at once.

SINGLE INTERPRETER FOR JUSTICE COURTS.

MAGISTRATES VOTE TO CLOSE EXISTING OPENING FOR PETTY GRAFTING.

At a meeting of township justices of Los Angeles county, held yesterday in the courtroom of Justice Palmer, a resolution was adopted favoring the employment of one interpreter for all justice courts hereafter. The meeting was attended by Justices Hanby, Summerfield, Palmer, Forbes, Brown and Minshaw.

A letter addressed to the justices from Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors, was read, urging that the justices employ one interpreter to be appointed by the Supervisors. The justices may appoint any interpreter they desire. They agreed, however, to call upon the man to be named by the board.

A report was recently made to the Board of Supervisors that certain interpreters had a habit of hanging about the Courthouse and charging foreign-speaking persons fees for showing them the marriage license bureau and for other pretended services.

FIGHT IMPENDING ON MACY STREET'S NAME

PROTEST CERTAIN NO MATTER HOW CITY DECIDES TO DUB THOROUGHFARE.

The Public Works Committee of the City Council is to wrestle with the question whether Macy street and Brooklyn avenue shall bear one name, and, if so, what it shall be. No matter what the decision, it is sure to arouse protest. Both names have been in use for years, and each has its strong adherents.

In connection with the proposed permanent improvement of Macy street from Gallardo street to Mission road, Acting City Engineer Stewart yesterday sent to the City Council a report stating that the condition on these two streets is similar to that in several other localities, where two sections of what is practically the same thoroughfare bear separate names.

"This condition," says Engineer Stewart, "tends to confusion of the postal authorities and also of the general public." He asks whether the thoroughfare shall bear a single name, and, if so, what it shall be.

The City Engineer was instructed to hold in abeyance the improvement of Macy street, from Keller to Gallardo, until proceedings for the widening of the street are consummated.

BEGINS PASS HEARING; ALSO INDICTS TWO.

A number of witnesses were heard yesterday by the Federal grand jury in the counterfeit railroad pass conspiracy case, among others being the officers who brought Theodore W. Powell and his wife to Los Angeles from Portland, Or. It is understood that the jury will make a report on the case next Friday.

The following indictments were returned before U. S. District Judge Bledsoe: Samuel Mandivill, entering the United States without passports, and engaging in a night battle with customs officers; Fred J. Peacock, using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THERESA COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

THE BRUSH.

Carranza will not allow any motion pictures to go out of Mexico unless they demonstrate his facial scenery to full advantage. That explains why all the Mexican official pictures seem so rich in whiskers.

VERSATILE POLITICS.

The new Secretary of State has been an Aldrich Republican, a Roosevelt Progressive and a Wilson Democrat. There is no indication, however, that he ever voted for William Jennings Bryan, so his future is still before him.

THE BURNING DECK.

Senator Johnson is going to put the League covenant into the campaign, so far as he is concerned, if he has to bring it on in irons. The people and the party may dispose of it, but the Senator is not so easily disposed of.

NOTHING TO IT.

Rose Pastor Stokes, who is under indictment for advocating the overthrow of the national government, declares that she will be a candidate for Congress from the fourteenth New York district. There may be some notoriety, but there certainly isn't much comfort in being a Socialist member of Congress. Ask Victor Berger.

SPYING AROUND.

In one of his South Dakota speeches Gov. Frank O. Lowden expressed himself as thoroughly opposed to this forever appointing commissions and committees to investigate something or somebody and then forgetting about it. It takes a lot of time and money and seldom accomplishes the desired reform. If a thing is bad call up the police and do your reforming when you go to the ballot box instead of afterward. This may not always be politics, but it is practical.

VENUS OR MARS.

Sig. Marconi says that it is Mars that is trying to signal us, while Prof. Abbot, astronomer of the Smithsonian Institution, declares that the mysterious manifestations are from Venus. Under the circumstances there doesn't seem anything to do but give the scientists a spyglass or a ouija board apiece and let them fight it out. A signed message from Mars or an autographed call from the lady at central on Venus would be welcomed as evidence, but in the absence of either it might be wise to withhold judgment. Personally, we would rather make a date with Venus than Mars. It seems to suggest more warmth and sociability; but at the same time if Mars really has a communication to make we are willing to hold the wire. Mars can do nothing to scare us any more.

INDEPENDENT.

Herbert Hoover is certainly one of the ablest nonpartisans that ever dodged a steam roller or tossed a monkey wrench into a political machine. He does not want his name used in connection with a primary nomination and he positively refuses to become an active candidate for the Presidency under the auspices of any political organization. In the course of a courteous letter to Georgia Democrats who prepared the necessary petition for the placing of his name on the Presidential primary ballot Mr. Hoover wrote: "I was not identified with the Democratic party before the war and my official connection with the government has been solely a war service and consequently not of a partisan character. I have not been able to persuade myself that any real public service would be performed by injecting myself into the race for the nomination for the greatest honor at the disposal of the American people." That is sufficient explanation for his staying out of a Georgia Democratic primary, but is no reason why men of all parties who admire his character and abilities should withhold their enthusiastic demand for his ultimate choice. Let the people and the conventions decide.

UNDER SUSPICION.

The supply of grapejuice provided for the refreshment of the United States navy is to be investigated. If by reason of age or other cause any of it indicates a higher proportion of alcohol than the sacred allotment of half of 1 per cent. it will be forthwith court-martialed and ordered shot at sunrise. The gallant sailors of our country are not to be plunged into perdition under the malignant influence of any 1 per cent. stuff. The heroes of the sea must go into battle with their noodles free from the frightful domination of strong waters, and our dauntless Secretary of the Navy is going to see that his charges are kept pure and unsullied if he has to go through the naval stores and sample every bottle of grapejuice in person. Providence may protect and guard the American navy, but the officials are taking no chances. Providence may not have a keen nose for alcoholic measurement. So the naval grapejuice will be assayed—or whatever it is that the department chemists do to it—and if any of it shows an alcoholic content beyond the statutory half of 1 per cent. there will be hell to pay. If any Germans have smuggled six-tenths of 1 per cent. of alcohol into the bottled refreshment of the American navy the Kaiser and Von Hindenburg will have to answer to the uttermost for their crimes.

TROTZKY'S PROMISES.

Soviet Russia is now seeking to play the part of the prodigal son. Three years ago, under Lenine and Trotzky, it left the house of the Allies and began wasting its substance in a riot of blood, wine and plunder. During the last year, however, a greater part of the population has been reduced to a diet of husks and, duly repentant, the soviet government has appealed to the Allies and the United States for recognition and—most of all—for money. There is the rub. If the United States will only make the proper cash advances the soviets are willing to hock a goodly portion of the property they have stolen.

This appeal for help contrasts rather strangely with Trotzky's pronunciamento on the first day of the present year. He then declared that the soviet idea was sweeping the world and that soviet governments would be in control in London, Berlin, Paris and Washington before the year closes. Two months have not elapsed since that boast was uttered and the same government is promising to call a constituent assembly in Russia and to liquidate Russia's indebtedness to other peoples at the rate of 60 cents on the dollar—providing always that the United States and the Allied governments will finance the soviets.

What response the League of Nations will make to this appeal is a matter in which we have but a speculative interest. This country is not a member of the League. It possesses a voice, perhaps, in its deliberations, but no vote. But the appeal has been made equally to the American government, and it is possible that someone, some time, in authority at Washington will make a reply. There has not been what the President terms an official Cabinet meeting during the last five months; and there is no prospect for such in the near future. But the country is sustained by the hope that the State Department will shortly begin to function and that some of the important communications now in pigeon holes will be taken out and considered.

Perhaps it is just as well that the administration is not in condition to give immediate consideration to Russian affairs. The soviets claim to have established a de facto government in the territory that they now occupy; and it might be embarrassing for our government to decline formal recognition. The Lloyd George government has taken the position that a de facto government has been established in Russia; but from this opinion the Clemenceau government has dissented. It is possible that the pledge to liquidate the indebtedness of the former Russian government was made in order to mollify French opinion. The Russian government owed to French creditors more than $3,000,000,000 at the time the Czar was deposed. There have been no payments, either of principal or interest, since; and the soviet government has issued decrees repudiating the indebtedness of the former government. Now comes Trotzky with the offer to liquidate the old indebtedness at the rate of 60 cents on the dollar.

If Clemenceau, the tiger, were at the head of the present French government he would have very likely replied that French honor is involved and that France doesn't liquidate its honor at so many cents on the dollar. The very silence of the present government of France indicates a new foreign policy. We are of the opinion that the former French government was right in holding that the soviets have not yet proved beyond contestation that they have established a de facto government. While there is a lull in military activities at the present time in Russian territory, there is no assurance that the Russian patriots will not assert themselves again in the spring.

As the case now stands, the soviet government comes to the United States asking for recognition and money on the strength of the promises it makes. Trotzky tells what he will do in return for a cash advance and liberal credit; but we prefer to have the soviet government come and ask for recognition on the strength of what it has done. Promises are cheap; but it takes stability to guarantee fulfillment. Trotzky says the soviets will call a constituent assembly and conduct a government on democratic principles. But where is the guarantee that the assembly will not be closed by the red guard as soon as the Bolsheviki are shown to be in a minority? The Lenine government called a constituent assembly two and a half years ago; but it was broken up by armed men when it was found that the anti-Bolshevik forces were in control.

This country should recognize the de facto Russian government only as a last resort. Its leaders are too red-handed; their boots are dripping blood; the corpses of the women and children they have slain still lie unburied on the steppes. The soviet form of government which they claim to have established is neither republican nor democratic. It deprives of suffrage all those who do not belong to certain associations. It permits the whole people to govern neither through their representatives nor en masse. It may not be more autocratic that the government of the Czars, but it is not more democratic.

We are now faced with the problem of deciding when a government possesses authority to speak for a people. If the soviets should restore peace in Russia and the Russian people themselves should accept soviet rule without protest to other nations the soviets would be held, after international precedents, to have established a de-facto government; and the usual international procedure would be for other governments to recognize them. But, we repeat, it will be time enough for this country to recognize the government of the soviets when they can tell us what they have done, not when they come with empty promises of what they are going to do.

Down in Georgia a negro tipped off the location of a moonshine still and the authorities had the time of their lives in saving him from lynching. When a man attempts to cripple the favorite industry of the hill country he surely takes his life in his hands. That's what they call a real crime.

The press agent comments on the fact that Gov. Lowden is wearing his last winter's overcoat. That is nothing. We are intimately acquainted with a man who is wearing his very last winter undershirt and it looks as if it were made for a boy, at that.

DRIVING VISITORS AWAY.

The Times recently printed an important news item to the effect that the Santa Fe had added another section to one of its eastbound passenger trains. The reason for this addition is apparent; the eastbound tourist rush has begun, and six weeks earlier than ever before. In former years the tourists came West during the whole of February and did not begin to scatter to the North and the East until late in March. What has driven so many of them back into the lap of winter this year? Ask that question of the grasping, profiteering landlord and apartment-house keeper. They have done an incalculable injury to the reputation of Los Angeles as a winter resort.

Letters come to The Times by the score complaining of inadequate accommodations and extortionate prices; and The Times admits that it cannot understand the source of this sudden greed for profit on the part of those who make their living from rentals. We are well aware that THE RENT PROFITEERS ARE IN A MINORITY; that not all the owners of buildings are taking advantage of a temporary shortage of houses to extract their pound of flesh. But the injury done by these few human leeches falls alike upon the innocent and the guilty. The good name of Los Angeles has suffered.

Thousands of tourists who have been coming to Los Angeles every winter for, lo, these many years will never return. They will spread to the winds the reports of the outrageous rents and rates they were charged here and other tourists will go elsewhere. A few conscienceless rent profiteers have momentarily fattened their purses, but in doing so they are aiding to damage the entire community. The real sufferers are those who make their homes here, who are in business, either as employers or employees, and who will find their incomes diminished when the tourists come no more.

The Times does not speak in this vein without good reason. We could cite scores of instances of heart-breaking advances in rentals made by rapacious landlords, instances where hotels are charging $10 a day for a single inside room; an instance wherein a school-teacher who had been paying $25 a month rent for a small room found that rental boosted by a brutal landlord to $75 and she did not know where to go. Such a practice is nothing less than legalized robbery. And in most cases called to our attention the managers of hotels and apartment-houses where the rents were unjustifiably raised hold long-term leases. The lessees are not paying a dollar more than they paid last year, or will pay next year; but they have taken advantage of the shortage in houses to double and treble their rents. Such action is plain, bald profiteering.

The Times regrets that no method has yet been devised for singling out these rent hogs and holding them up to public obloquy. As long as they remain anonymous they will continue their practice and the innocent will not be able to escape suspicion for having shared in the guilt. We are all aware, however, that when public opinion becomes focused on some indefensible practice in Los Angeles a way is generally found to expose the perpetrators and to punish them for their evil deeds. It may be possible to expose those who have made unfair profits out of rentals or subrentals, just as a way was found to expose those who were so disloyal or parsimonious that they would not purchase Liberty Bonds.

SECRETARY LANE.

California views with regret the retirement of Franklin K. Lane from the President's Cabinet. During a series of years he has rendered exceptional service, alike to the Pacific Coast and to the country as a whole, as Secretary of the Interior. Thousands of miles intervene between the eastern boundary of California and the District of Columbia, where the supreme executive authority of the nation is domiciled. The Pacific Coast has but a meager representation in Congress, compared with the vast stretch of its territory and the importance of its but partly developed resources. It is only when California is represented by one of its own citizens in the Cabinet that the industries of the State can be certain of intelligent consideration.

Many important projects affecting the commercial and industrial life of the Pacific Coast were formulated during the secretaryship of Mr. Lane, and a number are yet unfinished. It is largely due to his efforts that the present development of the basin of the Colorado River has been made; and it is to be regretted that he is retiring from the Cabinet before that great work is completed.

During the whole time that he has held a Cabinet position Mr. Lane has never displayed a narrow partisan spirit. He has never been accused of using his official position to influence partisan legislation; and he has achieved an enviable reputation for viewing on its merits every project submitted to him. California and the Southwest have fared well during the time that Mr. Lane has been at the head of the Department of the Interior. His retirement will occasion general regret, relieved only by the recollection that political eclipses are at times of but short duration.

AGAINST THE TIPPING VICE.

Commending The Times for its stand against the tipping evil as an un-American method of compensation, a correspondent writes that there is no better place in the country to "exemplify the true American method of compensating employees than Los Angeles." His argument is well worth serious consideration. The Times fully approves his conclusion that:

> The hundreds of thousands of tourists and travelers who come to our community every year could take back a message to their own communities, stating that Los Angeles is different from any other commercial and tourists center in the world, namely: that the employers of labor recognize and appreciate the ability of their employees and pay them accordingly, and when a price is made at a hotel for a room or at a cafe for a meal the price includes all the service that it is possible for the management to render, and that the service includes all the charges to the customer.

We have also noted that a Commercial Travelers' Defensive Association has been organized in California and that one of its objects is to secure the enactment of legislation forbidding the giving of tips and tipping. The Times is of the opinion that tipping is a question of the customs of a people and, as such, is not a proper subject for government restriction. There are many things that the citizens of American communities should regulate of their own volition. If we are to retain a modicum of our individual liberty we must show ourselves capable of exercising self-determination without appealing to the government.

The tipping evil has become, however, an intolerable nuisance, in addition to being a considerable item of expense to those who dine at cafes or hotels and to the traveling public in general. One correspondent writes that: "A gentleman high in church circles declares on his honor that, thus far, his derby hat has cost him $11.20. He paid $5 to the hatter for it and has given $6.20 to the hat bandits to regain possession of it, and the hat is still in its youth. It will probably cost him at least $25 before its career ends."

As The Times has said, tipping is a remnant of monarchical tyranny that has no place in the life of a free people. Tariffs of hotels and cafes should be published the same as for railway service; and when a person has paid that tariff he or she should be free from the extortions of employees. The first step to abolish the tipping evil will be for the proprietors of hotels and cafes to pay their employees a fair wage; and the second step will be for the traveling public to assert sufficient independence to refuse to be held up by waiters, checkers and bell boys. The growth of the cafeteria is very largely a protest against the tipping nuisance.

Some day this government will quit "scouring" the border of Mexico and do a little cleaning up on the inside.

CRAMPED.

BY BESS MUNN.

The spirit of adventure is in danger. Time was when high-hearted and be-plumed men might sally forth from their home town and in the course of time plant their feet upon a brand new island or continent or mountain or peninsula and go down to everlasting fame. They might talk the matter over with their bank cashier, borrow a few shekels, rig up a boat, wave a farewell to those daubing their weeping eyes on the shore, knowing almost to a dead certainty that they would meet somewhere in the bounding main a stretch of land that was waiting with feather-decorated natives for a discoverer. The Seven Seas' chief province for some centuries was playing the part of highway to these land hunters, these continent baggers, these island sleuths. And these discoverers led a wonderful life. They were of the stuff that Locklear is made of. They wouldn't have known fear had they met that individual face to face and howling storms and rolling seas were their meat.

And once they had set foot upon new soil and thrown flying to the wind the colors of their country and cheated the natives out of their land, wives and eye teeth others followed in their wake. And it took quite as much spirit of adventury in these followers as it did in the discoverers. Those were days to stir the blood. Then there were new worlds to conquer. A young man might dream dreams of sea trips worthy of the steel of a man of courage and daring. Nothing pals about those days. Tales were told worthy a man's ear. Deeds of glory were done every day in the week. The spirit of adventure flourished like a green bay tree.

But now! We're not only acquainted with every crook and cranny of this earth, but we are even conscious of that contempt that follows familiarity. What with magazines and newspapers and the movies, romance lies swooning. What incentive is there to brave the mosquitoes and heat and bathlessness of an equatorial trip when we can know how the native women dress—or not—how the zebra eats, how pythons drink and how the Zulus hunt by merely paying a quarter or so and sitting comfortably in a picture theater while the orchestra plays "The Vamp"? Discovery to the tune of jazz is death to the spirit of adventure. What's the point of risking chilblains and frozen toes in the Arctics when, by spending a quarter for a magazine, you can learn the habits of seals, bears, whales and flat-nosed Eskimos? What's the use of being heroic and sailing forth, or rather steaming forth, from your kinfolk to places where snow or jungles abound if the story of your going forth would be about as interesting to the world as a Christmas entertainment in August?

The discoverers have discovered all there is to discover. And if there is any little thing not yet known, you may rest assured that the radio or airplane or motion-picture camera will soon haul it to light. We've just nosed into every acre of earth's surface and into the public and private life of every nation until we're all fed up on ourselves and our neighbors. We're getting sick to death of each other.

We have reason to believe that there are interesting things going on on the stars that are knocking about in the celestial blue. Once in a while an adventurer, imbued with that spirit which obtained some centuries ago, speaks right up and says he thinks that there are folks and therefore activities of interest going on on these other spheres and hope rises again.

The airplane ought to come to our assistance. We think the affiliated aviators, if there is such a body, ought to do something about the matter. We must have more food for adventure. We're too close together. We're cramped.

AIN'T IT JUST SO?

TESTAMENTARY.

"Of course, I'll make my will," said Mike, "when I am in the mood, some day; it is a job I much dislike; it brings me visions of decay. But I'm resolved to do it soon; from that resolve there's no retreat; I'll do it ere another moon has waxed and waned, so help me Pete." Then he goes touring on the lea, to breathe some wholesome atmosphere; he winds his car around a tree; then he is placed upon a bier. Then lawyers like the ravens flit from every quarter to his gate; they come with warrant, deed and writ and divvy up that man's estate. The lawyers gather in the kale that may be hid in safe or till; in vain the rightful heirs may wail—the dead man failed to make a will. He is indeed a foolish skate who puts off duties such as this, for no man knoweth when his fate shall send him to the realms of bliss. At any hour a wrench may drop from some large airship overhead and land upon your dome, kerflop, so that you line up with the dead. The wise man has his life insured and makes his will while strong and hale; then when life's in the clay immured, the rightful heirs will get the kale.

Own Your Own Home Live in Health, Comfort and Happiness in the Southland. Own Your Own Home

Don't be Cheated Out of Life's Greatest Blessing

Perhaps you have many times seriously considered buying a lot and building a house. And perhaps you have been putting off acting on this very sensible resolution, waiting for "your ship to come in," or for something to turn up that would make it easy for you.

Procrastination has cheated human beings out of many things that would have made their lives happier and more worth while, and chief among these deferred blessings is the home one dreams about and longs for, but which never materializes because of imaginary obstacles that stand in the way.

No matter how small, how modest and unpretentious it may be, OWN YOUR OWN HOME! You will be amazed at the new and brighter outlook on life the possession of a GRANT DEED to a house and lot will give you. Instead of being a financial embarrassment, it will become a stepping-stone to success and prosperity.

It is so easy to own your own home AND furnishings, and just as you are able to secure easy terms of payment on your house and lot, so you can arrange for convenient payments at Barker Bros. on the furniture and other home appointments desired.

The co-operation of Barker Bros.' home-making specialists will be of great help to you in the selection of your furnishings and enable you to create a "homey" atmosphere at the least possible cost.

House Description and Floor Plan.

This attractive stucco colonial bungalow was designed by the Lumbermen's Service Association, 609 Fay Building, as suggesting a type of smaller home that might be built economically. It has certain architectural features, especially the entrance, window arrangement and pergola-covered driveway which create a very pleasing impression. The stucco construction gives the house a greater fire-resisting quality. Another special feature, and one which saves construction cost, is the combination driveway and walk. This arrangement leaves considerable space at the front of the house for lawn and flowers. There are alternate floor plans, each of which embodies several distinctive features. This house has been designed for a forty or fifty-foot lot.

SAYS HOME IS AN IDEAL.

Prize Winner in "Times" Contest Tells Reasons for Owning.

N. D. Dunlea of 726 North Mariposa street, winner of the fourth prize in The Times' "Why I Should Own My Home" contest, believes home ownership exerts a strong influence in character-building. He says:

"I believe I should own a home first of all to have a certain authoritative and responsible interest in the community. Whether it is general improvements or municipal government, the home-owning citizen has a much weightier voice in such matters, and this can better shape the community in which he or she lives, into the kind of a place preferred.

"As an investment, a home in Southern California is one bound to be an increasingly profitable one because of the climate and the constantly growing population and advantages. Thus owning a home, or paying for one for future ownership, is a splendid ideal for saving money. And there is no time like the present to begin this kind of saving, for one can have the benefit of a home while investing money at good interest!

"As an ideal, too, for character-building it can scarcely be estimated in dollars and cents, as it unconsciously but surely gives one an independence and courage to work and face the world through difficulties that no other investment does. Who wouldn't strive to keep the very roof over his head?

"Besides being a sound investment, the profit of home owning is apparent in numerous other ways. Any improvements the owner makes are his. Odd moments that could not be profitably utilized in a rented home can actually be invested in one's own home by doing half a dozen different things such as painting, repairing, carpentering or making a garden. Many a holiday is really made enjoyable by polishing the floors, putting fresh enamel on the woodwork, "doing over a room with a pretty color scheme, building a summer house or planting sweet peas.

"And to have a garden and all that that means is one of the real joys of home owning. To have a place where one may raise one's favorite trees, flowers and vegetables is not a passing pleasure but a health and profit-bringing recreation.

"Then there is the immense satisfaction of expressing one's own ideas in architecture and pretty grounds, not to forget the possibilities of creating a real home from both an artistic and spiritual standpoint. To live in rooms that are convenient for one's special needs gives the fullest measure of content. Besides being a haven from all the world, a home is the only real place to extend hospitality to others!"

APPROVES CONTEST.

Inspired Many to Build, Says Times' Prize Winner.

William Bickley of Long Beach, winner of sixth prize in The Times' "Why I Should Own My Home" letter contest, has written the following communication to the contest editor praising the purpose of the contest:

"I am writing to thank you and all concerned for my prize, but more particularly to congratulate you upon the great interest that was very evidently awakened by this contest. The subject on the face was a bit prosaic, for those who own would not be expected to respond, while those who do not are usually indifferent. But at the heart of it, there is a real human interest story for thousands who crave home ownership (the vine-clad porch and little garden and the joy of owning,) but who feel that their cases are as hopeless as a man on a raft in a stormy sea without compass or rudder and not even the solace of a good prohibition jug on board.

"My inspiration to enter the contest was a thought that I might hand this class of drifters on the ebb and flow of existence a bit of hope that would cheer and prompt some of them to exert themselves. I wanted especially to convey a message to old people past 60, of small means, to not regard themselves as out of the running, where they have good health and the will to do something more than think of Elijah and the ravens. There is no hopeless case for any one if the aspirant for a genuine home will get his or her proper bearings. And it is here that your contest will have an inspiring and far-reaching effect."

LECTURE ON ADOBE.

John William Chard, Santa Barbara architect, will lecture on modern adobe construction at Victor Girard's model house at Walnut Park tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Chard, an authority on adobe construction, will explain why adobe makes an ideal material for home construction, how it should be treated to obtain the best results and how it can be utilized to cut down the present high cost of building. Mr. Girard is now building a number of modernized adobe homes of the Spanish type at Walnut Park.

Famous Naturalist Guest of Gamut Club, made Member.

John Burroughs, famous naturalist, spoke last night before the Gamut Club and gave reminiscences of Roosevelt, Carlisle and Sir Walter Scott and personal experiences. The affair was a banquet in his honor and many noted members of the club were present.

A number of Mr. Burroughs's poems were read by club members and the guest was made an honorary member of the organization. Ellis Parker Butler, author of "Pigs is Pigs," gave an interesting talk. Musical numbers were given by the Ladies' Quartette and members of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company sang.

Will that Boy of Yours Make Good?

That boy of yours has great possibilities. The chief factor in his success is good health. The chief factor in good health is cleanliness inside.

Keep his mind keen and his physical force ever increasing through the proper elimination of waste matter and intestinal poisons from his system.

By an entirely new principle Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body. Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system. Nujol works on the waste matter instead of on the system.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

HOPE IN CITY'S POWER SYSTEM.

Municipality to Take Part in Producers' Meeting.

Greater production of hydroelectric power by the city of Los Angeles was declared at yesterday's meeting of the Public Service Commission to be one of California's "greatest hopes of salvation" in view of the shortage that is imminent because of lack of rainfall.

Representatives of all the power companies of the State are to meet in San Francisco Monday to discuss the general situation and devise means by which to more equitably distribute the electric power that can be generated. At the request of State officials, the city of Los Angeles will be represented as one of the big power producers. At yesterday's session, a special committee, consisting of Chief Electrical Engineer Scattergood, Chief Engineer Mulholland and Special Counsel Matthews, was authorized to represent the city at Monday's conference.

CAN'T MEET DEMAND.

At the same session, a letter was presented from President Edgerton of the State Railroad Commission, which states:

"Information from all parts of California has made it evident that there is substantially less electric energy available than sufficient to meet the present demand.

"The situation has been intensified by an abnormally short rainfall until now it has become of great importance for the sake of the people of California as a whole that every possible development of electric energy be proceeded with energetically.

"The city of Los Angeles has made a very substantial contribution to the general power situation in Southern California and it could be of still further assistance and perform a real public service, not only to its own citizens, but to the people of the South if it would develop additional power at the most available points in the shortest possible time.

"Not only would further prompt power development by the city of Los Angeles substantially assist to offset the evils of the present shortage, but would help to prevent a continuance of this shortage in the years immediately ahead."

LITIGATION A BAR.

The board instructed the president and secretary to formulate a reply, which will set forth what has already been accomplished in the way of power production, and the plans for the development of power at San Fernando Dam and Franklin Canyon Dam, despite the obstacles of litigation instigated. It was declared, by a power corporation that is wholly within the jurisdiction of the State Railroad Commission. It will be set forth that much greater and more rapid progress in power development could be made were this litigation abandoned and the city able to proceed with the sale of power bonds authorized by a vote of the people.

The reply will also show how the flow of the Owens River has been increased by the sinking of artesian wells, so that it will produce 70,000,000 kilowatts more per year as soon as the San Francisquito Power Plant No. 2 is put in operation.

RAISE IN ELECTRIC RATES IS ASKED.

EDISON COMPANY SAYS HIGH COST OF FUEL PREVENTS PROPER CASH RETURN.

To meet increased costs of labor, materials and fuel oil, the Southern California Edison Company in a petition filed with the State Railroad Commission at San Francisco yesterday asks for a general increase in the rates for its electric service in Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, Ventura, Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties.

The company, says the petition, is not getting a fair return on its investment of approximately $84,873,000, in spite of the surcharge granted by the commission in December, 1918. An increase in this surcharge is also requested, to serve until the rates are finally adjusted.

In citing the greater cost of operation, the company's petition states that the fuel oil item alone will mean an outlay this year of $1,750,000 in excess of last year's bill. The scarcity of water, now a formidable problem for the electrical companies of the State, will be in large part responsible for this increased fuel outlay, since it will necessitate extensive generation of electrical power by the use of steam plants.

HELD TO ANSWER.

Francis Filtzer and George Weener were held to answer yesterday by Justice Hanby on a charge of stealing several costly leather coats and other articles used by aviators of the Syd Chaplin Airplane Corporation. Bail was fixed at $1500 each.

QUIT "SHIPPING-DAY" PLAN.

Notice was given the Associated Jobbers of Los Angeles yesterday that beginning with the return of the railroads Monday, the "Shipping Day" plan will be discontinued and freight service to all points on the various roads will be resumed.

The Santa Fe will load a car daily for Bakersfield, leaving at 9 o'clock each night, and going to all points on the Sunset Railroad and on the Santa Fe as far north as Hanford. There will also be a car for Fresno and all points in the Visalia district and on the Minkler Southern line. Shipments requiring transfer at Bakersfield arriving at night will be handled at night and go out as local freight the next morning. Colton, Riverside and Anaheim service will be resumed.

On the Southern Pacific, a San Joaquin Valley merchandise train will leave at 9 p.m., loading for Palmdale, Lancaster, and Lang and other points in the valley. This train will arrive at noon the next day in Bakersfield. Trains will be run to afford a second morning delivery at Maricopa, Taft and Fresno and for deliveries to points beyond.

San Francisco and Oakland and other far north cities will be served by a train leaving at 9:45 p.m. This will serve points to but not including Tracy on the western division and will take care of business on the Northwestern Pacific. A car for Santa Paula and Santiocy will be included in this train. Train No. 132 will carry merchandise for Fillmore and intermediate points. This train leaves in the morning and makes delivery the same morning.

The Southern Pacific will run a train to Imperial Valley points leaving here at 8:15 p.m. and making first morning delivery at Colton, Riverside, San Bernardino, Redlands, Beaumont, Banning and intermediate points, and afternoon and second morning delivery to points beyond. Merchandise will be handled on the orange train to give second morning delivery to Yuma and not later than third morning delivery to points beyond. Santa Ana district merchandise will be handled on No. 116 leaving here at 10 p.m.

The Salt Lake Route will handle local traffic under pre-war conditions, receiving shipments for all points daily.

Rotarians Around Their Birthday Cake.

YOUNG, BUT BIG FOR AGE.

Six hundred cities in this and other countries yesterday celebrated the fifteenth birthday of the Rotary Club, an organization that has become international in its scope in that short period. Socially, Rotarians gathered at an old-fashioned birthday party at 741 South Broadway at noon.

A huge cake represented the insignia of the club, a wheel, with its fifteen candles and the flags, the fifteen countries where branches have been established, was the center around which gathered the celebrators.

Two hundred and seventy-five members of the club attended the luncheon. Will R. Forker, president of the local branch, turned the meeting over to James Cannon, the toastmaster, after a brief speech. The origin, history, growth and ideals of the club were spoken of by the different speakers, among whom were Maynard McFie, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Carl S. Patton of the First Congregational Church and H. J. Christie, vice-president of the Bank of Italy of San Francisco, who has just returned from a trip to Mexico City.

Mr. Christie stated that the American residents and business men of Mexico City have recently organized a Chamber of Commerce and that conditions in the city are stable and prosperous. It is his plan to establish a Rotary Club there.

Stars from the San Carlo Grand Opera Company sang a number of songs and the members sang Rotary songs.

TO RELEASE PANEL.

Members of the January term trial jury for Judge Willis's court, made up largely of women, will probably be discharged today or Monday, it was understood yesterday. This jury panel furnished jurors for the trial of Donald C. Graney, who was convicted of burglary by an all-woman jury, and Eloise Marie Marshall, so-called the "poor little rich girl," accused of manslaughter, the jurors, men and women, disagreeing in the latter case.

WIFE IS SLAIN.

Because Mrs. Adislada Garcia refused to live with him again, Felipe Garcia, her husband, is said to have stabbed and killed her yesterday near Artesia, on the Montana ranch, which is owned by W. A. Clark of the Salt Lake Railway.

The husband went to the ranch Thursday night and continued his pleas yesterday morning. He became enraged, according to officers, and stabbed the woman several times in the back. Fleeing, he escaped in the Los Angeles River bottom after being shot at by his wife's brother. Sheriff Cline and Deputies Sepulveda, Lips and Anderson searched for Garcia, but failed to find him.

BAPTIST RALLY TODAY.

New World Movement Meeting to be Held in Berean Hall.

A call has been sent out to all Baptists to attend the New World Movement rally to be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock in Berean Hall, Temple Baptist Church.

Dr. Arthur W. Rider, special representative of the General Baptist Promotion Board, will act as chairman. Among the speakers announced are Dr. A. M. Pettie, Dr. W. F. Harper and Dr. Frederick G. Davies, State promotion director for the one-hundred-million-dollar Baptist campaign.

Mrs. W. A. Montgomery of Rochester, N. Y., missionary worker, will speak on "Women's Part in this Great New World Movement." Following the meeting a complimentary luncheon will be given in honor of Mrs. Montgomery.

SHIPS TO CALL HERE.

Jap Steamers from New Orleans and Panama to Stop at San Pedro.

The establishment of Los Angeles Harbor as a direct port of call for one of Jauan's greatest steamship lines was announced yesterday by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha Company in a telegram to D. F. Robertson of the Merchants' National Bank.

The message contained the information that the company's Hawaii Maru will call here en route from New Orleans to Japan, March 15, and that the Panama Maru will stop here March 19. Each boat will be able to accommodate six cabin passengers and will go direct to Japan from here.

The company has announced that if it finds that business justifies such a venture it will route all of its steamers via Los Angeles Harbor.

LIBRARY TO GET PIANO.

Formal presentation of a piano to the Lincoln Heights branch of the Public Library by the Lincoln Heights Board of Trade and the Wednesday Morning Club will be made this evening. President Holland of the Board of Trade will make the presentation speech, and Orra E. Monnette, president of the library board of directors, will reply. The piano will be used in connection with the community sings at the branch every Friday night.

Here Is One Thing That Is Absolutely Impossible

Rheumatism Has Never Been Cured by Liniments or Lotions, and Never Will Be.

You never knew of Rheumatism—that most painful source of suffering—being cured by liniments, lotions or other external applications. And you will never see anything but temporary relief afforded by such makeshifts.

But why be satisfied with temporary relief from the pangs of pain which are sure to return with increased severity, when there is permanent relief within your reach? Science has proven that Rheumatism is a disorded condition of the blood. How, then, can satisfactory results be expected from any treatment that does not reach the blood, the seat of the trouble, and rid the system of the cause of the disease? S. S. S. has for more than fifty years been giving relief to even the most aggravated and stubborn cases of Rheumatism. It cleanses the blood by routing the disease germs. The experience of others who have taken S. S. S. will convince you that it will promptly reach your case. You can obtain S. S. S. at any drug store.

A valuable book on Rheumatism and its treatment, together with expert medical advice about your own individual case, will be sent absolutely free. Write today to Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 250 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.
